State Educators Indicate Region's Vocational School Will be Located in Fox Cities

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON—The whole of Winnebago County was joined to the Fox Valley area vocational school district in a surprise move Monday by the State Board of Vocational, Technical and Adult Education.

The board commented on earlier discussions which concluded that no matter what district the southern half of Winnebago County were connected to, the Fox Valley district or the Fond du Lac district, the sites for the technical institutes would be in the Fox Cities and Fond du Lac with a satellite school at Oshkosh.

An earlier recommendation had placed only the northern section of Winnebago county, including Neenah-Menasha, in the Fox Valley district, which also includes Outagamie, Waupaca and Calumet counties. But the board voted nine to one to join all of Winnebago to the district instead.

Although the district was set up on county lines instead of a combination of county and school district lines, the board ruled that adjustments could be made later to accommodate school districts which wished to join another vocational school district.

The group to select a Fox Valley area vocational board to operate the district would be made up of the four county board chairmen and four school board presidents selected by the boards of the participating school districts.

Staff assistants to the board pointed out that the move, suggested by A. E. Mueller of Watertown, would allow both the Fox Valley and Fond du Lac districts to meet all minimum criteria for area vocational districts established by the board last spring.

CCHE Must Ratify

The action still must be ratified by the state Coordinating Committee for Higher Education, which is expected to act on the 15-district plan approved by the board, at a meeting in mid-December.

The 15 districts created are based on county lines with an allowance for change on school district lines in limited instances. The plan, enacted under directive from the 1965 Legislature, must be adopted by the counties of the state by 1970. A resolution adopted unanimously at the board meeting would

Brezhnev Says Attempt to Ban China Nonsense

Communist Party Leader Speaks of Red Conference

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — Soviet Communist party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev said today conditions were ripening for a world Communist conference but it was "utter nonsense" that such a gathering would banish the Red Chinese from the world movement.

Brezhnev told the Hungarian Communist party congress the conference would be a "comradely discussion of urgent problems of international development that have taken place in the world in the past six years" since the last conference was held.

The Soviet leader said the world meeting would "jointly analyze" these developments. He did not name the Chinese, but it was clear that he spoke of the Peking regime.

'Bourgeois Press'

Brezhnev claimed the idea of banishing the Chinese at a world conference had been "trumpeted out by the bourgeois press."

At Monday's session of the congress, Communist party chief Janos Kadar had said there was no need to excommunicate Red China at a world conference. But he warned Red China's leaders they cannot block a world Communist unity congress indefinitely.

In a direct reference to the Chinese leadership, Brezhnev said Peking was "refusing to take part in joint action for the defense of Viet Nam."

Gets Letters From 7,000

Marine Sits Write Down

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) —A West Virginia Marine in Viet Nam recently bet his buddies he could get 400 letters from West Virginians through a letter writing campaign.

He won the bet and more than he bargained for, receiving some 7,000 letters.

The Marine is Lance Cpl. Bobbie L. Ruble of Parkersburg, who wrote Gov. Hulett C. Smith earlier explaining the wager. The governor's office then spread the word to the press, and the 7,000 letters resulted.

"When the letters started coming in," Ruble said in a letter to Smith, "they weren't in bundles, they were in bags. My buddies didn't know what to say."

Smith's office Monday released copies of the letter written to the governor by Ruble, dated Nov. 17.

"I'm going to read every letter that came to me and write their addresses down," Ruble pledged. "Then I'm going to start answering every one of those letters. It's going to take time, but if people are kind enough to write me, then I'd better get busy and write my friends back."

Froehlich Chosen Assembly Speaker By GOP Majority

27-26 Vote Gives Appleton Republican Nod Over Clemens

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON—Harold Froehlich, third-term Republican assemblyman of the first Outagamie County district, today was chosen by the Republican Assembly majority as speaker of the lower house of the Legislature for the 1967 session that will convene in January.

Froehlich defeated Harold Clemens, Waukesha, a six-term veteran and former deputy speaker, in a mild upset as Republicans held their closed-door organization caucus here this morning.

Harold V. Froehlich

The vote was 27-26.

Before entering the caucus, Froehlich confidently stated he had 28 sure votes.

The two finalists in the spirited contest for the leadership of the 53-47 Republican majority emerged after assemblymen David Martin of Neenah and Curtis McKay of Mequon abandoned the race and supported Clemens and Froehlich, respectively.

As a member of the winning faction, McKay can expect a reward in the form of a leading committee chairmanship when the speaker announces the distribution of committee assignments, probably early in January.

The Republican presiding officer will succeed Speaker Robert Huber of West Allis, a Democrat who will step down to the floor leadership of the Democratic minority of the newly-elected Legislature.

Froehlich, a native of Appleton, graduated from Appleton High School in 1950. He served in the U.S. Navy as an aviation electronics technician from 1951 to 1955.

He was graduated from University of Wisconsin law school and school of commerce. At the

France, U.S. Ties Predicted

Kiesinger Doesn't Feel Friendship of De Gaulle Will Hurt

BONN, Germany (AP)—Kurt Georg Kiesinger, generally expected to become West Germany's chancellor, today predicted good relations with both the United States and France.

Kiesinger, Christian Democrat minister president (governor) of Baden Wuerttemberg State, is known for his friendliness to President Charles de Gaulle's government just across the Rhine. Asked if closer West German ties with France would impair those with the United States, he replied:

Talks With Brandt

"I don't think so. I always refuse to be imprisoned in the cage of a wrong alternative. I am quite convinced we will deepen our relations with France and the United States. I know there are difficulties but these difficulties can be solved if good will is prepared to solve them."

Kiesinger answered questions in English for a group of American and British reporters. They

Blizzard Moving Eastward After Leaving Some Areas Snowbound

DETROIT (AP) — The U.S. Weather Bureau predicted some relief today from the heavy snow and gales that stranded more than 1,000 persons, closed roads and schools and disrupted electric service to 10,000 homes in Upper Michigan Monday.

Detroit weather officials said snow in western and northern Michigan would diminish, but warned of heavy drifting and blowing in the northeastern part of the state.

As the storm moved eastward Monday night it deposited one inch of snow on metropolitan Detroit.

Sixteen inches were reported by nightfall around the Marquette area. Drifts ranging to five and six feet high blocked U.S. 2, a main route along the bottom of Michigan's Upper Peninsula. U.S. 41, between Skandia and Ishpeming, was open to one-lane traffic only.

Buses, Cars Stranded

The snow stranded some 225 cars and seven buses near Engadine in the southern part of the Upper Peninsula Sunday night and Monday morning. Some 500 persons took refuge in the Engadine Town Hall.

About 400 of the stranded motorists were students returning to Michigan Technological University at Houghton after the Thanksgiving holiday.

Another 200 were sheltered at Escanaba where six inches of snow was reported, and 100 spent the night in a National Guard armory at Manistique.

Moves East

Main arteries from Marquette eastward and southward were not expected to be cleared before this afternoon, Michigan state police said.

Blustery weather hit areas across the lower Great Lakes region and into the eastern

Five Children Killed in Blaze

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A fast-spreading fire that engulfed the upper floors of two buildings in West Philadelphia killed six persons today—including five young brothers and sisters.

Their mother, Pearl E. Jones, and two other children were helped to safety by two policemen

The victims were Sylvia, 9, Barbara 6, James 4, Ronald 3, and Anthony Jones, 1, and an unidentified man killed in another apartment.

Stranded Ferry Still on Lake; Winds Continue

LUDINGTON, Mich. (AP) — Full gale conditions with winds up to 60 miles per hour today prevented tugboats from attempting to move a 405-foot railroad and passenger car ferry aground in Lake Michigan near Ludington Harbor.

The 181 passengers and crewmen aboard were all reported safe and the ship, the City of Midland 41, was in no apparent danger.

"We sure aren't going to make any attempt to move her in this kind of weather," said Theodore Winkel, superintendent steamships of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, owner of the vessel.

Worse Than Forecast

"The weather here is a lot worse than was forecast," Winkel said. "We have had full gale conditions for the last 24 hours or so, with winds of up to 60 miles per hour and gusting up to 80 miles.

"Our latest weather forecast shows no letup through midnight tonight."

Gale winds drove the 4,000-ton ship onto a sandbar Monday at the channel entrance to Ludington, a resort port in northern Lower Michigan. The ship was inbound from Manitowoc, Wis.

The captain, Henry Gates of Manitowoc, immediately flooded her ballast tanks to stabilize the ship.

750 Feet Off Schore

The vessel lies about 750 feet from shore. Winkel said she had not moved since late Monday night when a two to three degree list was reported.

Gates said the passengers rode out the storm "playing cards, eating, sleeping and enjoying themselves."

A breakfast "ranging from scrambled eggs to French toast — most anything they want," was prepared for the 128 passengers today, Gates told newsmen by radio-telephone.

Fifth Quint Passes First Major Crisis

Roni Sue Aranson Reported Free of Breathing Defect

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Kicking and active, tiny Roni Sue Aranson passed the first crisis in her struggle for survival today, bolstering the hopes of her parents and doctors that at least one of Pittsburgh's quintuplets would live.

The sounds of cries from the infant declared her to be free from the respiratory difficulty which claimed the lives of her four sisters within 56 hours of their birth Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Michael Aranson, both 22.

'Lot of Hurdles'

Doctors said Roni Sue's survival past the 72-hour mark — at 2.41 a.m. today — ended her first crisis.

But "we've got a lot of hurdles, and this is just the big one," said Dr. Lee Bass, chief

57-46 Vote in General Assembly

U.N. Turns Down Attempt To Seat Communist China

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — By a more decisive vote than last year, the General Assembly refused today to seat Red China in the United Nations. It was the 16th time the Peking government had been barred.

The 121-nation assembly voted 57-46 to reject a resolution calling for the expulsion of Nationalist China and the seating of the Peking government in all U.N. bodies. Seventeen countries abstained. Laos did not participate.

The vote on an identical resolution last year was 47-47 with 20 abstentions. The total membership then was 117. Two members did not vote and one was absent.

Two-Thirds Vote

Today's rebuff to the Chinese Communists came after the assembly had approved a U.S.-supported resolution reaffirming that the Chinese question was an important one requiring a two-thirds majority. The vote on that was 66 to 48 with seven abstentions.

As in the past, Britain and France split with the United States and voted for the pro-Peking resolution sponsored by a group of Communist and nonaligned countries.

Albania, Cambodia and other countries sympathetic to Peking led the fight to seat the Chinese Communists. The Soviet Union and India — former champions of Peking — voted yes, but gave only lukewarm support to the bid.

Light Skirmishes Again Reported in Viet Nam

Foul Weather Limits Strikes By U. S. Bombers

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The U. S. and South Vietnamese commands reported 75 Communists killed in small skirmishes in the past 24 hours as the lull in ground fighting in the Viet Nam war continued for the third day. Continuing foul weather once again slowed the U. S. air offensive.

The U. S. command reported 53 enemy killed in more than a dozen patrol contacts. The South Vietnamese headquarters said their forces killed 22 Communists in three small engagements.

Vietnamese headquarters also reported that a Viet Cong force ambushed a 17-vehicle Vietnamese military convoy this morning on its way to the mountain city of Dalat, causing some casualties.

Third in Week

The ambush 98 miles northeast of Saigon was the third in the Dalat area in less than a week. There were no details on the number of government casualties or damage inflicted to the convoy.

U. S. Air Force B52 bombers returned to the central highlands near Cambodia today and struck at North Vietnamese troop concentrations 35 miles northwest of Pleiku.

U. S. pilots flew only 39 bombing missions over North Viet Nam Monday as the monsoon rains and low clouds continued into the third week. Five of the raids were agaist North Vietnamese positions in the demilitarized zone between North and South Viet Nam.

American pilots flew 311 strike sorties over South Viet Nam Monday and South Vietnamese pilots flew 162. A U. S. Army helicopter was shot down 10 miles northeast of Saigon, and two Americans were killed.

Speck Hearing Starts Today

Jury to Decide If Accused Slayer Can Stand Trial

CHICAGO (AP) — A jury of seven men and five women was selected Monday to determine whether Richard F. Speck is competent to stand trial on charges of murdering eight student nurses.

Judge Herbert C. Paschen of the Circuit Court recessed the hearing until today when a panel of psychiatrists who have examined Speck was to begin testimony.

Judge Paschen explained to 50 prospective jurors that their sole task would be to determine whether the defendant understands the nature of the proceedings and is able to assist in his own defense.

He also explained that the competency hearing has "nothing whatever to do" with charges that Speck, 24, strangled and stabbed the nurses in their living quarters last July 14.

Release of Federal Mortgage Monies Praised, Criticized

Home Building Industry Split in Reaction to $250 Million Bonus

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government is giving the sagging home building industry a $250-million emergency transfusion. Some builders hail it as a step in the right direction. Others say it is too little, too late.

President Johnson ordered the release Monday of one-fourth of the $1 billion in special federal mortgage funds authorized by the last Congress. The government said the action would permit construction of 15,000 new homes.

Due largely to a shortage of mortgage funds, the housing industry is mired in its deepest recession in two decades. Total housing starts in October dropped to 83,100 units — the lowest since World War II and more than 50,000 under October 1965.

The $250 million will be used to buy mortgages insured by the Federal Housing Administration and the Veterans Administration on new homes costing a maximum of $15,000, or $17,500 in "high cost areas" and $22,500 in Hawaii, Alaska and Guam.

Release of the federal mortgage funds coincided with these other developments related to the nation's economy:

—Officials in Washington said no decision has been made on whether the President will ask Congress next year to raise taxes. "It's still a 50-50 chance," one said. A day earlier, Rep. Hale Boggs, D-La., said he expects Johnson to seek a tax increase of between $10 billion and $15 billion.

—Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., predicted a sharp division in the new Congress over the issue of possible tax increases. Proxmire is in line to become chairman of the Senate-House Economic Committee in the 1967 session.

—House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford said the GOP will keep plugging for a sharing of federal revenues with the states even if federal spending is cut and taxes raised.

—Dr. Leon H. Keyserling, who was economic adviser to former President Harry S. Truman, said in a Denver, Colo., speech that "holding back the economy to restrain inflation, rather than stimulating the economy, seems palpably wrong to me"

Commanding General Tells of Success of 43-Day Operation

LONG BINH, South Viet Nam (AP) — Operation Attleboro, the biggest U.S. action of the Viet Nam war, cracked open one of the toughest and oldest of the Viet Cong's strongholds.

That is the judgment of Maj. Gen. Fred C. Weyand, who directed the 43-day operation involving some 25,000 American soldiers in the tangled jungles of Tay Ninh Province northwest of Saigon.

"We started the end of War Zone C as a sanctuary for the VC," Weyand aid in an interview at his headquarters here.

"War Zone C will never be the same."

The Communists have controlled the area stretching to the Cambodian border for 20 years or more.

The general did not claim that the Viet Cong's hold on Zone C has been broken. But he predicted that "eventually, War Zone C will no longer be a base area for them."

Ended Saturday

Operation Attleboro was declared ended last Saturday with a claimed bag of more than 1,100 Communist regulars killed and nearly 2,400 tons of all-important rice captured, plus hoards of other supplies.

Weyand said he decided to call off the operation because it no longer was worth the heavy resources assigned to it — elements of two U.S. Army divisions, parts of two brigades and a tank regiment.

Once the Communist command decided the American opposition was too great, Weyand said, the Viet Cong 9th Division and the 101st North Vietnamese Regiment dispersed in small groups.

The 50-year-old general said

he thinks the bulk of the Communist force now is hiding out northeast of Zone C along the Cambodian border. He estimated that the tough 6,000-man 9th Division took about 20 per cent casualties.

"But the impact was much more than that," he said "The casualties came out of its fighting edge"

Weyand was careful not to contend the 9th Division has been crippled. Some other Army generals were making such a claim halfway through Operation Attleboro. Then, the 9th launched strong local attacks Nov. 3.

White House Residents Gather To Relive Life in Unusual Home

By FRANCES LEWINE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some folks who lived in the White House gathered there again and talked about it all

They remembered:

—Live bats living in a second-floor chandelier, said President Benjamin Harrison's granddaughter, Marthena Harrison Williams.

—A roughhouse one Christmas that left all the Franklin D. Roosevelt sons bruised throughout the holidays, recalled Miami Beach Mayor Elliott Roosevelt, one of those five sons.

—The christening of granddaughter Mary Jean in the Blue Room was the "very happy time" remembered by Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower

Born in White House

—And 90-year-old Madame Julia Cantacuzene, granddaughter of Ulysses S. Grant, said she was not only born in the White House, christened in the East Room, but "received in the Blue Room — in my nurse's arms."

It was all part of a homecoming party staged Monday afternoon by Mrs Lyndon B Johnson to launch a new book out today — "The Living White House" — which she said provides revealing glimpses of the lives and times of the 34 families who occupied the White House since 1800.

Mrs Johnson invited offspring and descendants of the former presidents Some couldn't come. Rain kept others away. But there were 14 representatives of the presidential families of Grover Cleveland, U. S. Grant, William H. Taft, Benjamin Harrison, Franklin D. Roosevelt and Dwight D. Eisenhower on hand among 250 guests for the festivities in the state rooms.

Eisenhower Contingent

The Eisenhowers were the largest contingent There was former First Lady Mamie, daughter-in-law, Mrs. John S. Eisenhower and three granddaughters, Barbara Anne, 17, Susan, 14, and Mary Jean, 10.

The age span of the presidential guests was from 10 to 90.

The nostalgic stories ranged from snowball fights to the bivouacking of Civil War Union troops on the parquet floors of the East Room, where Abigail Adams, the first occupant, once hung out her family wash.

Mrs. Johnson received the first copy of the new book from Melville Bell Grosvenor, editor of the National Geographic, which published it as a public service.

Last-Minute Tax Filer To Get Break

Returns Deadline To be Pushed Back 2 Days, to April 17

By JOSEPH R. COYNE

WASHINGTON (AP) — The taxpayer who waits until the last minute to file his yearly income tax return will get a two - day bonus next spring — the filing deadline has been extended to April 17.

And the Internal Revenue Service said it should be easier for the more than 65 million individual taxpayers to complete their returns next year because the few changes made in the tax form should simplify matters, not complicate them.

Changes made by Congress this year in tax laws will have no effect on the new tax forms.

For example, the new law which permits taxpayers to divert $1 of their tax — $2 for married couples filing joint returns — to a presidential campaign fund doesn't go into effect for another year.

Tax Hike

Even if Congress should raise taxes early next year, the new forms would be unaffected. The forms filled out in early 1967 are for this year's taxes

The two-day filing bonus results because the normal April 15 deadline falls on a Saturday. In such cases, IRS usually gives taxpayers until the next business day to submit returns.

The biggest change in the upcoming filing period will be in the handling of the returns by the government.

For the first time since it began data processiong operations in 1962, IRS will send every tax return through a complete computer check Only about half the individual returns got the full treatment this year.

Over-All Examination

This means a check not only of arithmetic, but also comparisons of each return with data on dividends and interest sent to the government by a taxpayer's bank, savings and loan association or corporation

The computers also are programmed to shunt aside any return on which a deduction seems out of line These then are checked by IRS personnel.

Youth Shoots Reds' Leader In Wisconsin

MILWAUKEE (AP) — A 17-year old youth was listed in satisfactory condition today with head lacerations suffered Monday when Fred Bassett Blair subdued him with a baseball bat after the young man pulled a gun on the Wisconsin Communist leader.

Also listed in satisfactory condition at County General Hospital was Ralph H Sacks, a book salesman who was wounded during the struggle in Mary's Book Store. The store is operated by Blair, 60, chairman of the Wisconsin Communist party.

Sacks had bullet wounds in the right elbow and shoulder. Blair said the youth pulled a pistol after announcing, "I want to kill a Communist."

Police said Blair was talking to Sacks when the youth, from suburban Brookfield, entered the store and asked, "Are you Mr. Blair?"

When Blair said he was, the young man reached into his pocket and began drawing out a .22 caliber pistol with a long barrel He had difficulty getting the weapon out, giving Blair time enough to duck behind the counter and pick up the bat.

As Sacks wrestled with the youth, the weapon fired four times, one of the shots apparently striking Sacks Blair said he struck the youth on the head "eight or nine times with the bat," causing him to drop the pistol.

(Blair was born and raised at Fond du Lac, where he was graduated from the Goodrich Senior High School. He has been associated with the Communist party for close to 40 years and was active in the American Civil Liberties Union organization in his home town before moving to Milwaukee several years ago)

WASHINGTON (AP) — The AFL-CIO said today it swelled the ranks of organized labor by about 1 million members in the past three years, reversing seven lean years of dwindling membership

Latest figures show that "AFL-CIO unions broke all recent yearly records for organizing success in fiscal 1966," the big labor federation reported

Membership has "continued to move upward" in the five months since the end of the fiscal year, a spokesman said.

The gains bring a total membership of the AFL-CIO's 129 unions to a record high of approximately 13 5 million, the spokesman said.

Bill Curry's Message

Christians Must Show Faith Through Actions

"Ever so often you've got to stop and say to yourself, 'Where am I going? Why am I doing what I'm doing? What is my goal?"

Green Bay Packer center Bill Curry Monday night told the Christian Business Men's Committee that introspection is one of the most necessary and most terrifying parts of being a Christian.

Curry, who is studying for a doctor of philosophy degree in theology, addressed about 150 persons at the Christian Business Men's fall dinner at First Methodist Church.

Football Most Important

The Committee includes members from the five Fox Cities as well as Brillion and Forest Junction.

"I was just going along from day to day until suddenly I realized that football was the most important thing in my life," he said. "It was frightening for me to see that I had been going to Church all my life, yet every Sunday I sat there for an hour thinking about football or baseball and blocking out the wonderful words of God."

Too many people call themselves Christians without thinking any more about it than that they must go to church each week, he said. "But if we are to be Christians, we must lay our convictions on the line; we must step forward and become representatives of God," Curry said.

Must Show People

He was not, however, advocating "telling everyone how wonderful we are as Christians. Sometimes we talk about it so much that nobody hears us," he said. "We've got to show people by our lives that we are committed to God and that we have the courage to live by these convictions."

"It's not easy, Curry admitted, "to give yourself totally to a man who lived 2,000 years ago. And you cannot do it by reason alone. You have to use your faith to bridge the gap at the end of reason," he concluded.

Curling Lessons Set for Members At Waupaca Club

Court Grants $98,000 in Damages

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — The State Supreme Court today approved about $98,000 as a damage award to Leo Reinke, Forest Junction, victim of a Calumet County three-car collision nearly five years ago.

In an opinion written by Justice Bruce Beilfuss, the court held that Reinke is entitled to most of the unusually high award because his injuries were serious enough to make his future earning capacity doubtful, but cut the indemnity ordered by the lower court by about $2,300.

Most of the reduction involved the disapproval of a claim of Mrs. Reinke for nursing services claimed she rendered to her injured husband.

The Reinke's two minor children were riding with them in their auto on State 57 about two miles north of Hilbert and one of them was killed and other occupants of the Reinke car injured. The defendant in the case was John Woltjen, who was found in the trial court proceeding to be 80 per cent negligent.

Appleton Hires New Teachers

Four Contracts Get Approval to Replace January Resignations

Four teacher resignations were received and four new teacher contracts approved Monday by the Appleton Board of Education.

Resignations, effective Jan. 21, came from John Stevens, Einstein Junior High; Mrs. Maryel DuBois, Jackson, and Mrs. Nancy Zanon, Columbus. Mrs. Judith Fahlberg, Lincoln, will leave the system Jan. 1.

New contracts have been awarded to J. Peter Ryerson Jr., graduate of the University of Wisconsin, who will replace Stevens; Daniel L. Abitz, graduate of Wisconsin State University-Oshkosh, to replace Mrs. DuBois; Miss Marilyn Bruce WSU-O, to replace Mrs. Zanon, and Mrs. Dorothy Freschel, Oberland College, to replace Mrs. Fahlberg.

In other business, the board named Charles Buchanan, president, and Dr. Roy Whitney, vice president, as delegate and alternate to the Wisconsin Association of School Boards delegate assembly Jan. 18 in Milwaukee.

Dr. Whitney also will attend the one-day training session on school board-school employe negotiations Dec. 10 at Madison.

Topics to be discussed include grievance procedures, the scope of negotiations, wage and salary administration, developing personnel policies for schools and the Wisconsin Municipal Employment Relations Act.

Heavy Smog Seems Not to Have Hurt New Yorkers' Health

NEW YORK (AP)—Last week's heavy air pollution almost certainly had no significant effect on the health of New Yorkers, a city official reports.

"I can report almost with certainty that there was no detectable immediate effect on morbidity and mortality because of the smog," Hospitals Commissioner Joseph V. Terenzio said in a statement Monday.

"After reviewing the pattern of cardiac and respiratory admissions to municipal hospitals, a survey of the patient population indicated there was no detectable increase in respiratory complications among those with chronic lung diseases."

Expressway Plans Accepted But Construction Is Distant

Refuse to Predate Requirement Over Suspects' Counsel

MADISON (AP) — The State Supreme Court refused to make retroactive today the requirement that suspects in criminal cases must be offered the opportunity to consult an attorney during police questioning.

The court unanimously upheld the 1964 conviction of Franchie Holloway for conspiracy to rob a Milwaukee bar where he was employed.

It rejected Holloway's argument that the U.S. Supreme Court decision in Escobedo V. Illinois in 1964 should erase Holloway's confession. The justices said Holloway did not prove at his trial that he had asked for legal counsel during questioning.

The state court went on to decide the 1966 decision in Miranda V. Arizona spelling out legal safeguards in the questioning was not retroactive under the U.S. Supreme Court's own rule.

The justices said Holloway did not have to raise an objection to the confession at the time of the trial under the Miranda decision in order to appeal later, but said it made no difference in Holloway's case since the decision didn't apply to him.

Bank Stickup? Teller Anxious to Cooperate

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — A regular customer of the Pacific National Bank of Seattle made out a deposit slip Monday and handed it to a teller.

The man, expecting $100 in change, looked in amazement as the teller nervously began shoving all the money from a drawer into a bag.

When the customer objected, the teller showed him a note on the back of the deposit slip. "But that's not my handwriting," the customer said.

The note read: "This is a stick-up. Put the money in a paper bag."

Appleton Given Progress Report By Fox Valley Area Planners

While there has been widespread acceptance of the Tri-County Regional Expressway plan, much remains to be done before a traffic-carrying system is constructed, a regional planner reported Monday.

Eugene E. Franchett, executive director of the Fox Valley Regional Planning Commission, updated data on the proposed expressway in a letter to City Clerk Elden Broehm.

Previously, the Appleton city council requested information on the progress in planning the expressway before it would agree to purchase additional land required for the route.

The expressway will pass through Winnebago, Outagamie and Calumet counties.

Dragging Feet

Appleton officials inquired recently whether other communities along the route were "dragging their feet" in reserving right-of-way and making acquisitions.

In his report, Franchett said, "On the basis of action taken in the member municipalities, it could be concluded there is widespread acceptance of the system as essential to development of the region."

He noted in 1964 the county boards of Outagamie, Winnebago and Calumet jointly authorized and appropriated funds to undertake preliminary engineering for the regional expressway.

"Subsequently, the entire system was surveyed and monumented in the field and detailed maps were prepared showing the center line and all adjacent buildings and properties," Franchett said.

Plan Accordingly

The same year the Village of Combined Locks placed the entire system in the area of its extra-territorial jurisdiction on the official map, Franchett added.

Also, in 1964, the City of Kaukauna located a school site and laid out utilities in accord with the expressway system," Franchett said, adding the city also acquired some right-of-way.

The Village of Kimberly prepared detailed development plans with street and highway layout in accord with the X-way system, the report continued.

Change Localities

Location and alignment of new industrial and commercial developments in the Town of Menasha have been changed or adjusted to conform with the alignment of the expressway system, Franchett added.

In the Town of Grand Chute, subdivision plats have been revised and adjusted to conform with the alignment of the X-way system.

"Other than the City of Appleton, these are the municipalities directly involved in the location and development of the expressway system and our knowledge of action taken," Franchett wrote.

Although considerable preliminary work has been done on expressway planning — and its need is growing with the expanding population of the region — no indication has been given by the Federal Bureau of Roads when actual construction will begin.

Those inclined to be optimistic are hoping for a 1970 target date.

Pump Youth's Stomach After He Takes Pain Killing Tablets

A 17-year-old Appleton youth had his stomach pumped at Appleton Memorial Hospital last Monday night after he reportedly swallowed from 10 to 15 pain killing tablets.

The youth was taken to the hospital by private car which had a police escort part of the way. Police said the youth was lying unconscious on the rear seat when the car arrived at the hospital.

He reportedly was despondent after an argument with a girl friend and over the intended purchase of an auto. Police said the youth had been ordered to the police station on Wednesday in regard to investigation of a traffic complaint.

Brazil Backs Curtailment of Arms Spending

New President Wants Countries To Aid Their People

BY ROWLAND EVANS and ROBERT NOVAK

WASHINGTON — Quiet U.S. efforts to hold down spending on sophisticated jet aircraft by Latin American nations has received a little-noticed boost from an unexpected source: Brazil's military-dominated regime.

Gen Humberto Castelo Branco, Brazil's president since the military revolution of 1964, told a national meeting of veterans in Belo Horizonte Nov. 19 exactly what the U.S. wanted him to say. Decrying "classic military independence" by individual countries, Castelo Branco asserted that national resources should be used for "promotion of the general welfare of people" rather than super-expansive arms.

Novak

This is precisely what is wanted by leaders of South America's other major powers. Chile's Eduardo Frei is in favor of a mutual curtailment of spending on new jet aircraft. So is Peru's Fernando Belaunde (though he must tread carefully in order to maintain good relations with his country's historically turbulent military).

For domestic political reasons, neither a Frei nor a Belaunde can refrain from expensive aircraft purchases unless all the continent's powers follow suit — including Brazil. Therefore, Castelo Branco's unexpected attack on unrestrained arms spending came as a particularly welcome surprise to the State Department.

A footnote:

The State Department is sensitive to the problem these days because of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's charges that the U.S. is encouraging a Latin American arms race by the sale of jet aircraft. Actually U.S. policymakers for years have been trying, with mixed success, to inhibit extravagant arms purchases by the Latins.

FRESHMAN REPUBLICANS

With highly publicized freshmen joining their ranks in January, an increasing number of Republican senators are talking about the need to break the rigid rule of seniority governing Republican committee assignments.

That rule usually condemns first-year Republican senators to the most meaningless committees and sometimes keeps them off the committee where they might be most useful for their full six-year term. In contrast, an unwritten rule imposed in 1953 by then Democratic Floor Leader Lyndon B. Johnson entitles every freshman Democratic senator to one good committee.

Now, Senate Republican Leader Everett McKinley Dirksen of Illinois is being urged to follow the old Johnson rule in assigning the batch of five freshman Republican senators elected Nov. 8.

For instance, Charles H. Percy of Illinois, most famous of the five, would like to get on the Commerce Committee to pursue questions of foreign trade. But his national prominence might be even better utilized on the Labor Committee (another of his expected requests) where vital questions of education and welfare are considered.

Several Republican senators also would like to see seniority breached to get Sen.-Elect Edward Brooke of Massachusetts, the first Negro ever sent to the Senate in a popular election, on the Senate Judiciary Committee where all civil rights legislation originates.

As part of this drive, there is strong sentiment among Senate Republicans to get some senior Republicans to relinquish some of their committee assignments in order to make room for junior senators (as Dirksen himself often has done).

A special target is Sen. Carl Curtis of Nebraska, who clings to no less than five committee seats (Space, Finance, Government Operations, Rules, Atomic Energy).

A footnote:

Fairly or unfairly, the kind of committee assignment that Dirksen manages for Percy will be watched as a sign of whether the young and old Illinoisans really have patched up their old feud or are entering upon a new stage of cold war in the Senate.

SUPREME COURT VOIDS

President Johnson may have two Supreme Court vacancies to fill within the immediate future as a result of resignations by members of the court's more conservative wing.

Justice John Marshall Harlan (a Republican named by President Eisenhower) is experiencing severe eye trouble and is being advised by friends to quit. Justice Tom Clark (a Democrat named by President Truman) has issued a standing offer to resign and thereby erase all possibilities of a conflict-of-interest if that is required to permit the appointment as attorney general of his son, Ramsey Clark (who has been serving as acting attorney general).

Cultural Explosion Excludes Politicians

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to conclusions:

Teen-age kids would have brighter eyes and clearer expressions if they ate nothing but canned dog food instead of the gunk they now eat. The dog food is more nutritious.

Many Manhattan secretaries now have only one fewer martinis for lunch than their bosses — but that's still two too many.

Ever notice that people who have parrots get like their pets — and repeat everything you say?

Men who wear plaid hats have plaid personalities.

You can usually tell how the children are doing in school by the amount of dust on the family encyclopedia.

Young Population

Half the American people are now under the age of 25, and half of the remaining half act as though they were.

The older the cop on the beat is the more likely he is to buy old-fashioned, high-top shoes that give him ankle support. Check your neighborhood cop and see.

For some reason, high steel workers drink beer at midday more often than the guys who wash skyscraper windows.

Scientists say people in their 60s and 70s can still enjoy sex, and a majority of them do — by recalling it.

An underling never impresses an executive by trying to strike up a cheerful conversation with him as they ride up the elevator together in the morning. A sober, slightly deferential nod is more appropriate at that time of day.

Lonely Pastime

You'd be surprised how many lonely people in a big city read the telephone book just to have something to do.

Nothing makes a women feel more important that doing small unimportant favors for a man. The quickest way for a guy to break the ice on a blind date is to pretend his lighter is broken, so the girl can light his cigarette — and thereby feel essential to his welfare.

The average cab driver would get bigger tips if he tossed away his battered cap and wore a shiny top hat. People are usually willing to pay a little extra for anything that gives them a smile.

A girl should beware of marrying a fellow who works crossword puzzles with his fountain pen. Any body that sure of himself can be awfully hard to live with.

Most men don't like women to wear sequin-covered evening gowns. They look too much like beaded bags.

Wear Suspenders

Many middle-aged men wouldn't look quite so pot-shaped if they exchanged their belts for suspenders. They get the pot shape from unconsciously pushing out their stomachs against a belt to keep their pants up.

America is undergoing a cultural explosion, but it is still all but impossible for a politician to get re-elected if the public finds out he secretly writes poetry.

Few things are sadder than the sight of old-fashioned gold watches hanging forlornly side by side in a pawnbroker's window. You can't help but think how each, once upon a vanished time, made some forgotten human heart tick happily. And now their white faces peek out at you through silent hands.

Life gives most of us a bittersweet philosophy. This probably explains why children like milk chocolate, but elderly people prefer the tartness of sourball candy.

This woud be a far more courteous world if it were fashionable for men to wear dress swords on buses and subways.

Civilization will end with neither a bang nor a whimper. Its death knell is far more likely to be the eerie ringing of 10 million unanswered telephones.

Scientists Find Chemical to Prevent Insects From Growing

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department reports its scientists have isolated and identified a chemical compound that keeps certain insects from developing into adults.

It is a hormone-like compound, called Juvaboine, obtained from the wood of the balsam tree.

Studies indicate, the department said, the substance may have an unfavorable effect on such insects as the cotton stainer, an important pest of cotton in South America, Africa and Asia; the box elder bug; meal worms, chinch bugs and bedbugs. Research is being conducted to ascertain whether the substance could be used effectively in curtailing development of other insect pests.

Your Money's Worth

151 Hidden Taxes in Every Loaf of Bread

BY SYLVIA PORTER

The loaf of bread you buy at your local grocery store contains seven major raw ingredients: yeast, milk solids, shortening, malt, salt, sugar and flour.

Sylvia Porter

The large, profit making corporation producing the yeast pays roughly seven different federal taxes and six different state taxes. Naturally, the price of its yeast reflects the impact of these taxes on its costs.

The railroad transporting the yeast to the baker in your area pays five different federal taxes and an uncalculated total of state taxes because it passes through so many states with varying numbers of taxes on railroads en route. Naturally, its transportation charges reflect the taxes imposed on it.

Milk Solids Taxes

The company producing the milk solids also pays roughly seven different federal taxes and six different state taxes, and includes these taxes in the price of its milk solids. The railroad transporting the milk solids to the baker pays five different federal taxes and an uncalculated total of state taxes, and its transportation charges reflect this.

So it goes, for the companies producing the shortening, malt, salt, sugar and flour . . . And so it goes for the railroads transporting each separate ingredient to the baker in your area . . .

Then the baker pays eight federal taxes, up to 12 or more state taxes, and this corporation includes these taxes in the price it charges the grocer. Then the grocer pays his share of federal and state taxes, includes these in the price of the bread to you.

There are a minimum of 151 taxes hidden in one loaf of bread, says the Tax Foundation in New York, and quite probably many more. Of course, these taxes add to the cost of the bread to you and these taxes are always present, whether the prices of the ingredients in the bread go up, down or stay stable.

The estimate of 151 hidden taxes was made by the Tax Foundation in a major report some years ago. Since this study, there have been additional taxes levied at the state and local levels and substantial boosts in existing tax rates in many areas. (As an illustration, at the federal level, there have been sharp increases in Social Security taxes paid by employers; at the state and local level, there have been sharp hikes in property and gas taxes.)

Although many efforts have been made to break down hidden taxes in terms of dollars and cents on any major item, the Tax Foundation properly declares "It is impossible to arrive at any valid estimate" on this basis. For instance, if a manufacturer of a man's suit pays income taxes, we cannot unequivocably decide whether this manufacturer passes the tax forward entirely to the retailer in the form of a higher sales price or whether he absorbs all or part of the tax himself. We cannot decide the precise totals of taxes this manufacturer pays because we don't know whether he operates in a state which imposes an income tax, what the tax rates actually are, whether he makes a profit and pays any income taxes. He cannot possible trace the multiplicity of taxes without going into an endless chain of checking on taxes paid by each supplier of materials, machinery, factory space, etc. to the manufacturer.

But by limiting the analysis to the number of taxes paid by each member of the economic chain from raw materials supplier to retailer, we can obtain a valid estimate of the total of hidden taxes involved. Here are the Tax Foundation's original estimates of hidden taxes on five major items. Each estimate is conservative now.

Egg — 100 hidden taxes-plus.

Man's suit — 116 hidden taxes-plus.

Woman's hat — 150 hidden taxes-plus.

Loaf of bread — 151 hidden taxes-plus.

House — 600 hidden taxes-plus.

Twirling Corps Wins 18 Trophies During Season

KAUKAUNA — DeDe's Diplomats, baton twirling teams taught by Mrs. David Nagan, participated in eight contests during the season, winning a total of 18 trophies on various levels.

Latest additions to the trophy collection came in competition at Watertown and Green Bay where the teams took four trophies. Pamela Blajeski won four medals and Linda Speener took three as representatives of the Junior Small team in individual competition.

Numerous duet, strut and flag competition medals and trophies were also won by various girls during the summer. The baton twirling corpus has been organized for seven years and participates in parades and pageants throughout the state each year.

Try-outs for membership in the unit are planned Dec. 6, open to all twirlers in the valley. Persons interested in trying out are to contact Mrs. Nagan.

Twirlers who lead high school bands may join and will be permitted to miss engagements if high school twirling events conflict with the Diplomats' schedule.

Johnson Tries To Cut Budget As Costs Soar

Current Spending Of $112.8 Billion Expected to Rise

WASHINGTON (AP) — Remember those days — they seem a long way off — when President Johnson was running around the White House, turning off the lights to save money?

You don't hear much about that any more. But, things have been going up all over, living costs, wages, prices and even the cost of the war in Viet Nam.

Another four weeks and it will be bell-ringing time, Christmas-time. But down on Johnson's Texas ranch, from now until Christmas, it will be hand-wringing time, usual every year about now, as Johnson sweats to cut spending.

But spending is going up.

President John F. Kennedy's last budget sent to Congress in January 1963 — for the 1964 fiscal year, beginning July 1, 1963 and ending June 30, 1964 — called for spending $98.802 billion.

First Budget

When Johnson took over the presidency about this time in 1963, he had to tug and tussle with the figures to ready the budget he had to submit to Congress in January 1964, for fiscal 1965.

He really sweated over that one He wanted to keep his budget lower than Kennedy's, which would be a kind of miracle, if he could. And, by jingo, he did. His budget, $97.9 billion, was just a little less than $1 billion below Kennedy's.

But everything was inching along, living costs and all that, just a little up and up, and we were getting a little deeper into the Vietnamese war, which was not inexpensive.

Then came November and December 1964 and Johnson went through the tug-and-tussle about his budget for Congress in early 1965 for fiscal 1966.

He bustled and battled but it turned out his budget was $99.7 billion, which was just a little below $1 billion over Kennedy's last budget, and $1.8 billion over his own budget of the previous year.

War Involvement

But by this time the United States was getting up to its neck in the war.

Once again came that time of the fiscal Turkish bath on the Johnson ranch — November and December 1965 — with the war getting bigger and all the expenses of the "Great Society" program, which Congress had passed earlier in the year, to worry about.

So, while Johnson may have lost weight sweating about the spending, the spending itself got fatter and in January 1966, when Johnson submitted his budget for fiscal 1967, it turned out to be $112.8 billion.

Now once more Johnson is down at the ranch, getting his budget ready for fiscal 1968. And it won't be surprising if the budget doesn't come out at something like $125 billion. There has been talk it might.

Economic Tantrum

Meanwhile, the economy is in a kind of tantrum which even the experts are having a time trying to analyze.

There's inflation. American defense costs, including the war costs, are going up. But new housing starts are at their lowest point in 20 years. Automobile manufacturers have cut back production. So in some ways Americans are spending more money, and in some ways they're not.

Johnson has been given a lot of advice, much of it free, that one of the very best ways to stop inflation is to raise income taxes, which is one of the very best ways to make a lot of people unhappy

Johnson, who is probably thinking of running for re-election in 1968, isn't enthusiastic about making people unhappy. But he has to worry about inflation and the economy first. So he is thinking it over.

Tax Credit Up, Lowers Rate Hike For Kaukauna

KAUKAUNA — The anticipated $3 per $1,000 tax increase necessitated by the 1967 budget will be cut to $2.41 per $1,000 as a result of increased tax credit from the state, according to Karl E. Marzahl, city clerk.

In 1966 the city received $85,626 which reduced the tax rate from $59 to $55.71 per $1,000 assessed valuation. The 1967 tax credit amounts to $102,882 which will reduce the $62 tax rate by $3.88 to $58.12. Tax credit is allowed on the basis of real estate taxes paid.

Personal property tax credit in 1966 amounted to 55 per cent whereas it was increased to 60 per cent for the coming year, noted Marzahl.

Little Chute Okays $54,917 Increase in '67 Village Budget

$721,969 Figure Adopted at Public Hearing Monday Night

LITTLE CHUTE — A $721,969 budget representing an increase of $54,917 over the 1966 figure was adopted by the Village board Monday evening.

A total of $559,469 will be raised by the 1967 tax levy, an increase of $51,447. The tax rate in school districts Nov. 1 and 2 does not reflect true comparison with 1966 figures because assessment on all land was doubled this year.

School district No. 1 residents paid $68.50 per $1,000 assessed valuation in 1966 compared to $64.75 this year. With land assessment doubled, village officials estimate the increase at about $2.25 per $1,000.

School District No. 2 residents paid $57.50 per $1,000 in 1966 compared to $59.50 this year. The tax hike, based on land evaluation, will increase about $4.25 per $1,000 assessed valuation.

Budget Breakdown

General government costs are $33,900, up $3,300; protection to persons and property $57,498, up $5,400. Health and sanitation costs $4,725 up $50; relief and welfare costs were held at $3,000.

Highway and bridge expense was set at $92,000, up $3,000; education expenses, $1,700, down $700; recreation budget $22,800, up $1,435; indebtedness payments, $42,910, up $1,002, and insurance costs $22,500, up $8,500.

Outlays are $34,000 in 1967, up $17.225. Purchase of two trucks and building a boys' shelter at the Doyle Park swimming pool are major outlays. Unclassified expenses are $1,218, down $207.

County Taxes

Major budget increases are in state and county taxes. In 1966 the village paid county tax of $57,532 and state tax of $3,715 while in 1967 the county tax is up to $78,895 and state tax to $4,138.

School taxes for residents of District No. 1 total $235,818 for 1967 compared to $238,517 in 1966 while residents of District No. 2 will pay $27,502 compared to $23,529 in 1966.

Based on set tax rates in District No. 1, residents will pay $7.55 for high school tuition, $9.53 ciunty and state taxes, $17.65 for village operation and $30.02 for school purposes for a total of $64.75.

District No. 2 residents will pay $32.32 for school operation, $9.53 for state and county taxes and $17.65 for village operation.

Other Revenues

Revenues, other than tax levy, were estimated at $161,500 for 1967 compared to $159,029 in 1966. Broken down it shows 1967 income tax at $75,000, up $10,000; trailer tax $5,000, up $3,000; utility tax $15,000, up $1,000; telephone tax $5,000, up $300; auto license fees $8,000, up $1,000, and state aid for village streets held at $2,000.

Highway privilege tax was estimated at $21,000, up $1,500 in the 1967 budget; liquor tax, $9,500 up $1,000, and fines were held at $7,000. Licenses and permits are expected to bring in $4,700, the same as in 1966, and commercial revenues including hall rent, water utility equipment rental and miscellaneous income are expected to amount to $10,300 in 1967 compared to $25,629 in 1966.

Alcoholism and AA

"Alcoholism — it is a disease, it MUST be treated" is the key slogan to be used this week by the National Council on Alcoholism during Alcoholism Information Week, which began Sunday and continues through Dec. 3.

This is a spotlight effort by an organization which has done a great deal to get help to the alcoholic by bringing together all of the resources a community has to inform, using the newspaper, radio, TV and professional counseling to the alcoholic, his or her family, pastor, family doctor and employer or business associate.

Here in the valley many more are familiar with another source of information, which operates in a more personal way, Alcoholics Anonymous. For the past 31 years, 24 hours each day, this group has been a source of information for anyone seeking help, explaining that alcoholism is an illness, it can be arrested and no one can do this like the man or woman who has walked the path of alcoholism.

A real spurt of interest in alcoholism has occurred since President Johnson said he wanted something done about it. The National Center for Prevention and Control of Alcoholism under the National Institute of Mental Health was formed as well as the National Advisory Commission on Alcoholism and the North Central Commission on Alcoholism. In addition the congress is providing $218 million to spend.

The interest is commendable among the psychiatrists, some general practitioners, hospitals, law enforcement officers and government officials. How long will it take for their carefully structured efforts to reach the man or woman who suffers from alcoholism?

Sparks of interest have flown from time to time here in Wisconsin — to do something for the alcoholic. For the past 18 months plans have been taking form in Alcoholism Services, a part of the Division of Mental Hygiene, Department of Public Welfare. That department's major goal has been to determine what helps now exist throughout the state for the alcoholic, pull these together and eventually provide facilities to improve the alcoholic's lot.

During this furor what is happening to the alcoholic who may or may not want to do something about himself? He may regard his lot as a very desirable state of affairs or he may be frightened, alone and ready to lose everything he has, including his life. Though society may regard him as a pariah, he and he alone knows the depth of his pain and what it means to live every minute of the illness which is so "cunning, baffling and powerful."

The past 31 years AA has been credited by recovering individuals, medical science, private and public treatment centers with the greatest number of recoveries. Its program is available to anyone who wants it, it is free and it has the unique punch that those who ask for help in AA are ready and those who are staying sober do the counseling.

If we put our money into expensive, or inexpensive, mental health planning we suspect both money and time will be wasted. No alcoholic is going to walk in and say "I'm nuts, lock me up."

Beg Pardon

An editorial in Monday night's Post-Crescent read "Communist Walter Lippmann goes further and . . ." It should have read "Columnist Walter Lippmann goes further and . . . " The original copy read "columnist" but there was a typographical error in the line and in re-setting it "columnist" was changed to "Communist" and the error was not noticed.

The Post-Crescent apologizes to Mr. Lippmann for the mistake.

The Real Victims

Some of the most tragic victims of war and its aftermath are those that are really brought to life by the conflict — the illegitimate children of soldiers of occupation. There will be thousands of them in Viet Nam.

While there may be many true love affairs involved, the situations are often of the most sordid kind. Military men, facing death and living under conditions of high tension and misery, seek sexual solace. Unfortunately, too many are as ruthless in this area as they must be toward the enemy on the battlefield. And a country like Viet Nam often has a considerable number of women who must turn to prostitution to live. Unwanted children are conceived, the soldier goes home or may be killed, and the mother and child face tremendous handicaps both of economy and of custom. In many Asian nations in particular, the racially mixed child is an outcast although obviously his only sin was in being born.

Although many such children have been adopted by Americans and there are orphanages existing on American contributions and other agencies such as that started by author Pearl Buck, the United States government has stayed clear of the problem. Some observers have suggested that the United States adopt law changes such as exist in France whereby French citizenship is granted to the child if he is acknowledged by the father. Of some 10,000 French-Vietnamese children, about 4,000 have been brought to France and the government takes over to some degree their education and subsistence.

In most states, the father of an illegitimate child has some legal as well as moral responsibilities. Should it be any less so when the child was conceived in a foreign country?

Ecumenical Movement Grows

A new church year began for most Christians Sunday, and results of the year just past indicate the Church is striving mightily for unity.

Advent, the liturgical season which prepares for Christmas, also reminds the Christian of Christ's second coming in judgment. Denominations from all areas of Christianity are working so that they can face that second coming knowing that they have been working to fulfill Christ's prayer about His disciples: "that they all may be one."

The Roman Catholic Church has been leading in changes and re-examination in the ecumenical movement, notably in Vatican Council II and the recent national bishops conference. But Protestants have been doing their part also.

The United Methodist Church will come into existence in 1968 as the largest Protestant body in America. The merger, which will join the Methodist and Evangelical United Brethren churches, was approved recently by leaders of both denominations. The new body will have more than 11 million members.

The World Alliance of Reformed Churches and the International Congregational Council voted this summer to merge in 1970, forming a confessional body embracing over 50 million members. About 95 per cent of the nation's Lutherans are represented in the new Lutheran Council in United States of America, formed a few weeks ago. This will include the Lutheran Church in America, the American Lutheran Church, the Synod of Evangelical Lutheran Churches and the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.

This is quite significant, because Lutherans traditionally have been among the most unity-shy of Protestants. All these moves are encouraging.

But the real test will come in their local application. Unless area congregations can apply the national and international spirit of cooperation in a renewed effort to better serve the Lord they profess to worship, the ecumenical movement can become a vain babbling. Actions now must follow the fine words which give promise of a more united Christian witness.

'Thank you for letting us have meat on Friday, Father . . . Now, if we could just afford meat on the other six days of the week . . .'

Key to Settlement in Viet Nam Is Negotiations With Viet Cong

BY JOSEPH KRAFT

PARIS — In talking about "the other side" in the Vietnamese war, we all tend to lapse into the assumption that there is a unity stretching from the Viet Cong guerrillas in the field through Hanoi to the Communist countries and parties around the world.

Kraft

But, in the course of a trip that has put me in touch with most of the major elements of the other side, I have been struck by difference more than unity and, most of all, by the broad scope left to local option in the making of major decisions on the war.

The Viet Cong, or National Liberation Front, concentrates intensely on South Viet Nam. Its representatives talk of an independent South Viet Nam, with its own government, parliament and constitution. They deny that Hanoi could negotiate for the South.

HANOI'S INTERESTS

The North Vietnamese also concentrate heavily on their own problem. For them, the first thing that has to be done before anything else is the cessation of the American bombing of North Viet Nam, unilaterally and for good.

They deplore the Sino-Soviet split but refuse, in a way that smacks almost of nonalignment, to choose sides "We think," I was told, "that every Communist Party has to do what its own country requires."

The North Vietnamese directed my attention toward recent official declarations — an editorial in the September issue of the theoretical journal Hoc Tap and a statement by the party theoretician Le Duc Tho on the 30th anniversary of the Popular Front here in France — both of which stressed the utility of popular front tactics.

But why do the North Vietnamese suddenly begin laying it on thick about something that is as much a part of their doctrine as republican government is a part of American lore?

My guess is that Hanoi, perhaps against the will of Peking, is saying that a settlement in Viet Nam could come through negotiations between the Viet Cong and the Saigon government for a popular front, absorbing persons on both sides. But that, of course, means that Hanoi is throwing the issue of settlement back to the Viet Cong.

CHINA'S VIEWS

With respect to the Chinese Communists, they seem, for reasons of internal policy and because of the split with available positions on the extreme far-left. In that vein, they have moved beyond the Viet Cong and Hanoi to say that not even the Geneva accords form a basis for settlement.

But the Chinese, unlike the Russians, have played their hand in Hanoi with great self-effacement and subtlety. People who should know think that Peking, while prepared to help Hanoi in the fight if so asked, is also prepared to go along with any settlement endorsed by Hanoi.

As to the Soviet Union, every day that the bombing of North Viet Nam continues, the Russians lose a little bit of their claim to be a world power on the same footing as the United States. Moscow, accordingly, is obliged to help Hanoi and is interested in putting an end to the war.

RUSSIA'S LACK OF INFLUENCE

But when it comes to promoting a settlement in Viet Nam, the Russians seem to have next to no influence — the less so, since Hanoi would probably not want to jeopardize relations with Peking by allowing Moscow to play the big role as peacemaker. It is a mark of how little influence the Russians have that, in order to soften up Hanoi, they arranged visits to North Viet Nam last fall by high-ranking delegations from Romania, Hungary, Czechoslovakia and Poland. For, as was to be expected, the North Vietnamese turned a very deaf ear to these clumsy efforts.

The upshot of the complicated interplay is to underline anew the importance of local factors. More than ever, it seems to me, the key to a settlement in Viet Nam is a government in Saigon that is ready to negotiate with the other side.

Turnout at Budget Hearing Spontaneous

Editor, Post-Crescent:

The report of the public hearing on the school board budget which appeared in The Post-Crescent on Thursday, Nov. 17, was so partial, both in the sense of incomplete and in the sense of one-sided, that I feel compelled to present the rest of the story as I saw it.

The paper says that the council was "faced with a strong schools' 'lobby,' " and that "several persons paraded before the council and urged restoration of the school board deletions." Finally, the story brings alderman Tews forward to suggest that "the deck was stacked." All of this implies that the storm of protest over the budget cut was rigged.

I have followed the debate on this question from beginning to end. I have been present at every public meeting on the subject. At no time did anyone try to organize me, nor did I ever see anyone try to organize anybody. The school board, throughout these proceedings has scrupulously avoided putting pressure on anyone. The remarkable feature of the public hearing was its spontaneity. The people in the audience that I have talked to were as surprised as I was that so many people spoke against the cut. I did not even know that one of my colleagues would speak, although I was sitting right beside him. Everyone at the meeting will testify to the sincerity of the speakers. It was not a "parade" but a succession of concerned citizens.

There is a better way to explain the packed public hearing on November 16th. A whole lot of people in Appleton want to have good schools.

Wisconsin Report

Political Leaders of Both Parties Continue To Duck Oleo Repeal

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON — Gov. Knowles probably represented the most typical view of the Wisconsin politicians of both parties on the historic and notorious margarine embargo issue when he observed several times lately that he expects the new legislature to do something to change the law but that he doesn't intend to start the process.

Wyngaard

One suspects that the governor privately hopes that the question can somehow be resolved finally, but that like many other Republicans and nearly as many Democrats, he is not entirely sure that the question has cooled enough to avoid a bad burn for the man who takes it up.

Under such circumstances, the most prudent forecast for likely action is that the legislature will probably repeal the ban on the colored spread. The subject seems to have aroused most of the interest of the housewife militants and their friends, while throwing a sop to the butter interest by keeping a lower rate of taxation than the present levy of 15 cents a pound applied to the uncolored product. Those who have studied legislative psychology and the politics of the question in this state with its substantial dairying enterprise believe also that there may be a further concession to the milkfat producer, probably in the form of a segregated margarine tax fund for the promotion of dairy foods.

Other strategems may be considered One prominent and influential state senator is now talking, only half jokingly, about a conditional repeal of the margarine sales restrictions — with the actual elimination deferred until that day that the Wisconsin dairyman gets free access to the fluid milk markets of the nation that are now denied him. If won, this would be a thousand times more important to dairying economic position than the trifling consequences of the anti-margarine statutes.

CHANGING CLIMATE

That the climate of legislative politics on this question, as on many others, has gradually but significantly changed is visible to the naked eye of the visitor in the gallery. The new legislature will find another man in the seat of the dairy district senator who for so many years and so successfully employed every ruse available in the parliamentary book to avoid even a roll call vote on a repeal bill. The rising importance of the urban interest in state politics generally is certified in every succeeding population count. The restlessness among consumers is spectacularly shown in the housewives' boycott of food stores because of high prices.

There is the emerging realization that Wisconsin is today the only state in the country that forbids colored margarine. It must be supposed that thoughtful citizens, concerned about respect for law, know and regret the fact that the prohibition laws are not truly enforced — that anybody who really wants margarine on his table can arrange it and that thousands of Wisconsin families do so with only token resistance from state officials. There was the fact that the challenging candidate for governor this fall, for the first time in the history of the dispute, thought it expedient to pledge himself to the elimination of the margarine law if elected.

BUT . . . THE RULE

These are encouraging factors to those who regret the margarine prohibition as an absurd and ineffectual attempt at provincial restraint of trade as well as those who are truly responsive to the consumer interest.

Yet there will be few flat predictions, notwithstanding. Gov. Knowles, now the leading politician of his state after a handsome re-election victory, tells something by his own uncertainty. There are rural Democrats complaining that Lt. Gov. Patrick Lucey hurt their cause with his repeal promise. There is also what might be called the rule of the vigilant minority in politics. It is likely that in a referendum a decisive majority of Wisconsin voters would support the complete repeal of the trade restrictions. But majorities tend to be passive, and when the time to vote comes reflect many other issues. The members of a deeply offended minority tend to remember and to vote on the basis of their memories the next time the polls open.

Christmas Walk Sets Holiday Pace

"Sing out all the Carols, Both the old and new" are words in the new "Merry Jingle Bell" song composed by Mrs. Clifford Vincent for the Catholic Daughters third 'Walk to the Christmas Season' Sunday. The musical program and tea are an annual herald of the holidays, and this year the event, at Xavier High School Commons, was attended by almost 500.

Much of the joy of Christmas is child-centered, and this season the musical program emphasized youth in its assemblage of talent. From the Outagamie County Teachers College Ensemble and Trio to the 45 young ladies making their debut in the YMCA Girls Choir, the afternoon was a Christmas melody, interspersed with other favorites for a bit of variety.

Among applauded performers were the St. Paul Bell Choir of Wrightstown. Also called for encores were the duo of Mrs. Don Smith and John Haugner, who sang ballads of yesterday and today, accompanied by Mrs. John Koopman.

After the program, guests stayed on for punch and cookies, for conversation and talk of Christmas plans. After hearing the music of the season, the spirit of the holiday seemed suddenly at hand.

Mrs. Stanley Staidl and Mrs. Stanley Chmiel were co-chairmen of the tea.

Empty Seats Were All but impossible to find Sunday afternoon at Xavier High School Commons as the Catholic Daughters sponsored their annual scholarship tea and musicale. Part of the crowd is shown above, listening to the program of music that heralded the holiday season. Proceeds provide a scholarship fund for a Xavier High School senior girl. Below, Mrs. Clifford Vincent directs the YMCA Girls' Chorus in its initial performance. The girls wore tiny bells on their wrists and holly wreaths on their sweaters.

Punch and Cookies were a delightful way to end a pleasant Sunday afternoon. Talking at the refreshment table are Mrs. Carl Koletzke, who provided interlude organ music; Mrs. D. T. Murray, Menasha; Mrs. F. J. Hauser, Neenah; Mrs. Richard Roudebush, Neenah, and Mrs. Stanley Staidl. (Post-Crescent Photos)

Disregard Mother on Problem

BY ALFRED SHEINWOLD

"My mother taught me to draw trumps first and then look around for the next thing to do," writes a fan. "Why do you so often write about hands in which trumps should not be drawn?"

The answer follows the principle that it isn't news when a dog bites a man.

Imagine that South has A-Q-8 of hearts instead of A-9-8. He can draw trumps, discard a club on one of dummy's high diamonds and just give up one heart and two clubs. South cannot lose his contract no matter what happens. A dull hand to read about.

South	West	North	East
1 ♠	Pass	2 ◇	Pass
2 ♠	Pass	3 ♠	Pass
4 ♠	All Pass

Opening lead — ♠ 9

In the acutal hand South has no such cinch. If he draws trumps, he can discard one heart, but will lose the other heart and three clubs.

The correct play is to draw no trumps voluntarily. South wins the first trick, cashes the ace of clubs and gives up a club. South takes the trump return and gives up another club.

Two Chances

South will be safe is the missing club break 3-3, since his last club will be good. The other chance is that the opponent with club length will be out of trumps, and this happens to be the case.

South wins any return and can easily ruff his last club with dummy's king of trumps. This is the trick South loses if he draws trumps.

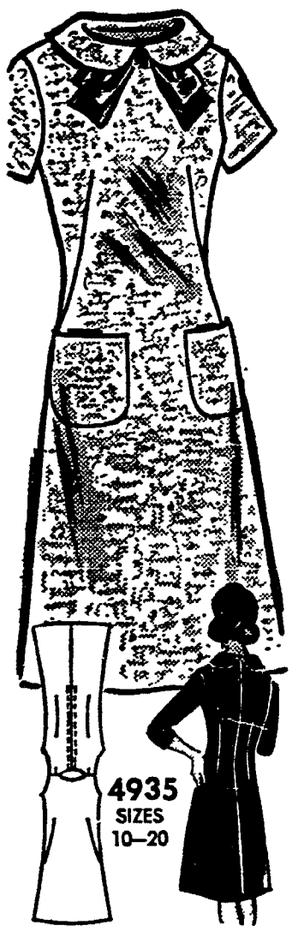

In actual play you get many hands that present no problem. You draw trumps in such hands, but you wouldn't enjoy reading about them. Follow Mother's advice when you can see at the beginning of a hand exactly how you are going to play each trick. Do your own thinking (and leave the trumps alone) when you can see a problem coming up.

Daily Question

Partner opens with one heart, and the next player passes. You hold: S 9 8; H Q 10 3; D J 9 6 4; C K Q 7 6. What do you say?

Answer: Bid two hearts. This shows trump support and about 6 to 9 points in support of hearts (counting distribution as well as high cards). In this case you have 8 points in high cards and 1 point for the doubleton.

Cottey College Discussed at P.E.O. Events

Cottey College, located in Nevada, Mo., is the only school of its kind in the country owned by a group of women. Called the College of World Friendship and sponsored by the P. E. O. Sisterhood, the college was explained to interested Fox Valley students Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Dutcher.

Explaining the program and curriculum of the two-year liberal arts college for women was Miss Libby Francis, a former resident of Appleton who is now a student there. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Francis, Millbrae, Calif. Miss Francis, visiting in Appleton, talked to area high school juniors and seniors.

The P.E.O. Sisters sponsor similar programs on alternate years for girls of the area, explaining entrance requirements, extra-curricular activities, the residence program and study courses.

Young Women of the area interested in attending Cottey College were guests of the P.E.O. Sisterhood at an informal tea Saturday afternoon at the William Dutcher home, 1502 W. Packard St. Above, Cottey student Miss Libby Francis, formerly of Appleton, explains the college to a group of guests. Later in the afternoon, P.E.O. members visited with Mrs. A. M. Olson, Marinette. At 95, she is the oldest P.E.O. member in the state. Mrs. Olson was a guest at the home of her niece, Mrs. Kathleen K. Davis, 3605 E. Wisconsin Road. Talking at left are Mrs. G. E. Buchanan, Mrs. Olson, Mrs. F. A. Janson, Miss Mary Morton and Mrs. Percy Fullinwider.

Typewriter Keys Unlock Success to Business Girl

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Every little girl yearns at some time to become a ballet dancer, a nurse, or a schoolteacher.

But the fact is that more and more wise little girls are growing up to become business secretaries.

For woman's place today is as much the office as it is the kitchen. One of the results of the continuing industrial revolution has been to put womanhood in a new seat of power — behind a typewriter.

Less than 100 years ago, women were almost as scarce in American business offices as gem pearls are in restaurant oysters.

"According to the 1870 census, there were just seven female office workers," says Earl Tiffany Jr., president of the Royal Typewriter Co "Today there are approximately three million secretaries, stenographers and typists — and 98 per cent of them are women"

Many More

Another source, Miss M. Merle Law, president of the National Secretaries Association, agrees with Tiffany's figure of three million, but estimates the total number of U.S. women office workers in all jobs at seven million.

How did women come to this giant step? Some historians trace it back to the year 1881 when the YWCA started the first typing courses for women.

Men disdained the clumsy erratic machines of that era. But the girls, wearing mutton sleeve blouses and high button shoes, seized upon the typewriter as a key to economic freedom

Year by year, women methodically replaced men in office work just as in the fields the tractor replaced the horse.

Here are some statistics which may explain why so many little girls today are turning to secretarial work rather than becoming ballerinas, nurses or schoolteachers:

Says Tiffany: "Between 1955 and 1964, those earning $100 or more weekly increased from 5 per cent to more than 28 per cent. Top secretaries command salaries of $10,000."

Depends On Boss

Says Miss Law: "Salaries vary in different parts of the country, but secretaries to middle-management men average $97 per week, and secretaries to top-level management average $112 per week. But they range up to $17,400 a year and in one case, considering extra cash benefits, to $21,400."

Says Tiffany: "This is one field in which age presents a minimum drawback to the older woman. More than half of the 'Miss Typewriters' of this country are married, and almost half are more than 40 years old."

Says Miss Law, with considerable pride: "A survey of our members showed that 32 8 per cent owned their own homes, a car and some stock shares"

Both Tiffany and Miss Law believe the spread of automation offers no threat to the future employment of skilled office employes. The U S Department of Labor estimated that 200,000 more secretaries a year will be needed for the next decade — a prospect of two million new jobs.

This seems to take care of the futures of a lot of little girls.

But what about little boys?

A smart little boy right now might start going steady with some smart little girl who shows unusual aptitude for the typewriter. Later in life she could be a great big help to him in achieving a style of living to which he would like to become accustomed — that is, if she doesn't wed the boss's son.

A Lovelier You

Free Foods

A lovely writes: Some foods recommended to reducers are called "free foods". Why? No food I ever heard of is free of calories and that's what counts with dieters.

The Answer: The term is something of a misnomer. Coffee and tea (without cream, milk or sugar), some diet colas and water come in "free." No calories!

To a greater or lesser degree, those pesky calories lurk in every food, natural and processed. Calories decrease in ratio to the amount of fat, sugar and starch (carbohydrates) contained in a food.

The squash family makes a good example. A cup of summer

To a greater or lesser degree, squash at 34 calories has a trace of fat and 8 grams of carbohydrates. A cup of winter squash, with only a trace of fat, contains 22 6 grams of carbohydrate and 97 calories. Neither one is free, but summer squash uses up a great deal less of the reducer's calorie budget.

Salad greens, celery, radish, green pepper, asparagus and zucchini count so little that a dieter is urged to eat all she wants, freely. If, that is, she does not douse them with high-calorie dressings. Besides their low-calorie feature, all foods provide vitamins, minerals and bulk in superior quantities. Just what the dieter needs most!

With the sugar plum season coming up eating all you want of these foods is a great idea. Feast on them between feasts. That way you may come out Even Steven!

Here's a painless way for teens and adults to reduce! Just send for my booklet, Leaner, Lighter and Lovelier. It includes menus for delicious meals and snacks; Calorie Counter and Nutrition Chart; Diet Shortcuts; Spot Reducers. Your Problems

Ann Says Man Doesn't Need Two More Holes in His Head

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: This is truly the Year of the Ear. A great many teenagers, children of our friends and relatives, are having their ears pierced because it is the "in" thing to do. I believe this is all right, provided the earrings they wear are small and not garnished.

When I tell you my problem you will think I am putting you on but I swear I am not kidding. It is my husband. He wants to have his ears pierced. He says he has always liked the looks of swash-buckling pirates with earrings and Spanish dancers too. He reminded me that in biblical times many men wore earrings.

It there a law against men piercing their ears? (I hope so.) Please give me your views on this. I need help. — Ear Ye

Dear Ear: Of course there is no law prohibiting men from piercing their ears. But I don't think your husband needs two more holes in his head. If he were a pirate, or a Spanish dancer — or living in biblical times — his desire for earrings would fit in with the culture. But for here and now he'd better forget it — unless, of course, he likes to fight.

You are right when you say this is the Year of the Ear. I have been deluged with all sorts of mail (most of it negative) ever since I announced in print that I had had my ears pierced. Now hear this:

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I was shocked and distressed to read in your column that you —

of all people — have gone and had your ears pierced.

My grandmother told me that in Europe 50 years ago ignorant people believed pierced ears would improve their vision. What's YOUR excuse?

I find it extremely unsettling that a woman of your position and intelligence would mutilate herself for the sole purpose of inserting ornaments. Ear-piercing is medieval nonsense tantamount to tattooing and Ubangi lip-stretching.

Next I expect to hear you've put a bone through your nose. Shame on you. — Disappointed

Dear Disappointed: I know of few sights more unsettling than a drawer filled with single earrings — and I have one. Since I've had my ears pierced I have not lost an earring and if that's medieval nonsense, I'm in favor of it.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I'm in my middles 20's and so is my girl friend. We are very much in love.

My girl friend's mother says if I have any questions about when her daughter should be brought home from a date I should discuss it with her and she will set me straight. Since when is a young man supposed to talk over such things with his girl friend's mother?

Don't you feel that people in their middle 20's are old enough to decide for themselves when to come home from a date? We are adults and I think we should be treated like adults. What do you say? — Stonewall

Dear Jackson: I agree. But on the other hand, so long as your girl friend lives under her mother's roof she is obliged to live by her mother's rules. Yes, even if she's 50. The alternative is to move.

Is a heavy drinker an alcoholic? How can you tell? Is there a cure for alcoholism? Send for Ann Landers' booklet "Alcoholism — Hope and Help." Enclose with your request, 35 cents in coin and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Tree Substitute

An apartment-dwelling family can substitute a pair of clay-potted poinsettias for the traditional tree. Bright, red poinsettias have become the traditional Christmas plant, and they're large enough to group presents around.

NEW WAY TO BE SUDDENLY SLIM FOR CHRISTMAS

Los Angeles:—Are you a woman whose figure is on the good side but might look perfect? You'll be thrilled by the new easy way science has discovered for you to become Suddenly Slim and yet completely comfortable. If you're more than 15 pounds overweight or your waistline is larger than 32 inches, then this idea is not for you. If your weight problem falls within this range, then you can realize a new, smoother figure today, without diet or exercise.

Suddenly Slim is an all-new kind of 4-oz. girdle constructed of science fibers. One startling innovation is the sheer nylon front panel. This is permanently stiffened by a science process and cannot give or sag. It's surrounded by a slimming action border. A featherstitched panel down each side of this girdle will contour your hips if they are a problem.

The girdle itself is of a "wonder" Lycra spandex blend. It's a new power net consisting of nylon, acetate and spandex. It is so comfortable, but has such slimming strength, it gives your figure everything that's possible with a foundation.

"Suddenly Slim," in both girdle and panty versions, is the peak achievement of the California designer-genius, Olga.

Children's Clothing Sizes Set by Height, Weight

Most clothes manufacturers base sizes of children's clothes on weight and height rather than age, according to Lenore Landry, clothing specialist at the University of Wisconsin.

Chest, waist and hip measurements should be used to check the fit of clothes within each size group. If your child is heavier or more slender than average you may need to buy a garment in "slim" or "husky" sizes for boys or "chubby" for girls.

Style and cut of the child's clothing also affects size. A close-fitting princess dress may need to be larger than a full-cut design gathered to a sleeveless yoke.

Watch Shrinkage

Items such as cotton knit shirts and some unsanforized cottons should be bought a size larger. This allows for shrinkage. Other than these exceptions, don't buy clothes too large and expect your child to grow into them. The clothes will be uncomfortable and may wear out before they fit the child.

A child grows fast. Measure and weigh him each time you buy a new garment. Height is the most important measurement. Have him stand in stocking feet straight against a wall and look straight ahead. Put a ruler on his head and measure from that point on the wall to the floor.

Measure Carefully

Measure the chest at the largest part, the waist at the smallest part and hips at the largest part. Keep the measuring tape straight and firm, but not tight.

Write these figures on a card and take it with you to the store. Also use these figures when ordering merchandise from a catalog.

Shopping is usually no fun for small children. You'll find it much easier to shop when the tots aren't along. Once in a while you might like to take your child shopping to let him choose clothes for a special occasion.

Five Size Groups

Children's ready-to-wear garments come in five size groups: infants and babies, toddlers. children, girls and boys. The sizes overlap in the first three groups. This means that some toddlers' sizes are larger than the smallest children's sizes.

Toddlers' sizes are for the child who is beginning to walk. He can wear them until he's about three years old. Toddler styling may be more baby-like than children's small sizes. Toddler's are cut roomier at the waist and pants are broader to allow for diapers.

Dial-an-Author Recipes Distress Famous Cooks

LONDON (AP) — Users of a new British cook book will be able to telephone some of Britain's most famous women for help in following their favoite recipes.

The volume, Lady Maclean's Cook Book, contains the favorite recipes of some of Britain's leading hostesses and it includes the private telephone numbers of many contributors — a fact which rather staggered some of them.

Her First Caller

A woman telephoned Sir Winson Churchill's daughter Mary — Mrs. Christopher Soames — Sunday to bemoan the fact that her baked bananas creole were, she thought, browner than they should be.

Mrs. Soames replied: "Are you sure you remembered the lemon juice? That's most important. And it is so simple."

Mrs. Soames was stunned when she realized that her caller might be the first of hundreds whose baked bananas creole hadn't come up to expectations.

But bravely facing the future, she promised: "I'd rather no one phoned — but if they do, I would try to help."

Dial-an-Author Idea

The dial-an-author innovation was something of an accident.

Lady Maclean explained: "I asked my friends to write the recipes on their own notepaper and some included their telephone numbers. I don't suppose the implications crossed their minds. I am not worried about it. I am sure they are not. And if any woman is caught in a flap, it's me she should write to."

Truman Capote's Party Guests Dance Into Wee Hours Monday

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON

NEW YORK (AP) — It was hard to decide who was belle of Truman Capote's much touted masked ball Monday night — Lynda Bird Johnson, Kay Graham or agile Alice Roosevelt Longworth — but there was no doubt that he was the host with the most, the idol of the "in" crowd.

The President's glamorous elder daughter — a working girl — danced until 2 a.m. with several partners.

The honored guest, publisher Kay Graham, sat out a few dances, kicking her feet from the bandstand, but not many.

Mrs. Longworth, daughter of President Theodore Roosevelt, sat out the dance tunes by Peter Duchin and the Soul Brothers. Nevertheless, she was surrounded until the wee hours by various personalities.

All Together

At one time, at the same red-clothed table, sat three members of White House families — Lynda Bird chatting animatedly with Mrs. Longworth while Margaret Truman Daniel listened.

Once Lynda Bird obliged a red-jacketed waiter with an autograph for his own daughter named Linda.

For endurance on the dance floor the prizes went to Lauren Bacall and bearded Jerome Robbins, who danced until they were wet with perspiration.

Mia Sinatra danced the fast ones with Roddy McDowell while her husband Frank chatted with Pat Lawford and Eunice Shriver, sisters of the late President John F. Kennedy. The late president's mother, Mrs. Joseph Kennedy, arrived early in the evening while Lee Radziwill, Mrs. John F. Kennedy's sister, was a glittering latecomer in a silver bugle-beaded dress.

At The Plaza

Celebrities were plentiful at this imaginative party given in the grand ballroom of the Plaza Hotel at 59th Street and Fifth Avenue.

They ranged from pop artist Andy Warhol, who was without his usual sunglasses, to elegant Gloria Vanderbilt, now Mrs. Wyatt Cooper.

Throaty Tallulah Bankhead was darling-ing everybody.

At one table was a contingent of nine from Garden City, Kan., including Alvin Dewey and his wife. Dewey was an investigator for the Kansas Bureau of Investigation and a principal figure in Capote's book "In Cold Blood."

Capote set the fashion tone by insisting that his female guests wear black or white. Most wore combinations of the two.

Lynda Bird's dress, for instance, was a series of contrasting panels gathered from a yoke at the neck. The ladies and some of the gentlemen outdid themselves with imaginative and sometimes fantastically expensive masks.

Feline Faces

Cat masks were favorites. One woman had a large diamond set in the nose of hers. Designer Oscar de la Renta covered his face with black fur while his escort hid behind a white kitten face.

Most ladies' masks were sprays of feathers twinkling with gems. John Gunther, author of those "Inside" books, kept his face inside a book-like box.

As for Capote, he wore a 35-cent mask from a Manhattan toy store.

Pool Water Should Not Be Drained

BY ROGER C. WHITMAN

Q. I bought our place last spring, and enjoyed the pool all summer. Now what about winter? Should I drain it or leave the water in. The previous owner always left the water in, but I'm still doubtful.

A: The previous owner is exactly right. Besides, if he's had no trouble, how can you quarrel with success? If you drained, there would be nothing to resist the inward pressure of the surrounding earth, especially when it expands from freezing. That's the cause for many a concrete pool's sides cracking. Full of water, the earth can't push the walls at all.

Q: My husband and I recently pulled off the plastic wall tile in our kitchen without too much trouble. But how can we remove the remains of the adhesive? One neighbor told me the only way is by heating the wall areas with a blowtorch, then scraping. Is this true?

A: Don't recommend, unless you're completely familiar with using a blowtorch and have a tolerant fire insurance policy. Better to have plenty of sandpaper at hand, then put the sanding wheel attachment of your electric drill to work. Better yet, use a regular portable sander, if available.

Q: We would like to re-do our bathroom grouting between the ceramic tiles. Some has fallen out, other is shaky. What can I use for digging it out?

A: You can't beat a sturdy, pointed beer can opener. A whole lot cheaper than so-called special tools, too.

Q: Our windows steam up so badly at times we can't see out. What is the cause?

A: Always a case of warm, humid house air coming in contact with colder window glass. Air dampness is mostly caused by cooking vapors, steamy showers, laundry drying indoors. Cheapest way to get the warm air out is to ventilate thoroughly whenever possible; at least four or five times a day can make a great difference. Wall fans for kitchen and laundry, to draw damp vapors outdoors, can help. Well - fitting storb sash and storm doors also are a tremendous help.

Water, Spray Insecticides Control Houseplant Pests

After you've brought your house plants indoors for the winter you may find you brought some bugs in too. The easiest way to control these pests is to wash the plants under lukewarm running tap water about once every two weeks.

If you do need to use a pesticide spray or dip on house plants be sure you take the necessary safety precautions, reminds Margaret Nelson, consumer protection specialist at the University of Wisconsin.

Before you can treat the plants, you need to know what kind of bugs are causing the problem. Check to find out what the pests are and the recommended chemicals to use. Most insect sprays for house plants are available in aerosol containers. There are some sprays or dips you can mix yourself.

Read Labels

When you buy the pesticide, check the label to make sure the spray is safe for plants. Some multi-use insecticides contain chemicals that may kill or discolor your plants.

When you treat potted plants work outside or in a well-ventilated room. Follow label directions exactly. If you choose an insecticide that must be mixed with water, prepare only the amount of solution you need. Do not save the leftovers.

Wear rubber gloves when you work with a pesticide dip. If you use a spray you mixed yourself, apply it with a small hand sprayer that is used only for pesticides. Don't leave any solution in the sprayer and clean sprayers immediately after use.

Since pesticides for house plants often come in small packages it is easy for them to be misplaced or mistaken for other products. They need to be stored separately, preferably in a locked place. A small locked file box is a convenient storage unit for household pesticides. Keep pesticides in the original containers with a label that is readable.

Mother Asks How to Deal With Son's Obscene Phoning

BY DR. EVE JONES

Dear Dr. Jones:

I was horrified last night to discover that my son, 14, has been saying terribly obscene things on the telephone. I pulled the phone away from him and asked him who he was talking to, and he admitted it was just a name he had pulled from the telephone directory at random.

He said all his friends did it and he can't see what the harm is, because if the women he calls know what he's talking about, they have no right to pretend to be insulted.

And if they don't know what he's saying to them, they can't be upset by it.

Although I know it is wrong, I must admit his logic does make sense somehow. I didn't let it stop me from punishing him — I took away his allowance for the next month and gave him a good talking to.

But I'd like to be sure I've done the right thing. How can I get around it so I can make him see that what he was doing really is wrong?

Obscene phone calls are insulting because they're out of context. Mutually enjoyed intimacy is lacking. The receiver hasn't indicated interest in either the activities being proposed or the person proposing them.

So the receiver knows full well that she's being used as nothing but a dump for the caller's sexualized disrespect and contempt.

Forfeiting his allowance won't help your son straighten out his current mixed-up feelings about sex. Nor will such punishment help prevent such activities on the part of his companions.

This is a community problem that probably can be most easily solved by a concerted community approach. Phone the other parents and ask them to come with their sons to a gathering at your home; then talk together about how to solve this common problem. Ask your telephone company for help. A phone company representative who has had special experience in group discussions about this problem might be interested in attending your meeting.

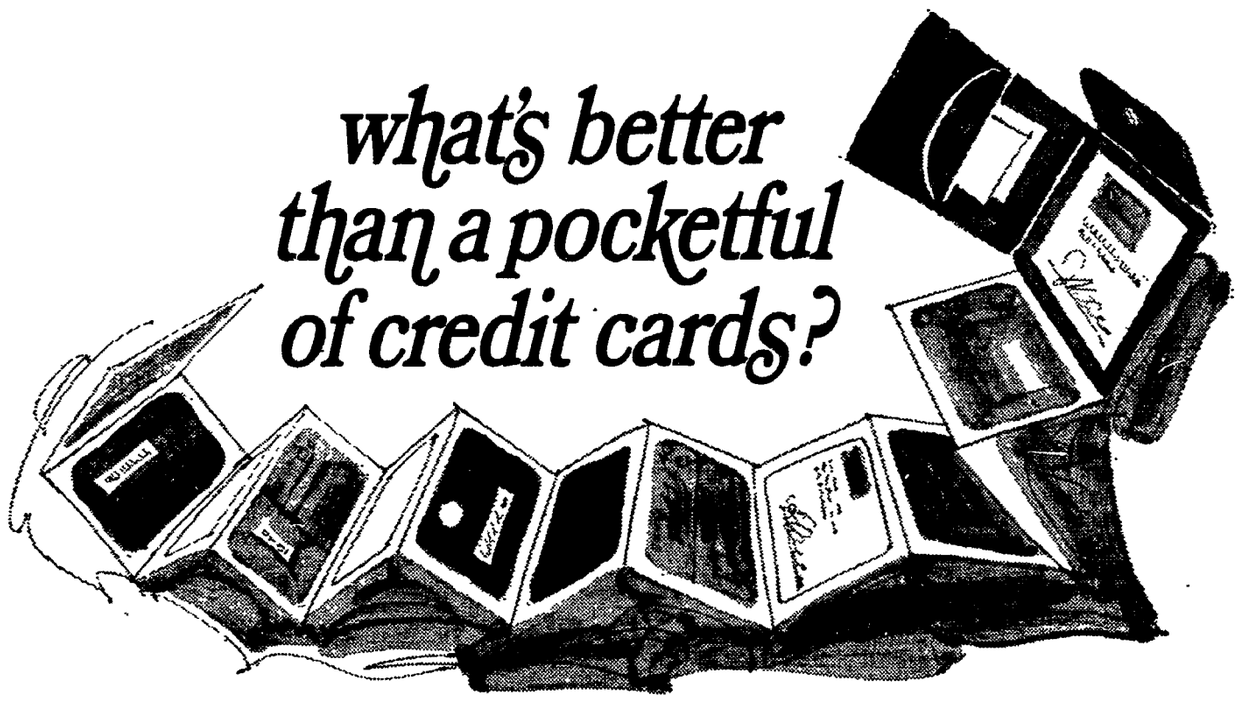

When it gets so jammed around the bar that you can hardly move-what's better than a pocketful of credit cards?

Bancardcheks®- they turn into cash! Say "Cash it" instead of "Charge it". And watch the merchant smile. N.M.B. Bancardcheks give you a purchasing power that credit cards can't match. In four ways: (1) Bancardcheks are backed by our bank. They're unbounceable. They're acceptable as cash at every restaurant, every store all over the country. (2) Bancardcheks are welcome — and so are you! Because they convert to cash, merchants get their money immediately. (3) Bancardcheks are safer. If you lose a credit card, anyone can forge your signature and charge things to you. But Bancardcheks can not be cashed without the accompanying identification card. (4) N.M.B. Bancardchek service costs only $3 per year. (Most national credit cards cost four times that much.) ■ You don't pay for your N.M.B. advance the date to July, 1968 if approved by the 1967 Legislature. Board spokesmen said that change proposal can be expected to be "controversial."

The action came after four hours of debate on the plan, which divides the state into 15 districts ranging in size from one to 17 counties. The Winnebago County action was the only major change over a plan tentatively adopted by an advisory group two weeks ago.

Only board chairman Philip Lerman of Milwaukee voted against Mueller's amendment shifting Winnebago County. Lerman said that although the new alignment would allow both the affected districts to meet the minimal criteria established, the board should consider instead attempting to create districts as close as possible to maximum limits permissible.

State Industrial Commissioner Gene Rowland, a member of the board, abstained from voting, saying that Winnebago County authorities should be permitted to express themselves on the proposal before action is taken.

Hears Proposal

The action came after the board heard a proposal from Wallace L. Zahn of Oshkosh, representing a citizens' vocational education committee of Winnebago and Waushara counties, proposed that a separate district be created of the two counties, including the Neenah-Menasha area.

He attributed past factionalism over the makeup of the new district as being due in part to the long-standing battle over the site of the local airport. "This is not the time to build our old barriers up any higher by splitting the county," he said. "We think that this is the time to break the barriers down."

Oshkosh Technical Institute operates a high quality program, he said, and should be used as a basis for a separate district. Waushara and Winnebago counties could be joined in a district without causing either the Fox Valley or Fond du Lac districts to dip below the criteria minimums, he contended.

And the two - county district would meet the population and equalized valuation minimum levels, he said.

Would Hurt District

Questioning of the staff by board members brought out the fact, however, that establishment of such a district would hurt the district from which Waushara County would have been removed. That district, as approved by subsequent board action, also includes Wood, Portage, Juneau, Adams and Marquette counties.

Zahn told the board that the Winnebago County Board was prepared to sell land acquired for a planned new site of the Oshkosh institute and prepare a new site on County Trunk G between U.S. 41 and 45 if the two-county district were approved. The proposed site would be more accessible to students from throughout the district, he said.

Following Zahn's presentation, Noll reminded the Oshkosh representatives of an informal statement made at the committee meeting two weeks ago endorsing a unification of Winnebago County with the Fox Valley district.

Zahn and William Sirek, director of the Oshkosh institute, told the board that the education committees of the boards of supervisors of Winnebago and Outagamie counties had approved in principle the plan at a meeting last week, but that no action had yet been taken.

Delay Mapping

Zahn proposed that the entire question of the mapping of Winnebago County be delayed, reminding the group that the Winnebago County Baord had unanimously opposed the segmentation of the county between two districts.

Frederick Hiestand, a staff member of the area development committee of the board, told the group that joining all of Winnebago County to the Fox Valley district would create a district with an equalized valuation of $1.4 billion and a Fond du Lac district of $1.7 billion.

Projected student enrollments in 1970 under the approved plan are about 1,440 students in the Fox Valley district institution, and 790 in the Fond du Lac school. Hiestand warned that the Fond du Lac figure, only 30 above the approved minimum, might prove to be "hazardous," State Superintendent of Public Instruction William Kahl dismissed the objection, saying that projected figures for minimums are not absolute necessities.

Both Adequate

Both schools will have adequate enrollments and tax bases in 1980 and thereafter, Hiestand said.

Fond du Lac, Green Lake, Dodge and Washington counties of the Fond du Lac district have growth patterns which will result in a more than adequate financial and student base for the new school without relying upon Winnebago County, Mueller said.

Before the action of the board, Gerhard Willecke, Appleton, endorsed the original proposal to include Neenah and Menasha in the Fox Valley district. He approved the suggestion that Winnebago County be added to the area district, but said he feared such a change might slow the procedure of approval. He suggested initial approval of the Fox Cities addition to the Fox Valley district. Later action could consider the rest of Winnebago County, he said.

He warned the board not to become involved in site disputes for the actual location of the schools at Monday's meeting saying that such a fight also could slow the development procedure.

Mother Shot in Abdomen, Baby Born Same Night

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—A boy was born by Caesarian section after his mother was shot accidentally by his father last night.

Harry R. Petersen, 27, a mechanic, was barely able to talk as he told police his revolver fired while he was putting it in his holster.

The bullet struck his wife, Lois, 26, in the abdomen but did not hit the baby.

Mrs. Petersen, who had expected her fourth child next month, told hospital attendants the shooting was accidental.

Petersen said he had been carrying the gun because of vandalism at the Yellow Cab Co. car lot where he worked at night.

Physicians said Mrs. Petersen's condition is critical.

Prostitutes First Witnesses Against Pair From Hurley

MADISON (AP)—Two women testified in Federal Court Monday they worked as prostitutes at Hurley.

The women were opening witnesses in the trial of Mrs. Marcia Lyon, 49, and Anton Lysczyk, 44, both of Hurley. They are charged with four counts of conspiring to use and using interstate communication facilities to promote prostitution.

U.S. Atty. Edmund A. Nix said in his opening statement Monday the federal government had the right to step into what otherwise might be a state case "where there was a complete breakdown of local law enforcement."

Up to 3 inches of snow fell in sections of northern Ohio and western New York State in a six-hour period during the night. Five inches of snow earlier had been reported in McKean County in northwestern Pennsylvania and six inches fell in a storm in western New York Monday.

7-Inch Snowfall

Seven inches of snow covered the Great Smoky Mountains of Tennessee, with 4 inches reported at Newfound Gap on the Tennessee-North Carolina line. The mercury dropped to the 20s.

Early morning temperatures were in the 40s and lower from the Gulf region to central Florida. Southerly winds brought mild conditions to New England, with readings higher in some areas in the far northeast states than in northern Florida.

A fresh surge of cold air moved across the northern Rockies and a cold wave warning was in effect for Montana eastward to the Continental Divide.

Wilson Seeks Backing for Rhodesia Plan

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Wilson sent a high-level mission to Washington today to get American backing for any compulsory sanctions he seeks to bring the Rhodesian rebels to their knees.

As the mission left for the United States, Wilson met with his Cabinet for a final decision on whether to break off negotiations with the white minority government in Salisbury and take the dispute to the U.N. Security Council.

The mission to Washington is headed by Sir Saville Garner of the Commonwealth office. The government is convinced that mandatory sanctions won't work unless the United States backs them.

Garner said he would discuss ways of halting imports from Rhodesia by certain American firms. He did not name the firms. He and his group will fly to Ottawa Thursday and return to London Saturday.

Public Assistance Director to Retire

MADISON (AP)— Thomas J. Lucas, director of Wisconsin's Division of Public Assistance for 13 years, will retire next month.

Lucas began welfare work in Milwaukee County in 1931, came to state government two years later and was named assistant director of the division in 1940. He became director in 1953.

The Department of Public Welfare announced Monday Lucas would retire Dec. 31. He will spend his last few weeks taking advantage of unused vacation time, it said.

At a midmorning news briefing, Dr. Bass disclosed that the infant had become jaundiced and a decision will have to be made about an exchange blood transfusion within the next few days.

Dr. Bass explained that jaundice, which causes a yellowing of the skin, is common in premature babies and can be corrected only by replacing the entire blood supply.

However, the doctor said Roni Sue "continues to be very active and is moving and kicking." He said her over-all condition was "quite good."

GOP Chooses Froehlich New House Speaker

university, he was executive director and treasurer of the Y-GOP Club and a member of Phi Kappa Phi, a national honorary group.

Since 1956 Froehlich has been GOP precinct committeeman from Appleton's 19th Ward. He was elected chairman of Outagamie County Republican Statutory Committee in 1962, the same year he was chosen to serve his first term in the state assembly.

Froehlich is a member of national, state and local bar associations, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Appleton Junior Chamber of Commerce, and the Wisconsin State Historical Society.

In a later development, McKay defeated former assembly speaker and GOP minority floor leader Paul Alfonsi of Minocqua in a race for the second-ranking Republican position, majority floor leader. The vote was 29-23.

Alfonsi, convicted in a bribery trial in the last session of the Legislature, has an appeal pending before the State Supreme Court which, if lost, will make him ineligible to serve in the state Legislature. McKay and Froehlich are regarded as conservative spokesmen in the lower house.

Identical Claims

The withdrawal statements of Martin and McKay evoked nearly identical victory claims from both Clemens and Froehlich.

"I'm quite confident I have a majority of votes," said Clemens Monday night.

"There's no question in my mind that I have the majority of votes," echoed Froehlich with equal confidence.

A four-way race for speaker had threatened to engulf the GOP caucus in a furor that could deeply split the party and splinter its program for the entire 1967 session.

Since the Nov. 8 election when Republicans recaptured control of the Assembly with a 53-47 majority, the contest for speaker had been following moderate-conservative lines.

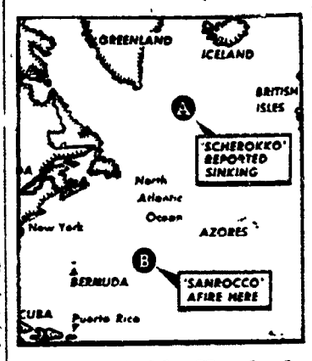

Many Republicans have sought to gloss over the philosophical differences and term the fight one of personalities alone. But McKay admitted one of the reasons he withdrew was to prevent a "serious rift" among Assembly Republicans.

"We have to resolve this thing in a manner which allows the Assembly to be productive, to act with dispatch and to enable us to have a constructive relationship with Gov. Warren P. Knowles," said McKay.

The portly Cedarburg attorney added that he presumed the moderate - conservative fight could be avoided if he supported Froehlich. This lessened the possibility of a stalemate in the caucus and a prolonged battle.

Martin said he pledged his allegiance to Clemens because he thought he was the best man for the job. He declined to comment if he would seek any other leadership post.

Knowles vowed continually to avoid getting burned and to bypass any role in the Republican leadership quarrel. However, Clemens was considered closest in philosophy to the governor.

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP) — The Los Angeles Coliseum and Sunday, Jan. 15 are the likely site and date of the Super Bowl football game between the champions of the National and American Football leagues.

If the Pro Bowl game, between all-star teams of the NFL's two conferences, can be shifted from Jan. 15 to Jan. 22, the two pro leagues are expected to move their first big game into the vast Coliseum where the Rams play their home games.

No decision has been made.

The Coliseum, Miami's Orange Bowl, New Orleans' Sugar Bowl and Houston's Astrodome are being considered, according to NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle.

Separate Meetings

A joint committee from the two leagues, with Commissioner Rozelle as chairman, is making its recommendations to the two leagues at separate meetings. A definite announcement is expected before the two pro leagues end their meetings Wednesday or Thursday.

Of primary importance to the members of the NFL is a discussion of realignment With New Orleans becoming the 16th team in 1967, the league will have 16 teams. They will be split into the same two Eastern and Western Conferences, with the West choosing between New Orleans and Atlanta as its eighth member. Baltimore would still remain in the West and St. Louis in the East.

Each conference will, in turn, be split into two four-club divisions. The make-up of those divisions is causing considerable discussion. Among the factors to be considered are weather, baseball park conflicts, traditional rivalries, geography, season ticket sale and business success and competitive aspects (strong or weak teams).

Formalized Soon

Rozelle said he hoped the make-up of the two conferences will be formalized soon. He said each team in a division will play exactly the same opponents in a 14-game schedule. In addition to home and home series with the three other teams in its own division, the team would play each of the teams in the other division and four from the other conference.

Although nine alplications for the New Orleans franchise have been received, Rozelle said he doubted if the name of the new owner would be announced at these meetings. Before an owner is selected, a purchase price must be determined. No figure was announcd when Atlanta was added earlier this year, but the figure of $8.5 million was published frequently.

Rozelle said he was not denying there was "some validity" to reports that the New York Giants would get first draft rights to the nation's No 1 quarterback under the terms of the merger of the two leagues

Validity to Reports

"There has been nothing firmly resolved about the speculation that the Giants will get the first quarterback," said Rozelle. "I will not deny there is some validity to the reports but nothing has been decided. It depends on future decisions."

There have been frequent reports that the Giants would get the No. 1 quarterback and would take Steve Spurrier, the Heisman Trophy winner from Florida.

Rozelle said there has been discussion of changing the date of the AFL game, now set for Monday, Dec. 26 in the home park of the Eastern winner.

"It probably would be better if both title games were played the same weekend," he said.

The NFL game is set for Sunday, Jan. 1 in the Eastern Conference winner's park.

Stops Elorde in 4th in One-Sided Bout at New York

NEW YORK (AP) — Another lightweight title fight and then champion Carlos Ortiz, knockout conqueror of Filipino Flash Elorde, may move up against welterweight king Curtis Cokes.

Ortiz and his manager Bill Daly, who had a second's license for the Monday night rout at Madison Square Garden, mentioned Sugar Ramos of Mexico City and Carlos Cruz, the contender from the Dominican Republic, as the possible lightweight opponents.

Ortiz flattened the game, wiry Elorde with a smashing left hook to the chin at 2:01 of the 14th round, ending a fight that was as one-sided as a duel between a machine-gunner and a guy with a water pistol.

Never Got Going

Elorde, as flat as a day-old glass of ginger ale, never could get going against the smart, crisp-hitting Puerto Rican-born

New Yorker.

Judge Joe Armstrong gave all 13 rounds to Ortiz, the 3-1 favorite Judge Artie Aidala scored it 12-1 and referee Jimmy Develin had it 11-2. The Associated Press score card had it 12-1.

The 135-pound, 30-year-old Ortiz looked like a middleweight in against a bantamweight in the 31-year-old, 134½-pound world junior lightweight champion from Manila.

Ortiz, in his third title defense of the year, softened up his rival with stinging left jabs to the head and smashing lefts and rights to the boy, and jarring rights to the head.

"He hit me in the right place at the right time," said Elorde, who added that he would not make any decision about retiring until he returned to Manila in a few days. He is a wealthy businessman.

"I was surprised that he was able to last until the 14th," said Ortiz "I thought I had him earlier but he is a game fighter and hung in there. I fought just as I had planned, hitting him with short lefts and rights."

Golden Eagle Found Dead At Horicon

HORICON (AP)—One of the nation's few remaining eagles has been found dead on the Horicon National Wildlife Refuge boundary Saturday night. Personius described it as an immature golden eagle with a wingspread of more than six feet.

The U.S Fish and Wildlife Service estimated recently that only about 500 specimens of golden and bald eagles still survive.

There have been no nesting pairs of eagles on Horicon for years, but each fall several arrive with the migrating geese, and stay as long as the geese.

Personius said a count of geese on the refuge Monday showed 82,000 birds on hand, and estimated that the overall total now is about 100,000. Birds show no signs of leaving, with virtually no snow, plenty of open water, and abundant feed in the surrounding area.

Pirates Buy Juan Pizarro; Houston Drafts Bo Belinsky

Cubs Select Joe Campbell In First Round

By MURRAY CHASS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates have acquired Juan Pizarro in an attempt to solve their primary problem, and the Houston Astros have grabbed Bo Belinsky with the hope that he can overcome his.

Pizarro and Belinsky, both 29-year-old left-handed pitchers, were in the spotlight Monday as baseball's annual winter meetings got under way.

Belinsky, whose weakness possibly has been as much good times as it has bad pitching, went to the Astros for $25,000 in the player draft, and several hours later Pizarro became the first player to be involved in a deal at the meetings. The Pirates bought him from the Chicago White Sox for an undisclosed amount.

He Can Help Us

"We watched Pizarro last summer, and we think he can help us," said Manager Harry Walker, whose Pirates just missed winning the National League pennant because of weak pitching. "He's still young enough to come back. He still can throw.

"Moving to another league might help him, give him incentive to do better — just like it did for Frank Robinson We're glad to get Pizarro. He has a chance to win 12 to 15 games and maybe even go above that with some luck."

Pizarro won 19 games for the White Sox in 1964 but has won just 14 in the two seasons since then. His problem has been arm trouble.

The big question about Belinsky is whether his problem has been his pitching in public or his pitching in private.

Had No-Hitter

Possessor of a no-hitter in his first major league season, 1962, the fun-loving Belinsky was placed on the disqualified list for a month and a half in 1963, after a squabble with the California Angels, then suspended

LU Opens Against Milton

Rusk Expects Vikings To Have More Depth In 1966-7 Campaign

Coach Clyde Rusk will unveil the 1966-7 edition of the Lawrence University basketball team in a non-conference game Saturday at Milton College.

This will be the first of four non-league games for the Vikings before they work into the Midwest Conference schedule.

Rusk admitted that the Vikes will be going against somewhat of an unknown foe when they travel to Milton for the season opener. The two teams did not meet last season, but Milton did participate in the Lawrence Holiday Tournament.

"We know they like to fast break a lot," Rusk offered, "and we have been gearing our defense to combat this."

After five weeks of drills, the Vikings are hungry for some game action, Rusk pointed out, and he expects to get a good look at the entire squad Saturday.

The probable starting lineup for the Vikes will see letterman Steve Simon at one forward spot with either veteran Don Brooke or sophomore Mike Andrews at the other. A pair of sophomores, Brad Childs and Bob Townsend, are battling for the starting spot at center. The guards will be lettermen Dick Schultz and Brian Bock.

Tallest Player

Childs is the tallest player on the squad (at 6-8) and Townsend is next in line, at 6-4. Rusk is hoping this duo will furnish the Vikes with some rebound strength, a spot where the team was weak last season when Lawrence compiled an overall record of 7-15

Rusk expects the Vikes to have more depth than a year ago. The 15-man roster shows a definite accent on youth as there is only one senior (Schultz), four juniors and 10 sophomores.

"We have some strong competition for several positions," Rusk said, "and this is good because it keeps the players on their toes."

Following the Milton contest, the Vikes will face Carroll College Dec. 9 and then wind up non-conference play with the annual Holiday Tournament Dec. 29-30.

Odell, Navarro Among Candidates

UW's Athletic Board Burns Midnight Oil In Search of Coach

By JAMES R. POLK

MADISON (AP) — Wisconsin summoned Pennsylvania's Bob Odell and Williams College's Frank Navarro for closed-door interviews Monday in its national manhunt for a new head football coach, but described the scramble today as "still wide open."

Odell, 44, former backfield coach at Wisconsin, and Navarro, 36, were among nine candidates to appear before the university's athletic board for talks that ran until 1:30 a.m.

Law Prof Frank Remington, chairman of the athletic board, said no decision was reached on whether to make a selection immediately from among the nine or conduct additional interviews. Remington said the board would meet again Thursday to determine which step to take next.

The other seven men in the procession were the assistant coaches on the present staff. They included Defensive Coach John Coatta, 37, and Line Coach Mike McGee, 27, both regarded as among the frontrunners for the job.

Remington said Odell and Navarro brought "good credentials. We wanted to start with them."

30 Applicants

About 25 to 30 candidates have applied for the Big Ten coaching post, Athletic Director Ivan Williamson said.

The job was vacated when Milt Bruhn resigned Nov. 17 two days before the end of his third straight losing season. Bruhn, who twice took Wisconsin to the Rose Bowl, departed with a winning record for his 11 years as head coach, but was 3-6-1 this fall.

Odell and Bruhn came to Wisconsin together as assistants when Williamson became head coach in 1949. Odell was backfield coach in the era of fellow All - America Alan (The Horse) Ameche and handled Coatta at quarterback for three years.

Bruhn succeeded Williamson as head coach in 1956 while Odell became head coach two years later at Bucknell, where he twice captured the Lambert Trophy given annually to the outstanding small college team in the East.

Odell returned last season to his alma mater of Penn, where he had been an All - America back and winner of the Maxwell Trophy as the nation's top college football player in 1943.

Top Candidates

Navarro is known as an energetic, aggressive coach who won three letters at Maryland as an 180-pound guard.

He has been head coach at Williams for four years and had a 6-2 record this season.

Coatta was an assistant at Florida State for six years before returning to Wisconsin in 1965. He still owns the Big Ten record for passing accuracy set in his 1950 season when he hit 64.2 per cent of his tosses.

McGee joined the Wisconsin staff this year after three seasons as an assistant at Duke, his alma mater. He played pro football for three years as a guard for the St. Louis Cardinals.

Williamson and the nine-man athletic board met for 7½ hours Monday night at the exclusive Madison Club two blocks from the state Capitol. Navarro had dinner with the board, and the other candidates were interviewed individually afterwards.

Remington, who said the race was "still wide open," repeated that the board hoped to offer its recommendation to the university's Board of Regents by Dec. 9.

Navarro arrived Sunday and spent the day Monday on the campus Odell flew in Monday afternoon after a telephoned summons.

"When I came to work this morning, I had no idea I'd be here tonight," Odell said.

Both coaches said the planned to return east today.

Vince Singles Out Davis for Special Praise

Lombardi Salutes Play of Both Units Against Minnesota

GREEN BAY — Coach Vince Lombardi made an exception to his rule today of not singling out individual players for performance on the field of battle.

"I certainly don't point out individual players," Vince said after viewing pictures of the Pack's 28-16 win over the Vikings Sunday, "but Willie Davis played an outstanding game."

Davis was in Fran Tarkenton's hair all afternoon and when the pace really picked up in the second half the Vikings sometimes had three men trying to keep the Packers' left defensive end off Francis' back.

The Packers finished up nailing Tarkenton four times for 34 yards in losses and as a result the Viking offense was upset and spotty. Minnesota settled for three field goals and one touchdown — produced when Dave Osborn broke a tackle on Tom Brown on a a 38-yard pass play.

Lombardi saluted the work of both the offense and defense terming it "very well."

But, he noted, "We came out pretty well banged up and bruised."

The various bruises even included the head coach and the team's kicker, Don Chandler, who suffered a stiff neck when he ran 33 yards off a punt, setting up the Packers' first touchdown. Lombardi got it in the knee when Viking Bill Brown ran into him on the sidelines and. Vince chuckled, "I'm limping now."

Can you imagine a pro football game in which a team threw NO passes? . . . Sophs Need Seasoning

Erickson Plans to Start Four Juniors

MADISON (AP) — Wisconsin will start four juniors against 10th-ranked Cincinnati in its basketball debut here Saturday and nurture its potent sophomore crop with patience.

Coach John Erickson listed either 7-foot Eino Hendrickson from Holmen or 6-foot-5 Chuck Nagle from Milwaukee Marquette as the only likely starter among a sparkling sophomore group that includes four All-Stars from Wisconsin prep play.

"They need seasoning," Erickson explained. "I'm not going to stick them out there in the face of undue pressure early in the season. It's a long season. We have plenty of time to get them ready."

Franklin and Carlin were starters last year, while McCallum led the team's scoring in the varsity-freshman game.

The coach said the front line would either have Hendrickson at pivot, with Franklin and Johnson flanking him, or Johnson at pivot, with Nagle and Franklin on the sides.

Wants 8 Players

"I don't have to start five men until they throw the ball up Saturday," said Erickson. "I believe a coach develops eight players. I believe it's suicide to develop only five."

Behind his possible starters, Erickson mentioned 6-foot-5 sophomore Jim Johnson from Memphis, Tenn., on the front line and senior Dennis Sweeney and sophomores Tom Mitchell of Monroe and John Schell of Cumberland in the back court.

Hendrickson, Nagle, Schell, and Keith Burington of Monroe were members of the 1965 All-State prep team in Wisconsin. Jim Johnson was the top scorer on the freshman squad last year.

Erickson applauded McCallum as "a fine shooter" and Rob Johnson as "a great jumper." But he saved his most lavish praise for the 6-foot-4 Franklin, a hometown product who started all 24 games for Wisconsin as a sophomore last year.

The coach called Franklin "one of the finest players in the Big Ten" and said the Madison Central stringbean had the potential to become "one of our all-time greats" by the time he graduates.

Franklin the team in rebounds in a 11-13 season last winter and was second in scoring with an 11.8 average. Carlin hit at a 10.3 clip.

4 Starters Back

Cincinnati, the defending Missouri Valley Conference champions, will greet the Badgers with four starters back from a team that was ranked seventh in the nation last year. Since then the Bearcats also have picked up a 6-foot-9 sophomore center, Erickson said.

"This is one of the most difficult tasks I've had as a coach," he said, "to take a squad of 15 men, seven of them sophomores, and play a potential national champion in our opening game."

Cincinnati will be followed by a road trip to Bowling Green Dec. 10, Iowa State at home Dec. 13, the Milwaukee Classic Dec. 16-17, and the Big Ten opener at Illinois Dec. 19.

Erickson tabbed Illinois and Michigan State as co-favorites in the Big Ten. The Illini will join Wisconsin in the eight-team field for the Los Angeles Classic Dec. 27-30, where the Badgers will face top-ranked UCLA in the opening round.

"This is one thing about sophomores," said Erickson. "They don't understand danger. We're playing UCLA. My sophomores think that's great."

Curtis Cokes Successfully Defends Title

Uses Long Reach, Height Advantage To Beat Josselin

DALLAS (AP) — Curtis Cokes, the thin brown panther of the ring, successfully defended his world welterweight crown against short-armed Jean Josselin Monday night, then looked toward a title bout with lightweight champion Carlos Ortiz, who wants to move up.

Norm Levinson, promoter for the Dallas All-Sports Association, pointed to a $55,000 gate and 5,800 attendance for the Cokes-Josselin fight and said he wanted very much to stage a Cokes-Ortiz scrap in Dallas.

Josselin never had a chance against the superior height and reach of Cokes, 29-year-old Dallas Negro with a goatee. Cokes piled up the points with a vicious jab, a wicked left hook and thunderous uppercuts.

Took a Beating

Josselin, a Frenchman who is already in motion, was praised for his courage and durability but he really took a one-sided beating.

Judge Nat Fleischer of New York had Cokes by seven points and Judge Morris Fair of Dallas had Cokes ahead by 10. Referee Dick Cole of Dallas gave it to Cokes by 13 points and The Associated Press saw it by 11 points for Cokes.

The little man from Besancon, France, had a bloody face from the ninth round on and owes Cokes a cleaning bill. Most of the blood seemed to be on Cokes' trunks.

But there was nothing resembling a knockdown and the only complaint of any kind came from George Kanter, American representative of the non-English speaking Frenchman.

Broke Too Much

Kanter claimed the referee broke the fighters too much, complaining:

"He wouldn't let us work inside. That was our fight. Josselin got discouraged."

Cokes now is champion of the world everywhere except California. The World Boxing Association recognizes him; Texas, which isn't a member of the WBA, recognizes him; The New York State Athletic Commission does the same, and Ring Magazine also acclaims him king of the welters.

and placed on the disqualified list again in 1964 after another hassle.

"I don't know what happened; I wasn't around," Houston manager Grady Hatton said. "But I've known Belinsky for a long time. He doesn't drink, and he doesn't smoke. So what if he likes girls. Who doesn't?

"He attracts attention wherever he goes, and he gets publicity. I'm sure the Mamie Van Doren thing helped give him the image he has, and the incident with the baseball writer did too. But he keeps himself in shape; that's what counts."

Belinsky wasn't in very good shape this past season, posting an 0-2 record with Philadelphia and a 2-4 mark at San Diego of the Pacific Coast League, where he was hampered by an ankle injury.

Not Concerned

Hatton, however, was not concerned about his poor season.

"I've said all along Houston needs a left-handed pitcher," the manager explained. "All our reports on Belinsky are good. He's pitching winter ball at Laguira in Venezuela, and our manager down there says he's throwing the heck out of the ball and behaving himself.

"We're goint to gamble on him. I'll put him in the bullpen because I want to try and go with my young pitchers. But I told him if one of the guys doesn't do well, he'll get a chance to be our fifth starter.

"I just talked to him, and he was very happy. His exact words were, 'I can win. I can help your ball club.' He's very happy to come with us."

While the Pirates also were pleased to acquire Pizarro, they hope they aren't finished trying to strengthen themselves for another pennant thrust next year.

Mota Prime Bait

Their prime bait for another deal is outfielder Manny Mota, who hit .332 while playing part-time. They aren't about to give up any regulars unless they get something better in return, a point Walker emphasized.

"We're still looking around," he said, "but we don't want to upset the applecart. We're not going to give away our strong players such as Clemente and Stargell. They've made us strong, and you don't turn around and get rid of them."

Among the strong players mentioned by Walker was first baseman Donn Clendenon, who has been mentioned prominently as possible trade bait. Walker, however, all but removed Clendenon from the bait box.

Not Offered Him

"At no time has Clendenon been involved in a trade or even mentioned," the manager said. "Other clubs may have asked about him, but we have not offered him to anyone."

The Pirates were one of six teams to pass in all three rounds of the draft. Major League teams selected 23 players for $422,000 while 52 players went in the Minor League draft for $392,000.

Belinsky was the fifth choice in the first round. The Chicago Cubs had first pick and selected outfielder Joe Campbell, who hit .279 with 22 homers and 95 runs batted in for Greenville, S.C., in the Western Carolinas League last season.

The world champion Baltimore Orioles lost three minor leaguers, two to the New York Yankees — first baseman-outfielder Frank Tepedino and catcher Chuck Sands. Both played for Miami of the Florida State League last season with Tepedino batting .288 and Sands .245.

.301 At Bluefield

Houston took a third Baltimore farm hand, outfielder Alonzo Harris, who hit .301 for Bluefield, W.Va., in the Appalachian League.

The Orioles, meanwhile, drafted catcher Larry Johnson, who batted .280 for Toronto of the International League.

Among others drafted were pitcher Ted Abernathy by Cincinnati and shortstop Bart Shirley by the New York Mets.

heat on Tarkenton, the Packer defense, (plus the punt team) had a finger in three of the Pack's four touchdowns. After the Bays took a 7-3 lead, Davis recovered a Tarkenton fumble (the official scorer ruled Ray Nitschke had recovered but Ray himself, and the films revealed that Willie got it) on the Viking 37 and Bart Starr then took the Bays in for a 14-3 score, passing to Jim Taylor for the TD.

Just before the half Herb Adderley partially blocked Bobby Walden's punt and the Bays had possession on the Viking 11. The Bays scored two plays later on Starr's pass to Marv Fleming.

The payoff came in the last two minutes when Adderley intercepted a pass from Tarkenton and returned 13 yards to the Viking 45. Three plays later, Jim Grabowski whirled 33 yards for the TD.

This makes four TDs the defense has set up in the last two games. In the Bear game, in Green Bay, the previous Sunday, Lee Roy Caffey recovered a fumble on the Bear 18-yard line, and six plays later the Bays had a 7-0 lead on Zeke Bratkowski's pass to Carroll Dale.

2 Newcomers Begin NEW Play Tonight

Two new teams — Bay Port and Ashwaubenon — make their debuts as members of the Northeastern Wisconsin Conference tonight.

The NEW basketball race gets under way with these games: Seymour vs. De Pere (at Brown County Arena), Sturgeon Bay at Bonduel, Ashwaubenon at Pulaski, Oconto at Algoma, Bay Port vs. West De Pere and Oconto Falls at Kewaunee.

De Pere and West De Pere are defending co-champions. The top contenders for 1966-7 are expected to be De Pere, Sturgeon Bay, Algoma, Kewaunee and Pulaski.

The league is divided into two divisions this season. Making up the Western sector are Seymour, Bonduel, Pulaski, Bay Port, Oconto and Oconto Falls. Each team plays every other school in its division twice and every team in the other division only once.

Seymour lacks experience, since Jim Danforth is the only returning letterman — and he is recuperating from a football injury. The likely starters will be Jerry Ciesielczy, Jim Anschutz, Gene Danforth, Steve Mory and Dennis Murphy.

Bonduel has three lettermen, but one of these — Dennis Weserfield — is sidelined because of a knee operation. The others are Jack Pitt and Jim Betzner.

New London Starts Against Hortonville '5'

NEW LONDON — Hortonville's Polar Bears will provide the opposition as the New London High School basketball team initiates the season at 8 p.m. today.

This will be the first test of Coach Dave Hendricks' cagers. The Bulldogs have spent a month of preparations.

Four seniors have captured starting berths, and two juniors are fighting for the remaining forward post.

Listed as definite starters are Ted Huber and Rusty Yeager at guards, Bruce Feurig at forward and 6-3 Henry Linke at center.

Either Gary Slosarek or Greg Stern will be the other starting forward. Sure to see a good deal of action are guard Greg Wing and center Chuck Learman.

ND '11' Boosts Poll Margin

MSU Still Second; Alabama Gains Strength in Third

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's Notre Dame by a more solid first-place margin over Michigan State while Alabama is a stronger third in The Associated Press' next-to-last major college football poll of the 1966 season.

The Fighting Irish moved in front by 34 points this week after finishing their season with a smashing 51-0 conquest of Rose Bowl-bound Southern California.

Notre Dame led the second-ranked Spartans by only three points a week ago after the teams battled to a 10-10 tie in Michigan State's final game. The No. 1 and No. 2 teams each finished with a 9-0-1 record.

Alabama, the defending national champion and the only major team with an unbeaten-untied record, trails Notre Dame by 78 points and Michigan State by 44. A week ago, the Crimson Tide was 89 points behind the Irish and 86 behind the Spartans.

Final Poll Set

The Tide rolled over Southern Mississippi 34-0 for their ninth victory last Saturday. The final poll will be taken next week after Alabama completes its regular season by playing Auburn at Birmingham, Ala., this Saturday.

In the latest balloting by a national panel of 52 sports writers and broadcasters, Notre Dame collected 505 points while Michigan State had 471 and Alabama 427.

The Irish were given sole possession of first place by 35 voters while five others put them in a tie for the top spot with Michigan State. The Spartans were given undisputed top ranking by only five voters.

Each team received 10 points on a tie ballot with the rest of the points distributed on the regular basis of 9 for a second place vote, 8 for third 7 for fourth etc. Two selectors placed Notre Dame and Michigan State in a second-place tie while making Alabama No. 1.

The Top Ten, with first place votes in parentheses, season records and total points on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis:

1.	Notre Dame (40) 9-0-1	505
2	Michigan State (10) 9-0-1	471
3.	Alabama (7) 9-0-0	427
4	Georgia 9-1-0	336
5.	UCLA 9-1-0	286
6.	Nebraska 9-1-0	203
7.	Purdue 8-2-0	194
8	Georgia Tech 9-1-0	159
9.	Miami, Fla. 7-2-1	62
10	Southern Methodist 8-2-0	45

Others receiving votes, listed alphabetically: Arkansas, Army, Colorado State U., Florida, Houston, Miami of Ohio, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Oregon State, Southern California, Syracuse, Tennessee, Virginia Tech, Wyoming.

Denies Feud With Mitchell

Otto Graham 'Didn't Want to Run Score Up'

WASHINGTON (AP) — If he had an opportunity to call the play again, Washington coach Otto Graham said Monday, he would not have ordered a field goal against New York with his team leading 69-41 and only seconds to go.

"I didn't want to run the score up," he said. "That's not my philosophy. But that's what it looks like."

Charlie Gogolak kicked a 29-yard field goal in the waning seconds of the ballgame which permitted the Redskins to break the National Football League's regular-season scoring record.

Graham offered this explanation at a news conference Monday:

Not Aware of Record

"Sending Charlie in was just a reaction to everybody around me." I wasn't aware of the record, and that wouldn't have meant anything anyway. I'm not interested in records, only winning ball games.

"There was time for only one play, and everybody around me was yelling 'Field goal. Field goal.'

"So I just told the field goal kicking team to go in. Charlie had missed two attempts the week before and he hadn't had a chance to kick one in this game, so I thought he could have some practice.

"But as the team set up for the field goal, I began to think about it and realized that everybody would think I was trying to rub it in.

"If I had a chance to think about it, I probably wouldn't have sent the field goal team in. I made a mistake. I shouldn't have gone for it."

Graham denied also there is any feud between himself and flanker Bobby Mitchell who did not get into Sunday's game until late in the third quarter.

"Everybody is trying to make a big thing out of it," said Graham. "He was not benched because he dropped a touchdown pass against Cleveland. That's a silly idea.

"He was benched mainly because we didn't feel he was playing the kind of football we know he is capable of. He wasn't blocking.

"Bobby has developed bad habits over the years and it's hard to break those habits. And we thought it was hurting our running attack."

"Sometimes it takes drastic action to get a job done."

When Mitchell was inserted into the game, it was mainly as a running back. Mitchell carried twice for 54 yards, including a 45-yard touchdown.

Wills Placed On Trade Block

Dodgers Unhappy Over Shortstop's Actions During Tour

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Los Angeles Dodgers said today they have placed shortstop Maury Wills in the trade mart partly — if not primarily — because he left the club during a tour of Japan.

"I don't know yet whether Wills will be traded," said Buzzie Bavasi, the Dodgers' general manager, "but if anybody makes a reasonable offer then, of course, Wills would be one of the first we would trade."

Asked if Wills' failure to remain with the Dodgers during the recently completed exhibition tour of Japan had anything to do with the decision, Bavasi said:

"It's partly due to what Wills did."

What Wills did was leave the Dodgers early in the tour after being refused permission to do so by Walter O'Malley, the Dodgers' president. However, Wills said he needed medical attention for his right knee.

In discussing Wills and the Dodgers' decision, Bavasi said he had spoken with O'Malley Monday night and they had decided to make Wills available.

Bavasi revealed that he already had told three clubs that Wills was available — the New York Yankees, Minnesota Twins and Atlanta Braves.

Bavasi, however, indicated there haven't been any firm offers that would make a deal imminent.

During the 1962 season, Wills stole 104 bases. But last season, hampered by his leg injury, the 34-year-old shortstop stole only 38 bases and was caught stealing 24 times.

Nine Trojans Ineligible for Rose Bowl Tilt

NCAA Ruling Bars Junior College Transfer Students

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Southern California Trojans have that fortunate deep feeling this season.

After being rolled over, 51-0, Saturday by powerful Notre Dame, Southern Cal suffered another jolt Monday—nine Trojans who transfered to USC from junior colleges won't play against Purdue in the Rose Bowl Jan. 2.

An NCAA rule prohibits bowl participation by students who don't have at least 48 junior college academic units or a B average in at least 24 units.

The Trojans started the football season with 28 transfers, and school officials were afraid perhaps half might be declared ineligible. Coach John McKay sounded optimistic, though.

"When you get into this," he said Monday, "you'll find we're not hurting as badly as it might look."

Of the nine players lost, only three have been key performers — split end Ron Drake, safety Mike Battle and punter Dick Hough.

The Pacific-8 champions have luckily been strong—and deep—in the backfield, however.

Fine Depth

To replace Drake, the Pacific-8's second-ranking pass catcher, McKay will call on flanker Rod Sherman, fourth in league receiving, and halfback Jim Lawrence will take Sherman's flanker spot.

"It will be no problem for him," McKay said of Sherman's switch to split end. "That's probably where the pros will play him anyway."

Mike Hunter, last year's safetyman, will take Battle's place, and Lawrence will do the punting.

"He was our best punter anyway," said McKay of Lawrence, "but we couldn't use him early in the season because of a leg injury. Jim is a more experienced kicker than Hough."

With Lawrence going to flanker, Don McCall and Steve Grady, both strong runners, will take over the tailback chores.

The other six ruled ineligible are fullback Dan Scott, linebacker Steve Swanson, offensive tackle Dennis Born, safety Earl McCullouch and defensive tackle Mike Taylor, all second stringers, and center Bill Adams, a third stringer.

Pitts Attains Personal Highs In Rushing

Elijah Starts Feeling the Bumps More as Regular

GREEN BAY — Elijah Pitts sat in the whirlpool while his 3-year-old son, Ronnie, sat on a stool nearby eating a sandwich.

The sandwich was all that was left in his lunch box . . . "he comes to work with me on Mondays," Pitts beamed. "so his mother packs a lunch . . . for me, too."

While Ronnie took off for the gridiron (the green carpeted floor of the dressing room), Elijah repeated "Man, this feels good," referring to the whirling water that quietly works those aching muscles.

"It takes a while to get used to playing all the time and you start feeling those bumps more. This (the whirlpool) helps but the best thing is the warmup on Tuesday. I don't ache a bit after Tuesday."

We remarked that it'll get worse as you get older and Pitts grinned, "I'm 27 already. It doesn't seem like I've been here six years."

Pitts' first year with the Packers was 1961 and his current action is his first as a regular starter. He has started every game since Paul Hornung was hurt in the third quarter of the Bear game in Chicago Oct. 16. He played behind Hornung and Tom Moore in his first five years.

Elijah has rushed 87 times for 302 yards and six touchdowns this season and those are all season highs for him. He twice had 54 carries in a single season — 1965 and 1963. He rushed 23 times in '61, 22 in '62 and 27 in '64.

Orioles to Raise Prices on Some Tickets in 1967

BALTIMORE (AP) — The world champion Baltimore Orioles, facing a record payroll for 1967, said today they would raise the price on box seats at Memorial Stadium and change the price structure on reserved seats for the 1967 baseball season.

The Orioles will open the season at home against the Minnesota Twins on Tuesday, April 11.

Executive Vice President Frank Cashen informed season ticket holders the 1966 prices were the lowest in the major leagues.

"Conversely," he said, "our 1966 player pay roll was the highest in Oriole history, and in all candidness, we expect the 1967 one to be even higher."

For a starter, outfielder Frank Robinson, the American League's Most Valuable Player, has indicated he may seek $100,000 next season compared with an estimated $68,000 for 1966.

Box seat prices will be hiked from $2.90 to $3.25. The first 10 rows of reserved seats behind the boxes will be $2.50 instead of $2.20, but more than half of the downstairs reserve seats will be reduced to $2.

Upper deck reserved seats will be increased to 1.50. There will be no change in the cost of the $1.20 general admission or 75 cent bleacher seats.

Ban Won't Last Long, Says Halas

Writers Roast Bears After Being Barred From Club's Dressing Room

CHICAGO AP) — Some of this city's sports writers, usually a cool lot, were in a boil Monday after Chicago Bear football players voted to bar newsmen from their dressing room.

The Bears' action, which owner-coach George Halas declared "won't last long," came last week after a Chicago newspaper quoted defensive end Ed O'Bradovich as saying the Bear offense lost the game to Green Bay.

O'Bradovich denied making the statement and then the team voted to bar newsmen. They were denied admission to the dressing room for the first time after the Bears defeated the Atlanta Falcons 23-6 Sunday.

Brent Musburger of Chicago's American said:

". . . any football team that was supposed to win a championship and now has a 4-5-2 record to show for its efforts should feel honored that anybody would want to talk to its players at all.

'In Absolute Privacy'

"If athletes don't want to be quoted and interviewed after their games, then they should play their contests in absolute privacy. The Chicago Bears happen to belong to Chicago, and any bloke who scrapes up the $5 to watch them muddle around on a Sunday afternoon is a shareholder — however small — in their franchise. The reporters are nothing more than the leg men between stockholders and management.

"They ask tough questions, not because they particularly want or like to, but because they're paid to ask them. The reader wants to know why things fail — as they have failed for the Bears all season."

Ray Sons of the Chicago Daily News:

". . . the sin was this: One of our number let out a state secret. He says he heard it from the lips of Ed O'Bradovich. . . . Instead of keeping his information sealed in his bosom or confiding it only to his wife or confessor, the writer rushed into print with it.

"He told the world at large that O'Bradovich had let it slip that the Bears have a lousy offense this season. This, of course, never would have come to light if that writer had not heard Ed expose it."

Tom Fitzpatrick, Chicago Daily News:

"The Bears are brooding in their den. They have shut themselves off from all contact with the outside world. Sportswriters have proven themselves untrustworthy.

"The only people the Bears will talk to freely after games from now on are the bartenders at The Cottage (a restaurant-lounge).

At least that is where at least a half dozen of them ran with their troubles.

Howie Odell in Running for UW Grid Job

besides Coatta and McGee, were Deral Teteak, Roger French, Harland Carl, Les Ritcherson and LaVern Van Dyke.

Former Badger Star

McGee, French, Carl and Ritcherson are newcomers to the staff this season. Carl also played in Wisconsin's starting backfield with Coatta and the legendary Ameche under Odell in the early 1950s.

Odell met Williamson as a fellow assistant at Yale in 1946, moved on to Temple, and came to Wisconsin in 1949. He was backfield coach for the Badgers for eight years, then compiled a 37-26 record in seven years at Bucknell.

Penn had a 2 - 7 mark this season to give Odell a 6-11-1 record for his two years in his present job.

Navarro, a 1953 Maryland grad, joined the Williams staff as freshman coach in 1956 and became head coach in 1963. He has lost no more than two games in any of the last three seasons and has an over - all record of 21-11 at Williams.

Navarro, asked if he was contacted about the Wisconsin job, answered, "I applied."

Coatta, a 1951 Wisconsin grad as is Carl returned to campus as assistant coach a year ago amid reports he would be an understudy in waiting to Bruhn. He handled the backfield last year and the defense this season.

McGee, a 1959 Duke product, reportedly has impressed Williamson strongly in his one year at Wisconsin.

Gene Flunker, John Schaefer Wallop 608s

Gene Flunker fired a 608 series, and Mike Dorow hit a 599 for the top performances in the Trinity Couples League at 41 Bowl Sunday night.

John Schaefer's 608 threesome and Viola Bentle's 243 line paced the South Greenville Grange Couples loop at 41 Bowl. Rip Harder added a 553. Dick Nushart led the Cereal Couples at Village Lanes with a 564 aggregate (including 243).

Vern Nymoen registered a 560 and Alma Peterson hit a 199 in the Football Couples circuit at 41 Bowl. Roger Jansen posted the only honor mark — a 556 — in the Hot Rod Couples at Village Lanes.

In the Junior Women's Couples League, Mike Lucas hit 615 Friday. Wayne Steinberg finished with a 592 trio, and Jim Green hit both men's cut-off points for honors on the nose — a 550 series and a 225 game.

Final Figures May be Even Higher

Estimate 103,000 Deer Taken

MADISON (AP) — Wisconsin hunters took home 103,000 deer —possibly more — during the nine-day season which closed Sunday, the Conservation Department estimated Monday.

The kill estimate, about 4,000 higher than was recorded last year, was based on projected figures from registrations around the state. The deadline for registering deer or bear was 5 p.m. Monday but the department said it may be a week or more before final figures from all stations are in.

Pre - season estimates has placed the kill at 100,000 to 110,000.

The southern zone showed a 20 per cent increase over last year in the number of deer taken. The east-central area also had a 20 per cent hike or higher, while the northwest region had an 8 per cent increase and the northeast area about 5 per cent.

Low Pressure

The Mississippi River counties showed a 65 per cent drop, due to a straight buck season and low hunting pressure, while the remainder of the west-central area showed registrations up 14 per cent.

The fact that woods were snowless and visibility poor apparently had more effect in the north, where gunners try to track down their deer, officials said. In the southern half of the state, where hunting pressure was heavy, deer are more often driven to waiting guns.

More bucks with big racks were noted in the northeast and east - central counties, possibly because hunters were better able to penetrate swampy areas this season.

A department spokesman said 176 bears were reported taken, indicating a total kill close to last season's 252.

'Peanuts' Lowery Joins Giant Coaching Staff

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Harry (Peanuts) Lowery was named Monday to the coaching staff of the San Francisco Giants baseball club.

Lowery, a native of Los Angeles, played 13 seasons as an outfielder with Chicago's Cubs, Cincinnati, St. Louis and Philadelphia. After managing in the minors, he has coached recently in the majors and was with the Phillies during the 1966 season.

Chiefs Hold Offensive Lead in AFL

Western Division Champions Rank Third on Defense

NEW YORK (AP) — Mike Garrett and Pete Beathard, the shock troops in Kansas City's potent offensive brigade, have kept the Chiefs rolling in the American Football League's statistical war.

Garrett and Beathard, former backfield stars at Southern California, came up with clutch performances against New York last Sunday as the Chiefs nailed the AFL's Western Division title and held their league offensive lead.

Beathard, filling in for injured quarterback Len Dawson in the second half, completed seven of 10 passes for 68 yards and ran for another 10 yards. Garrett, a top contender for AFL rookie honors, went all the way at halfback in the absence of injured Bert Coan, gaining 50 yards rushing and 81 more on pass receptions.

Amass 439 Yards

With Dawson accounting for 260 yards passing before injuring his left hand and Curt McClinton adding 49 rushing yards, the chiefs amassed 439 yards in all, 72 more than their current league-leading per-game average.

Kansas City has averaged 149 yards rushing and 218 passing, according to official AFL figures released today. The Chiefs are the top running team and rank third, behind New York and Oakland, in passing.

Wolf Planners Aim At April '68 Zoning

Schedule Eight Sessions to Review Unincorporated Area Ordinances

Zoning programs for unincorporated areas of the Wolf River Basin Regional Planning Commission's eight member counties probably will be completed by April, 1968, according to planning officials.

Meetings have been scheduled for early December with Outagamie and Winnebago County zoning authorities to review possible changes and updating of existing ordinances.

A major factor in drawing up the set of ordinances is the state's new water law, Chapter 614. The law stipulates that counties must zone lands within 1,000 feet of lakes and 300 feet from river and stream banks by Jan. 1, 1968. If counties do not comply with the requirement, the state may initiate such zoning.

Changes Minor

Only minor changes are anticipated to update Outagamie County's ordinance, commission spokesman said.

Other counties' zoning ordinances, however, probably will undergo extensive change as the commission review proceeds.

Carl Mailahn, Winnebago County zoning administrator, will work with commission members to develop recommendations which will be submitted to county committees in January of next year.

In Langlade County, a newly-proposed zoning ordinance will receive final review Dec. 20, before it is opened to public hearings. The ordinance is planned to be offered for county board approval early in 1967.

Schedule Reviews

Comprehensive zoning ordinance reviews also are being held in Shawano and Forest counties. The program will be initiated in Waupaca, Waushara and Menominee counties between March and July, 1967.

The zoning programs under review by the commission deal only with unincorporated areas but commission officials said they will, upon request, assist any community in the eight county area in starting a zoning program.

PSC Reopens Case of Truck Service Plan

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — At the request of the Olson Transportation Co. of Green Bay, the Wisconsin Public Service Commission (PSC) has reopened a case involving the proposed extension of service in Winnebago County by the Gateway Transportation Co. of LaCrosse.

Additional hearings will be held on the order of last October which permitted the LaCrosse firm to include state 110 between Oshkosh and State 116, and State 116 between 110 and Winneconne, on its service routes.

Nomination Papers Ready At City Hall

Friday is the first day for taking out nomination papers for the 1967 spring election, City Clerk Elden Broehm reminded today.

They can be obtained at his office on the main floor of the city hall building.

Appleton residents will elect 10 aldermen and two school board meetings members next spring.

Whether there will be a primary in March will not be known until the Jan. 5 filing date. If three or more persons seek an office, a primary is mandatory.

The council adopted the ordinance last year. For many years Appleton did not hold primary elections.

Board Reluctant on Highway Fund Audit

Buckley Directs Letter Seeking Information To Outagamie County Executive Secretary

Mayor George Buckley of Appleton disclosed today he has information the Outagamie County Board would be "considerably reluctant" to present an audit of county highway department expenditures in the city over the past decade.

However, Buckley said this did not necessarily mean the information would not be forthcoming as requested by Ald. Roy Pointer (14th) and the city council at the meeting two weeks ago.

Pointer was disturbed that the county highway department was apparently using a double standard when it came to secondary highway improvements in the county. He inferred Appleton was not receiving equal treatment on right-of-way purchases, citing the East College Avenue extension

Earlier Policy

Pointer, council president, saw no reason why the city had to buy right-of-way for the secondary link (College Avenue) of the proposed Tri-County Expressway because a small portion would be within the corporate city limits.

He claimed in the past the county highway department made the acquisitions for land within the limits of other communities in the county.

Buckley today sent a letter to Alvin Woehler, executive secretary of the county board, in which he said that Supv. Marvin Babbitt, Seymour, county board vice president, advised him (Buckley) there would be considerable reluctance on the part of board members to react favorably to Pointr's resolution.

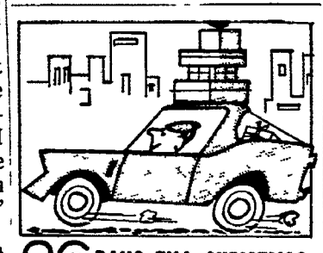

Buckley quoted the last part of the council-adopted resolution, which read: ". . .that the Outagamie County Board audit the county highway committee expenditures for the past 10 years for the purpose of determining the amount of county highway commission funds expended within the corporate limits of Appleton as compared to expenditures outside Appleton."

Letter to Babbitt

Buckley said Babbitt suggested a letter be directed to Woehler in order to obtain the information desired, indicating it would not necessarily take county board action.

"Would you kindly consult with Chariman Esler and Vice Chairman Babbitt on this matter and advise them that I would appreciate receiving the information as suggested in Alderman Pointer's resolution," Buckley wrote Woehler.

A copy of the letter was sent Babbitt.

Town of Two Creeks

WMPC Breaks Ground for $60 Million Nuclear Plant

POINT BEACH — Shovels wielded by power company and local government officials pried loose the frozen ground Monday morning from a windblown knoll on the shore of Lake Michigan where approximately three years from now will stand Wisconsin Michigan Power Co.'s (WMPC) $60-million nuclear power plant.

Monday's ceremony signaled the start of grading and site preparations which company officials say will speed construction of the "space age" plant. Construction crews are scheduled to work at site preparation until some time in January.

Construction activity will begin again in March when a combined work force of approximately 500 masons, electricians and other tradesmen will move in to complete the costly plant.

Site for the nuclear plant is in the Town of Two Creeks, about six miles north of Two Rivers in Manitowoc County.

Company representatives, town and county officials donned hard hats and ear muffs for the first turning of earth. In the background, large earth-moving equipment of the Streu Construction Co. bit into the nearly frozen earth to level the terrain.

Initial digging and site preparation will be directed by R. G. Sieder of Bechtel Corp., project engineer. Westinghouse Electric Corp. will build the nuclear plant for WMPC.

Although construction was scheduled for early next spring, company spokesmen said Monday the earlier preparation will lessen delays next year. The Appleton-headquartered power company's applications for authority and licenses to build the nuclear plant are pending before the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin and the Atomic Energy Commission. The plant is scheduled for completion by April, 1970.

Is Water Reactor

The new plant will be a pressurized water reactor with an initial capacity of 450,000 kilowatts. There are seven similar plants in use. All are nuclear U. S. Navy vessels, including the submarine Nautilus, and aircraft carrier Enterprise.

The annual construction payroll has been estimated at $4 million. After the plant is built, company spokesmen said an operating work force of 60 employes will be needed. The annual operating payroll will be in excess of $500,000.

Alfred Gruhl, president of the power company, said, "Breaking ground at a new location for a major power plant is a very special occasion. It occurs about once every 10 years for most companies."

John G. Quale, vice president and general counsel, John McLean, and John K. Babbitt, assistant vice presidents, also were present at the ceremony.

Other company officials at Point Beach Monday were Glenn A. Reed, superintendent of the nuclear power plant, and Sol Burstein, vice president in charge of power plants for the parent company, Wisconsin Electric Co.

The new nuclear plant will have the largest single generator in Wisconsin but it is not the first to be built in this state. The first, financed in part by the Atomic Energy Commission, has a capacity of 60,000 kilowatts and is located on the Mississippi River in Vernon County. The smaller plant is owned by the Dairyland Power Cooperative.

Appleton Man Dies Of Apparent Heart Attack in Home

C. P. Murphy, 85, 1112 W. Frances St., died unexpectedly at his home about 4:30 a.m. today.

The Appleton Fire Department rescue squad was called to the home and firemen administered oxygen and heart massage until a doctor pronounced Murphy dead. Death was due to an apparent heart attack.

Murphy was found lying on the kitchen floor. He lived with a son, Thomas, for the past 10 years.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Thursday at St. Joseph Catholic Church, Oconto, with burial in the Oconto Catholic Cemetery. The Wichmann Funeral Home was in charge of local arrangements.

Board Seeks 30 Acre Future School Site

Seeks Grand Chute Purchase For Two Additional Facilities

A request to purchase 30 additional acres of the Landyke Addition for a future site of a third high school and an elementary school has been submitted by the board of education in a letter sent Monday to Appleton Mayor George Buckley.

In an original request, dated May 12, 1965, the board requested 12 acres of this property, for an elementary school only. The land was subsequently purchased by the city but has not been apportioned.

The letter states that present population trends indicate a third high school will soon be a necessity and, in reviewing the available sites as they relate geographically to the other two high schools, a total of 40 acres of the property appears to be an appropriate location for a future school.

The property is located northeast of Appleton in the Town of Grand Chute.

Projected Figures

Enrollment figures of the past five years show that the high school enrollment has been increasing by about 200 pupils a year.

"Evidence continues to point to the fact that this growth will be continuing," the letter states, "and by 1975 the high school population will reach a predicted 3,700 pupils."

At that time physical facilities of both AHS-West and AHS-East, now under construction, will be well over the rated pupil capacity of about 1,500 students.

"If a third high school is available in the Landyke Addition area, the 3,700 population could easily be divided among the schools to about 1,200 for the opening of school in September, 1976," the letter states.

Concentric circles indicating a two-mile limit drawn around the present location of Appleton High School East and West show the area in the Huntley Elementary attendance center, a large portion of the Einstein attendance center, the Landyke Addition as well as the old airport, to be beyond the two-mile limit of either of the present high schools.

"Should the members of the council see fit to grant this request, the joint planning for the development of this site with the park board, as has been recommended in the past, would become a reality," the letter states.

Facilities, including tennis courts, softball and baseball diamonds, and other outdoor facilities, could be considered jointly and made available to the community, the letter concludes.

NLRB Upholds Curwood Union Vote Results

Papermakers Now Bargaining Agent at New London Firm

The regional director of the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) has denied the motion of a New London firm for reconsideration of union representation election results.

As a result, the United Papermakers and Paperworkers, AFL-CIO, is recognized as the legal bargaining agent for employes in the work unit at Curwood, Inc.

The vote for the union was 46 to 41 with five ballots challenged, resulting in a request by legal counsel for Curwood, Inc. on Oct. 27 to request a review of the latter.

In reviewing the list of personnel whose ballots were challenged, the NLRB ruled one employe—John T. Allen, son-in-law of the firm's vice president — received treatment and benefits not accorded others in the work unit. He was excluded.

George Squillacote, NLRB regional director, said the facts, evidence and arguments in the case presented no further matter which would warrant reconsideration, and dismissed the Curwood, Inc. petition for reconsideration of the election outcome.

Vehicle Leaves Street, Snaps Off Cedar Tree

NEENAH — A hit and run car left S. Park Avenue early Monday and snapped off an 18 foot cedar tree in front of the Lloyd Patterson residence, 816 S Park Ave.

Police said the vehicle brushed a guy wire and a power pole before crossing the lawn and striking the tree.

Refuse to Predate Requirement Over Suspects' Counsel

MADISON (AP) — The State Supreme Court refused to make retroactive today the requirement that suspects in criminal cases must be offered the opportunity to consult an attorney during police questioning.

The court unanimously upheld the 1964 conviction of Franchie Holloway for conspiracy to rob a Milwaukee bar where he was employed.

It rejected Holloway's argument that the U.S. Supreme Court decision in Escobedo V. Illinois in 1964 should erase Holloway's confession. The justices said Holloway did not prove at his trial that he had asked for legal counsel during questioning.

The state court went on to decide the 1966 decision in Miranda V. Arizona spelling out legal safeguards in the questioning was not retroactive under the U.S. Supreme Court's own rule.

The justices said Holloway did not have to raise an objection to the confession at the time of the trial under the Miranda decision in order to appeal later, but said it made no difference in Holloway's case since the decision didn't apply to him.

Minor Damage Listed

A chimney fire brought Appleton firemen to the Norman Schimmelpfenning home, 212 S. Douglas St., at 10:12 a.m. Monday. Damage was minor.

Appleton Man Pleads Guilty of 21 Burglaries

Judge Orders Pre-Sentence Investigation; Martin Huspek in Jail Under $16,000 Bond

Martin O. Huspek, 21, 426½ S. Story St., charged following investigation by Appleton and Outagamie County authorities, late this morning pleaded guilty of 21 burglaries in five counties during July and August.

Huspek appeared in Circuit Court with his court-appointed attorney. Circuit Judge Andrew W. Parnell ordered a pre-sentence investigation and did not set a date for sentencing. Huspek was returned to jail in lieu of posting bonds totaling $16,000.

He had been bound over to Circuit Court following initial appearances in Outagamie County Court Branch 2.

Pleads Guilty

Huspek pleaded guilty of three burglaries in Appleton July 16 and 17. Included were the Moose Club, Johnson's Service Station, 1725 S. Oneida St., and Weber and Persons Inc., 1131 N. Badger Ave.

Outagamie County burglaries Aug. 16 and 17 were at R and R Lanes, Black Creek, and Chuck's Service Station and U-Save Grocery at Seymour.

Huspek had petitioned for consolidation of 15 burglary counts in Brown, Calumet, Manitowoc and Winnebago counties.

Lists Burglaries

Five of the Brown County burglaries occurred in Green Bay July 31.

Included were United Rent-All, Fox Valley Realty, Mayhugh Insurance Agency, Econo-Care Cleaners, George's Sinclair Service and Cliff's Instant Car Wash.

Appleton Asked to Adopt Ordinance

Campaign Begins to Cut Car Thefts

Should the City of Appleton adopt a model ordinance regulating unattended vehicles?

Mayor George Buckley has asked Police Chief Earl O. Wolff to give his opinion after being contacted by the United States Conference of Mayors.

The conference is inviting cities throughout the country to participate in a national lock-your-car campaign to reduce car thefts which have been mounting sharply in the crime charts.

The national campaign will be launched in March of 1967.

In addition to participating, the Conference of Mayors suggested the mayor and council give serious consideration to the enactment of lock-your-car legislation.

Wolff said today that car thefts are increasing in Appleton.

Increase in Appleton

While thefts mount, Wolff noted, the police department has had almost 100 per cent success in recoveries.

"It means these cars are being stolen in the city mostly for joyriding purposes," Wolff remarked.

He recalled one youth admitted stealing an estimated 15 cars over a period of several weeks, abandoning them after they ran out of gasoline.

"Our records show these cars for the most part were left unlocked by their owners," Wolff added." In fact, several left the key in the ingition."

Authorities look at leaving keys in cars as an invitation for young people to "borrow" them for a joyride.

The criminal division of the U. S. Justice Department is coordinating the national auto theft prevention campaign.

Mayor Buckley was informed if Appleton participated, there would be several cooperating agencies assisting in "getting the word out to the public."

Records compiled by Lt. Robert Lathrop disclosed that in 1965 there were 84 car thefts in Appleton. Owners in 67 instances admitted leaving keys in the car while 10 others had automatic ignitions turned on.

Serious Crime

To date this year, 60 cars have been stolen locally with 40 thefts attributed to keys being in the ignition and 10 others to the ignition key being turned on.

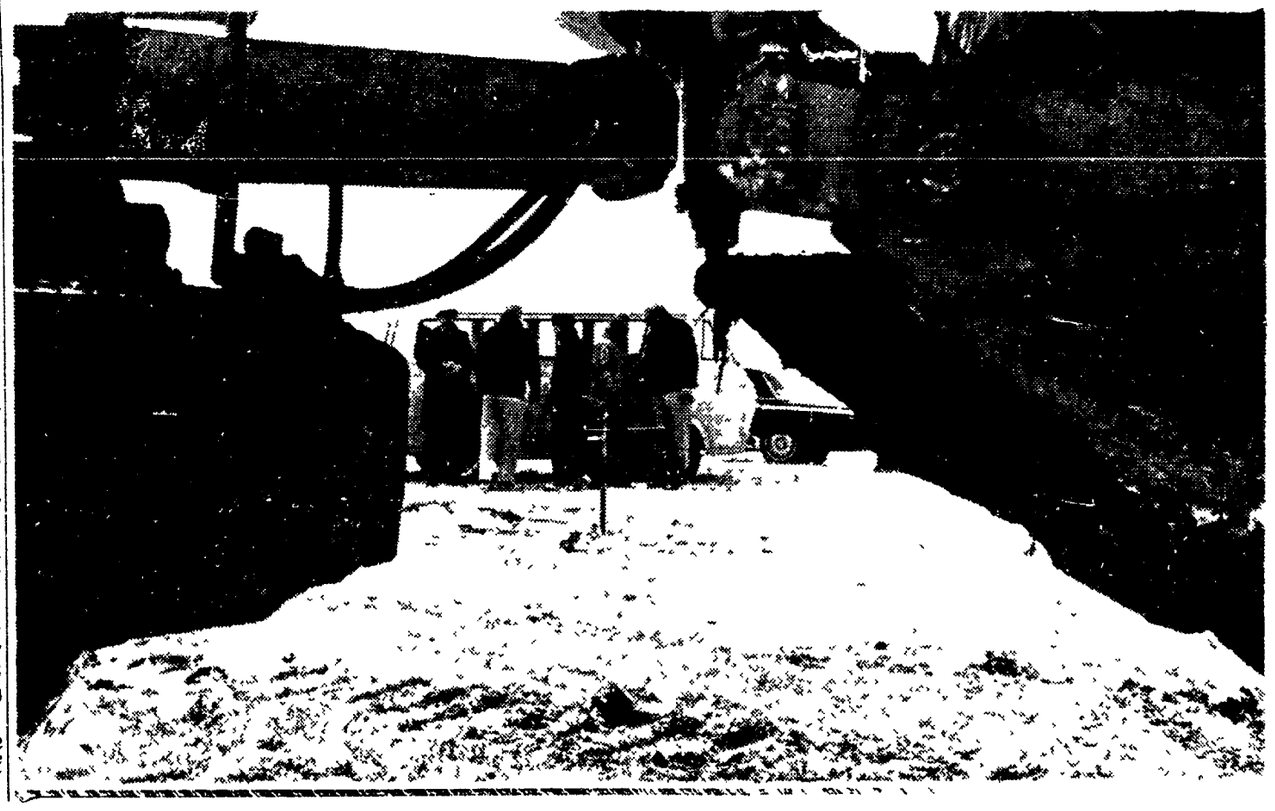

The Justice Department says auto theft is one of the country's most serious crime problems for at least four reasons:

—It is the third most committed felony in the country, ranks second only to burglary in financial loss with a half million vehicles stolen in 1965, a 5 per cent increase over 1964.

—More than 50 per cent of all auto thefts are committed by youths under 18 years of age.

—Auto theft constitutes a major menace to highway safety because of the driver's unfamiliarity with the car he's driving.

—Car theft frequently is the first step in the commission of more serious crimes.

Still $4.85 Hike

Neenah Tax Rate Trimmed by $1.83

NEENAH — With the deadline for completing budgets staring them in the face, Neenah councilmen managed Monday to pare another $1.83 from the large tentative city tax rate increase.

By agreeing to pay for $260,000 in sewer construction through a bond issue — in effect spreading the payment over 20 years — the tax rate was reduced from $29.71 to $27.88.

The committee of the whole session of the council also yielded other minor cuts amounting to a couple cents on the tax rate, but the final increase over last year's $23.02 tax rate is still some $4.85.

More Changes

This figure will be subject to further trimming by the aldermen in budget sessions today, Wednesday and Thursday, but salaries of city employes, including the policemen and firemen, could still substantially increase the final tax rate.

The budget process started with departmental requests amounting to a $31.57 gross tax rate.

The reductions so far principally have been 15 cents through a small cutback in the school budget, an increased state sales tax refund for relief of personal and real estate property taxes amounting to $1.73, and the $1 83 saved by going to a bond issue for the sewer construction next year.

If the present $4.85 increase in the tax rate is not reduced further by the councilmen, it will represent approximately a 21 per cent increase in local taxes.

That means that a man with a $300 tax bill now will be paying $63 more in 1967.

The councilmen still have to meet with the police and fire departments, the park and recreation board and the library board. The deadline for the rough draft of the budget is Thursday if City Clerk R. V. Hauser is to have the final version ready for a public budget hearing on Dec. 13.

Several other significant changes were mentioned in the three-hour session, one the possible increase of aldermanic salaries from $90 to $100 per month for a $1,200 annual total.

Another was the possibility of redistributing portions of some city costs to the school district budget

The possibility of slicing the Dutch Elm disease control budget was also raised, but aldermen agreed that even if DDT spraying were not conducted next spring, the sanitation cost of removing dead trees would still necessitate the requested $21,500.

Another major item left for the whole council to decide was whether to hire another city nurse at a salary of some $6,100.

Mayor Won't Run, but Raps Manager Form

Carl Loehning Will Retire Atfer Third Term in Neenah

NEENAH — Mayor Carl Loehning declared Monday he wouldn't be interested in another term as mayor but didn't feel Neenah should go for the city manager form of government

Loehning said that after his third term as head of city government ends in 1968, he was "going to take it easy."

He said there were some "good men" who would be qualified for the position "but not at $8.400 a year."

Mayor Loehning questioned the wisdom of the city manager - council operation of a city at a preliminary discussion on the subject by Mrs. Michael Sacher and Mrs Richard Auchter of the Neenah-Menasha League of Women Voters in the Neenah Club

Loehning, Menasha Mayor Kenneth Holmes, Oshkosh city manager Angus Crawford and Veldor Kopitzke, an economist from the Fox Valley University Center, will discuss the pros and cons of the two forms of city government at a dinner sponsored by the LWV at Ridgeway Country Club at 8 p m today.

The Neenah mayor, who has been active in Neenah government for 20 years as an alderman and mayor, insisted that a person who is born and raised in a community would have more knowledge and interest in the city than would a city manager who was hired from outside of the municipality.

He questioned how an "outsider" could make good appointments to positions when he wouldn't know the people of the community and pointed out that recent changes by city managers showed many were looking for the most money for their services.

Mrs. Sacher said the manager wouldn't immediately change the department heads but the changes would come gradually when he comes to know the city officials and receives the advice of council members. She said one of the major advantages is that the city manager isn't personally involved in politics

'Never Involved'

"The mayor is never involved in politics," Loehning said with a smile.

"Is Anyone There? Is anyone there? One rap for yes, two raps for no." And so appears the ghost of Elvira in Noel Coward's "Blithe Spirit," to be presented at 8:15 p.m. Friday and Saturday at Appleton High School West. Rehearsing the scene are, from left, Mary Berryman, William Jones, Nan Retson, Patti Jurgensen and Steve Kunstman. Marcia Mendels will be Elvira. Neenah Joint District

Menasha Town to Vote No on School Budget

MENASHA — Town Chairman Roland Kampo asked for and received town board support to balk at the record Neenah school budget.

The board "definitely" went on record opposing the $4.11 million budget proposed by the Neenah Joint School District for 1967. Some $31,500 had been shaved from the expenditures last Wednesday at a meeting of Neenah councilmen and town chairmen.

Supv. Robert Wisner said he couldn't approve "something like that" and Supv. Frederick Miller added the school budget was "way, way, way off."

More Per Room

Kampo questioned the costs of minor items in the budget but held his position that if cuts are to be made, they'll have to come about by placing more children in a classroom

"The only solution is to put more kids in the rooms," he declared. Kampo added the state allowed 35 pupils per classroom and the Neenah system should approach this number

Kampo's no vote won't be strong enough to upset the Neenah school budget approval. The Town of Menasha has only 182 of 1,030 votes in the district. The city of Neenah contains 67.7 per cent of the equalized value of the district and thus holds 699 votes. Each alderman controls nearly 70 votes

The board went a little easier with the Menasha school budget Kampo said he felt another $20,000 or $30.000 could be cut, but wanted to see how the Menasha aldermen felt before making a definite stand for the town.

Other Action

In other action, the town board okayed the sending of another open letter to the townsmen describing school budget hearings, a proposed sanitary district for the west side of Little Lake Butte des Morts and the spring elections. Some 2,200 homes will receive a copy of the letter sometime this week.

The board directed a letter to Sanitary District 4 advising the commission that it would be financially responsible if culverts weren't changed in certain parts of the town.

The pumping of sewage from a small area on the Appleton city limits, contained in Sanitary District 2. will be switched to Sanitary District 4 starting Dec. 1. The area previously had been serviced by the Appleton system but applied in early 1965 to be included in the town system.

Clerk Robert Jacobs was given authorization to appoint his wife as deputy clerk. The state statutes allow the clerk to appoint his own deputy but Jacobs asked for board approval before acting. The deputy clerk will perform the prescribed duties in the absence of the regular clerk.

Menasha Council Asks Board Again to Cut School Budget

BY CLIFF MILLER
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

MENASHA — Having raised its trimmings of the general city budget to $125,000 Monday night, the finance committee has handed the knife to the school board, demanding that the total slice taken from the school budget be raised to $150,000.

If city and school officials decide they are unable to reduce the two budgets by more than the combined total of $275,000, property taxes would take a $5 76 jump over the current rate per $1,000 assessed valuation

The total tax levy would come to about $2,470,000 and the tax rate after deducting state credits would be $46.86.

The committee dropped another $24,520 from the 1967 budget proposal for city purposes in a series of quick whacks recommended by Finance Chairman Ernest Koerner. It was understood the items had been marked for deletion in a meeting held Friday night.

The school budget had already been reduced by some $109,000. In addition, the finance committee showed the school board last week where another $15,000 could be removed Of this, the school board agreed to take out $10,880 Monday night in a meeting held separately from the finance committee session.

8.7 Per Cent

The total school budget was originally set at $1 7 million for operating expenses A reduction of $150,000 would represent about 8 7 per cent of the original proposal.

General city spending had initially been proposed at more than $2 5 million, not counting county and state property taxes raised by the city. The $125,000 represents about 5 per cent of the original proposal

More Firemen, Police

After Koerner had read off the list of proposed reductions in the city budget and had won the tentative approval of the committee and several other aldermen present, there began a brief and futile search for other areas where spending might be reduced

A recommendation to hire a new police officer and three new firemen at a total cost of $21,000 was questioned by Ald. William Erickson but quickly batted down by Mayor Kenneth Holmes, with the support of other aldermen Holmes contended the additional men were needed to increase the fire department by one man per shift.

PSC Hearing at Appleton on Two Utility Requests

MADISON — Another major electrical power interconnection in the Fox River Valley has been proposed in a plan for two transmission lines between the municipal electric systems of the cities of Kaukauna and Menasha filed with the public service commission

The commission has announced that it will review the proposal, involving an estimated expenditure of about $1,490,000 for the two communities, at a public hearing in the county courthouse at Appleton on January 5

At the same time the state regulatory agency will hear testimony on the plan of the city of Kaukauna to build a new steam generating plant. with auxiliary facilities, at a cost of about $4,200,000, according to preliminary estimates.

The interconnection project will involve the construction of two transmission lines, each about 13 5 miles long, that will tie the two cities together, along with their associated sub-station facilities

On Schwarzbauer Zoning

High Court Dismisses Town Appeal of Ruling by Sitter

Special to The News Record

MADISON — The Wisconsin Supreme Court today slapped down an appeal by the Town of Menasha of a ruling by the Winnebago County Court.

The high court quashed the appeal which was filed by Town Attorney Everett Stecker after County Judge James V. Sitter quashed his writ of certiorari suit attempting to force the city to review the zoning of the recently annexed Schwarzbauer property.

Sitter quashed the writ suit, ruling that it had been improperly addressed to the city clerk rather than to the city's governing body, the common council.

City Attorney Richard Steffens has argued the whole suit is moot since the city now owns the land and can zone it any way it pleases. The high court gave strong weight to this argument.

The action of the court ends one of the longstanding suits involving the city and the town. Three others remain to be decided.

The city had initially rejected a residential plat on the ground that the Town of Menasha had not appointed three members of the extra territorial zoning commission.

Justice E Harold Hallows, writing for the court, noted that last August the city acquired the land by purchase and that the Schwarzbauers are no longer interested in the approval

The appeal of the Town if Menasha remained before the court, and the town insisted that it is an agrieved party.

Hallows said the court does not usually rule on matters that have become "moot." meaning that the determination sought cannot have any practical effect upon a controversy at law.

He said the former owners, and the city as present owner, do not now want the plat to be approved. Even if the plat were ordered to be approved, there is no requirement in the law and the court cannot order that it be recorded by the owner so as to govern its later use, the opinion said.

The opinion added that although the town wants the land validly zoned for residential use in order to prevent its use for an industrial purpose for which it was bought by the city. "that is not sufficient reason for this court to decide a subsidiary question thereto in view of its mootness "

Court Grants $98,000 in Damages

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — The State Supreme Court today approved about $98,000 as a damage award to Leo Reinke, Forest Junction, victim of a Calumet County three-car collision nearly five years ago.

In an opinion written by Justice Bruce Beilfuss, the court held that Reinke is entitled to most of the unusually high award because his injuries were serious enough to make his future earning capacity doubtful, but cut the indemnity ordered by the lower court by about $2,300.

Most of the reduction involved the disapproval of a claim of Mrs. Reinke for nursing services claimed she rendered to her injured husband.

The Reinke's two minor children were riding with them in their auto on State 57 about two miles north of Hilbert and one of them was killed and other occupants of the Reinke car injured. The defendant in the case was John Woltjen, who was found in the trial court proceeding to be 80 per cent negligent.

Some 16 mercury vapor lights with 175 watts, costing $54 each per year, along with 21 400 watt lamps at $78 each per year, are scheduled for installation.

Nine 175 watt lights will ge up on Brighton Beach Road after a petition with 27 signatures was read. Bartlein Court will get three 175 watt lamps and another smaller unit will be installed on Palisades Drive.

Town Residents Can Choose From Libraries

However, Family Use Restricted To One of Three

MENASHA — After the first of the year, Town of Menasha residents will have three libraries from which to borrow books. But townsmen will have to make up their minds which of the three will best suit their needs.

The town board went along with an agreement with the Appleton library where the town would pay $7.82 per card in the Appleton system the first year.

The rate was calculated on the operating budget divided by the cardholders in Appleton alone. The cost per card in succeeding years will be determined on all cardholders in the system, including the Town of Grand Chute and other areas.

Borrowers will be kept on the rolls for three years, the same as offered by the Neenah and Menasha libraries. The town will pick up the cost of the cards in only one library per family. If members of a particular family want to have cards in two or more libraries, they will have to pay the additional costs.

Driver Nabbed After Police Chase, Is Jailed, Fined $750

WAUPACA — Frederick G. Schulz, 25, 2801 Church St., Stevens Point, who crashed his car into two parked vehicles and the Wolf River Oil Co. show room at Fremont Saturday night while attempting to flee from a state patrolman was fined a total of $750 and sentenced to six months in the county jail Monday in Municipal Justice Court.

Schulz pleaded guilty to fleeing to avoid arrest and was fined $300; reckless driving, $200; illegal use of license plates, $50, and hit and run, $200. The six-month jail sentence was mandatory for driving after his driver's license had been revoked. It was his third conviction for driving after revocation.

Schulz was arrested Saturday evening after he was involved in a hit and run accident near Waupaca on U.S. 10. Then, after being stopped by a state patrolman, he fled. Chased at speeds of more than 110 miles per hour, Schulz sideswiped the bridge at Fremont, lost control of his car on a curve and skidded into two parked cars in front of the Wolf River Oil Co. display room.

Schulz said in court Monday that he had been drinking and now realizes that he was wrong in attempting to run away from the police.

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Plate of Presidents! Made With Old Stamps

BY CAPPY DICK

A paper plate, some paste or glue, shellac and some cancelled postage stamps bearing pictures of Presidents of the United States are the materials required to make an interesting Plate of Presidents.

Use a Paper Plate

Collect the stamps from old letters and packages. The pictures of various Presidents appear on certain stamps so watch for them. They can be removed from the paper to which they have been stuck simply by soaking them in water for five or 10 minutes. The water will dissolve the glue that holds the stamp to the paper and it will slide off easily.

Place the wet stamp on a clean surface to dry.

When you have gathered enough stamps to go around the rim of the paper plate as in the picture, glue them in place. Perhaps you can find a magazine or calendar picture of the White House or the capital at Washington, D. C., to cut out and glue to the center of the plate.

After the glue has dried, brush a coat of clear shellac over the plate, including the stamps. Apply a second coat when the first has dried. This will keep the pictures from tearing off.

Use the plate for decorating purposes. A hairpin can be taped to the back so it can be hung from a hook on the wall.

Lesson in English

Words often misused: Do not say, "I feel like I had slept for hours." Say, "I feel AS IF (or AS THOUGH) I had slept for hours."

Often mispronounced: Crux (crucial or critical point). Pronounce to rhyme with "bucks."

Often misspelled: Crevasse (large split in a glacier, a river levee, etc.). Crevice (a narrow crack, as in a wall)

Synonyms: Exhilarate, animate, elate, invigorate, inspirit, gladden, enliven, cheer.

Word study: "Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Today's word: Disparagement; diminution of esteem or standing. "His attempted disparagement of the governor had no effect upon that man's popularity."

Famous Passion Play Coming to Britain

Assailed at First as Anti-Semitic; 2 of 3 Jewish Producers Withdraw

BY GODFREY ANDERSON

LONDON (AP) — Britain will get a chance to see an English-language version of the famed Oberammergau passion play next year despite a row over the fact that a Jewish impresario is presenting it.

Philip Solomon, of Dunedin Theatrical Productions Ltd., who also is executive director of the pirate radio station, Radio Caroline, obtained rights for presenting a shortened version of the play in Britain, Ireland and the United States, along with Vic Lewis and Brian Epstein of Nem Enterprises. All three are Jews. The firm manages Britain's famed pop singing group, the Beatles.

Immediately upon learning of the deal, the Board of Deputies of British Jews strongly condemned any Jew for taking part in such a promotion. The board thus echoed the condemnation of Jews in Germany who had assailed the passion play on the ground it has an anti-Semitic tone.

Solomon Stays

Lewis and Epstein promptly withdrew. Epstein said. "I have withdrawn because I will not give offense to Jewish communities here or anywhere else."

Solomon said he would go ahead with plans to bring the play to England but intended to see there was nothing anti-Jewish in it. There is a clause in his contract with the Germans, he pointed out, "completely ruling out anything anti-Semitic."

But he said he was distressed by the board's reaction.

The producer of the play over here will be Lothar Bock of Munich and the new text of the shortened version, lasting 2½ hours instead of eight, will be compiled in German by Jochen Blume, a German stage and television director. Music will be composed by Herman Thieme.

Will Get Approval

A translator for putting the German text into English has not been named but Solomon says his final version will be submitted in advance to Anglican, Roman Catholic and Jewish religious leaders for approval. John Cardinal Heenan is expected to appoint someone to read the script for him.

Twelve actors will be brought over from Oberammergau, mainly young men who have not previously played leading roles in the play. The part of Christ will be played by an actor from Thiersee, an Austrian town that produces a similar but smaller passion play. The actors will mime to a script taped by English actors.

According to the Roman Catholic weekly, the Universe, negotiations are going forward for later presentation of the English-language version in America.

It originally was planned to open next February at the Hammersmith Odeon movie theater in West London. Now, however, it has been decided the size of the production and its sets make a larger theater necessary. After a week in London, the passion play will tour to Manchester, Liverpool, Glasgow and Dublin.

The Oberammergau passion play was first performed 332 years ago in thanksgiving for the Bavarian village's preservation from plague. It is performed every 10 years and usually about half a million people see it each season. The full play has never been done outside Oberammergau.

Licenseless Driver Jailed

Joseph C. Sauve, 24, Waukegan, Ill., was sentenced to the Outagamie County jail for 60 days and was fined $35 and costs or an additional 14 days in jail Monday morning after he pleaded guilty of speeding and driving after his license was revoked.

Sauve, who appeared in Outagamie County Court Branch 2, was arrested about 6:35 p.m. Saturday by state police on U.S. 41 near County Trunk E. He was charged with speeding 73 miles per hour at night.

Medicare Effective Jan. 1 For Extended Care Costs

Frank M. Donnick, manager of the Appleton Social Security district office, today announced that medicare coverage for extended care facilities will become effective Jan. 1, 1967. He said an extended care facility is a special kind of nursing home, or a part of a hospital or other institution, providing continuous skilled nursing care needed following the acute phase of an illness that required hospitalization.

To be approved for participation in medicare as an extended care facility, the institution must meet special requirements such as round-the-clock skilled nursing care, medical supervision of each patient and an arrangement with a hospital for appropriate transfer of patients. In addition, each approved facility agrees to comply with the Civil Rights Act which prohibits discrimination based on race, color or national origin.

Donnick emphasized that extended care is not the custodial care which many nursing homes provide, nor is it long-term care. Instead, it is relatively short-term skilled care for the recently hospitalized patient who continues to need full-time skilled nursing care.

Helps Pay Bill

He said when a medicare beneficiary is admitted to a participating extended care facility for further treatment of a condition for which he was hospitalized, the hospital insurance program helps pay the bill. Medicare will pay the full cost for the first 20 days and all but $5 per day for 80 additional days in a "spell of illness." A "spell of illness" is a name given to an indefinite period of time and does not refer to any particular illness or injury a patient may have. A patient's "spell of illness" begins the first day after June 30, 1966, that he receives covered inpatient hospital or extended care services. The "spell of illness" ends when the patient has been out of the hospital or extended care facility for 60 consecutive days.

Donnick listed the following conditions for extended care benefits to be payable. —You are hospitalized for a minimum of 3 consecutive days and are discharged after June 30, 1966.

—You are admitted, on a doctor's order, to the extended care facility within 14 days from the date of your hospital discharge.

—Your admittance to the extended care facility is for further treatment of the condition for which you were hospitalized.

—The extended care facility is approved for participation in the medicare program.

Same Condition

Donnick said that if a person is admitted to a nursing home or other facility for custodial or personal care and not primarily for further treatment of the condition of which he was hospitalized, extended care benefits under medicare are not payable. This is true whether or not the institution is a medicare-approved extended care facility.

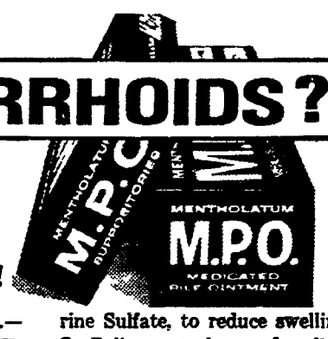

More information is available at the Social Security office in the courthouse annex.

Let's EXPLORE YOUR MIND

By Sylvanus M. Duvall, Ph.D. and Evelyn M. Duvall, Ph.D.

Wrong. Some people certainly do. Sin often causes people to feel heavy burdens of guilt; they seek to be relieved of this, and punishment can help to do it. Criminals sometimes subconsciously help the police to catch them. They leave clues around. A murderer returns to the scene of his crime, or he gives the police enough hints so that he'll be caught and investigated. He may also wish to avoid punishment, and the two desires create a conflict in the person that can result in great inner distress.

Are many men married to their work?

Yes—— No——

Yes. In fact, Dr. Mortimer R. Feinberg says, "Most top executives find their careers more exciting than their wives, especially after 20 or 30 years of marriage. That makes for a troubled marriage and a critical period in the executive's life." What can you do? As a too-busy husband, you can let up on some of the pressure and give more time to your wife and children. You can share more of your problems at home so that your wife can feel that she is part of your life.

Long-Time FDR Maid, Speechmaker Dies in Atlanta Home at 86

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Mrs. Irwin M. McDuffie, maid and nursemaid for many years to the Franklin Delano Roosevelt family, is dead at the age of 86.

Mrs. McDuffie, affectionately known to the Roosevelts as "Lizzie," died Sunday in an Atlanta nursing home.

Her husband was Roosevelt's valet for many years before the President's death in 1945.

A native Atlantan who had attended college here, Mrs. McDuffie made speeches for the President to Negro audiences in the North during Roosevelt's many campaigns.

Mrs. McDuffie and her husband retired to Atlanta after his health began to fail. He died in 1946. They had no children.

Today in History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Tuesday, Nov. 29, the 333rd day of 1966. There are 32 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1760, Detroit was surrendered by the French to the British at the end of the French and Indian War.

On this date:

In 1825, the first Italian opera to be presented in the United States, Rossini's "Barber of Seville," was performed in New York.

In 1832, American author Louisa May Alcott was born.

In 1899, the United States, Switzerland and France granted diplomatic recognition to the new republic of Brazil.

In 1939, Russia severed diplomatic relations with Finland.

In 1942, the rationing of coffee went into effect throughout America.

Ten years ago—France established stringent rationing of gasoline and oil because of the blocking of the Suez Canal and the sabotaging of oil pipelines in Syria.

Five years ago—In what was planned as the final test prior to the orbiting of the first American astronaut, U.S. scientists at Cape Canaveral sent a male chimpanzee on a two-orbit test space flight and recovered him safely.

One year ago — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said, after a visit to South Viet Nam: "We have stopped losing the war."

Unpaid Postal Workers Can Thank Computer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — To 500 Christmas season postal workers who haven't been paid here, there was the knowledge that the mixup had been accomplished in the most modern way

Their first paychecks, due last Friday, failed to make it through the Automated Postal Data Center at San Mateo. The center handles payrolls for California, Nevada, Hawaii and the Pacific islands.

"The center apparently couldn't handle the sudden rush of new work," said Charles Harper, San Francisco Post Office executive, who indicated the rest of the region might have been affected as well.

Joseph Leone, acting president of the United Federation of Post Office Clerks, Local 2, said the seasonal workers probably won't be paid until next year.

The Eagle And Leighton On U.N.C.L.E.

BY TV SCOUT

6:30-7:30 (Channels 4-5) — Margaret Leighton has great style in a flamboyant role on The Girl From U.N.C.L.E. She plays the former head of THRUSH Baltic who is trying to regain her power with a molecular reorganizer. She stages a demonstration with an eagle and April to impress Cesare Danova, but all the time her assistant, Michael Wilding (who is married to Miss Leighton in real life), is using some misused magic. Brian Avery gives a nice performance as a young Viennese so impressed with our heroine he winds up as the next experiment victim. The climax involves real vs. phony U.N.C.L.E. agents in a wild melee.

6:30-7:30 (Channels 11-6-9) — The war on Combat is not so much with the Germans tonight, as it is between Caje (Pierre Jalbert) and Littlejohn (Dick Peabody). The boys are wet, tired and cold after a tough mission, and they are growling at each other. Then they are immediately sent on another mission and the growls turn into all-out hostility.

* * *

7:30-8 (Channels 4-5) — Sally Field lends her delightful presence to a funny episode of Occasional Wife. She's a girl with no acting talent whose mother wants to push her to stardom. So, in a business maneuver, Michael Callen is asked to help her. He goes to an off-Broadway producer of artistic flops to ask the man to discourage Sally. But the producer (Severn Darden) gets a gander at Momma's diamonds, and Sally winds up playing a grapefruit in his five-and-a-half-hour production of "Sunflower and Sadists."

7:30-8 (Channels 11-6-9) — Old Fooler is once again the star of The Rounders. Jim Ed Love wants to fix the results of a cutting horse contest for women so he can make a lot of money selling horses. Howdy wants to fix the contest too, so he can get a date with a girl who is tired of losing. Old Fooler is the horse who can make Howdy's dream come true, but there is the matter of that mare he is chasing — and chasing and chasing.

8-8:30 (Channels 11-6-9) — More nonsense on The Pruitts of Southampton as Stephanie is invited to the elegant Wentworth party, but has nothing to wear. This sets Phyllis Diller to making a dress with predictably disastrous results. So she buys one from a second hand shop only to learn it was donated by Mrs. Wentworth.

8-10 (Channels 4-5) — Tuesday Night at the Movies finally gets around to "Blue Hawaii," a picture announced as the season's premiere and then postponed because of a contractual problem. Anyway, it's an Elvis Presley film, which is all his fans have to know, and he plays a tourist guide in Hawaii where he gets to sing. Angela Lansbury is his mother and Joan Blackman his girl friend.

8:30-9 (Channels 11-6-9) — Dave (Peter Deuel) is convinced by friends that if he doesn't take a night out once in while, he'll be sorry when he tries to get out five years from now So our Love on a Rooftop hero takes leave of wife Judy Carne to play poker. He hates the game, it turns out, so he winds up going to a Bardot Film Festival and hanging around the local laundromat.

9-9:30 (Channels 2-7-12) — New Face in the Senate: Edward Brooke of Massachusetts is being taped in Boston on the day of the telecast Eric Sevareid travels to The Hub to talk to Brooke, the newly elected Negro senator.

9-10 (Channels 11-6-9) — Poor Richard Kimble. Is there no place The Fugitive can hide? Now he has a job with Dean Jagger, a tuna fisherman, and he winds up smack in the middle of a strike, led by Jagger's son (James Callahan). But Jagger is determined to get that big haul, and the cops get Kimble's fingerprints, and Nancy Malone, as Jagger's daughter, wants to get Kimble.

Man With Half a Brain Upsets Some Beliefs

BY JOSEPH MOLNER, M.D.

A patient with half of the upper part of his brain removed has upset some previously held beliefs. Surgeons at the Omaha VA Hospital had to remove the left part of his brain, a segment five inches across, because of a tumor.

Such an operation is quite a feat to begin with, although it has been done before.

The striking thing is that the patient is able to do so many things that supposedly he could not do — he talks well, uses a telephone, walks (with a cane; phlebitis kept him in bed longer than otherwise would have been necessary), plays checkers, prints, recognizes colors and other such things.

The prior belief had been that removal of so much left-side brain tissue would hopelessly handicap the right side of his body, and especially interfere with speech.

Well, such massive removal of brain tissue obviously does a lot of damage, but this patient spoke a few words soon after the operation was completed.

He had trouble at times when he couldn't summon the exact word he wanted to use, and the report goes that he did some fluent cussing when that happened. Since then his word-power has been returning, and he makes out very well with patriotic songs and hymns, is better than the average man at mechanical tests involving use of his hands (he was adept before) and has regained some skills which he lost temporarily, one of them being the ability to distinguish different colors and shades.

Such extensive brain surgery is of course rare, and few who read this column will ever have direct interest in it. However, it occurs to me that this is of potential importance to millions who may someday have a stroke, or have a member of the family affected by one.

There is no way to undo completely the damage of a severe stroke, but experts in rehabilitation keep telling us that too many stroke victims give up too quickly. They find themselves paralyzed to some degree, and think that nothing at all can be done.

The truth is that if some movement remains, improvement is usually possible. There are many cases of a hand being extremely weak after a stroke. Steady practice (such as squeezing a rubber ball, or lifting very small weights, then increasing the size) brings increased usefulness.

In some cases it is possible for other parts of the brain to take over functions which have been controlled by a part now damaged.

I do not want to minimize in any way the seriousness of strokes, but we know that a good deal of improvement is possible when a patient is told that patience and persistence will pay off, and the experience of this man in Omaha becomes, I think, a striking example of how much even a damaged brain can do.

Dear Dr. Molner: Is it harmful for someone with emphysema to drink beer or alcohol in other forms? — Mrs. D.K.

In moderate amounts, no, but we all know from observation that with many people there is a tendency to smoke when one is drinking. And smoking is the worst thing an emphysema patient can do.

Dear Dr. Molner: What causes gas and shortness of breath while eating? Sometimes hiccups are a forerunner of this condition. I am especially wondering about hiatal hernia. Would X-ray be the only effective way of determination? — D.M.

An X-ray would be the only positive determination of hiatal hernia. It also would give other signs, if any, of abnormalities, or spasm of gullet or stomach which might be involved.

"Tips On How To Stop Smoking," by Dr. Molner, will help you give up the habit. To receive a copy of the booklet, write to Dr. Molner in care of this newspaper, enclosing with your request 10 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

State Informs Fox Villages Of Tax Credits

Reductions Will be $2.69 to $4.03 in Three Communities

Clerks from the Fox villages received notices from the state Tuesday concerning the amount of tax credit to be received in 1967, helping to reduce the tax rate on real estate.

Gerald Locy, Little Chute clerk, reports the village will receive $35,925 in 1967 which will result in a $4.03 per $1,000 tax credit. This will mean residents of School District Nov. 1 will have a net tax rate of $60.72 per $1,000 in 1967 compared to $64.83 in 1966. School District Nov. 2 residents will pay $55.47 in 1967 compared to $54.43 in 1966. Tax credit in 1966 amounted to $3.67.

Mrs. Katherine Lochschmidt, Kimberly clerk, reports a tax credit of $2.72 per $1,000 in 1967 compared to $2.45 in 1966. Total to be received in 1967, is $69,539 compared to $61,947 in 1966. Based on the tentative tax rate of $41 for 1967, the tax credit will result in a net tax of $38.28 compared to a net tax of $36.55 last year when the rate was set at $39 per $1,000.

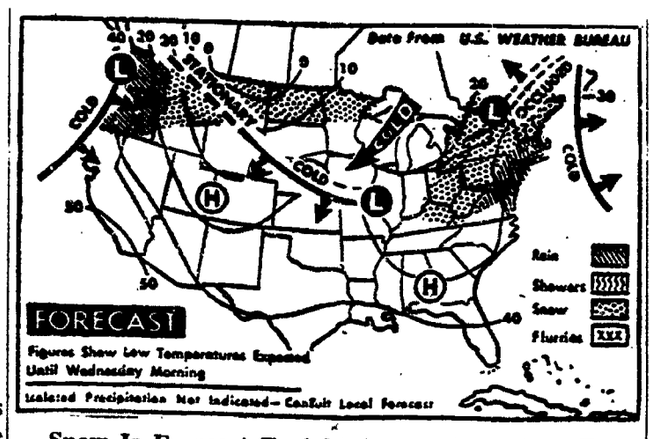

At Combined Locks, Mrs. Irene Rehmer, clerk, reports the tax credit for 1967 will be $2.69 compared to $2.75 in 1966, a decrease of six cents per $1,000. The 1966 gross tax rate was $36.50 and with the $2.75 credit the net tax was $33.75. The proposed tax increase is $1 to $37.50 and with the credit the net tax for 1967 will amount to $34.81.

U. S. Bolstering Jordanian Forces

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is sending 36 F104 Starfighters to strengthen the forces of King Hussein of Jordan, authoritative sources reported today.

The 1,500-mile-an-hour Lockheed jets are expected to be delivered quickly. Hussein's request for military aid was received here shortly after the Israeli attack Nov. 13 on a village in Jordan.

The State Department acknowledged last week that such a request had been received from Hussein. Earlier this year, a limited number of A4 jet fighter-bombers were supplied to Jordan, and last year the tiny Arab kingdom received 50 M48 medium Patton tanks.

Thanksgiving Traffic Toll Reaches 748

National Figure For Long Weekend Is New Record

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The nation's 748 traffic deaths during the extended Thanksgiving weekend reached an all-time record for any holiday.

The total for the four-day, 102-hour period, from 6 p.m., local time, Wednesday to midnight Sunday, surpassed the previous record high for a holiday of 720 set in the three-day, 78-hour Christmas weekend of 1965.

An Associated Press comparative survey of traffic fatalities during a nonholiday period from 6 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 9 through Sunday, Nov. 15, showed 546 deaths.

615 in '65

This year's Thanksgiving weekend toll compared to 615 last year, the highest for the period since AP tabulations were started eight years ago.

The record count included 130 persons under 18. The toll for the nonholiday weekend included 81 such victims.

Safety officials said unusually mild weather, which resulted in crowded roads, was a factor in the record number of traffic deaths.

A spokesman for the National Safety Council said the tragic figures were not too surprising in view of the fact that a record death toll has been set each holiday period since Memorial Day 1965.

Sergeant Killed In Mouse Hunt At Madison Base

MADISON (AP) — An Air Force sergeant was shot to death when a rifle discharged as he was hunting a mouse in a communications center for the North American Air Defense Command (NORAD), authorities reported today.

T. Sgt. Jack D. Roberts, 30, Madison, was killed when the M - 1 rifle fired as he took it from a gun rack, Dane County Coroner Clyde Chamberlain said.

"Believe it or not, he was looking for a mouse," Chamberlain said.

Roberts was a radio maintenance man and was working at a ground-to-air center for communication with interceptor aircraft, military authorities said.

The center is four miles east of Madison. Roberts was stationed with the 20th Air Division Truax Air Force Base in Madison.

Jury Seated In Libel Suit Of Teacher

MADISON (AP) — A jury of eight men and four women was seated Monday to try a libel suit filed by a Middleton teacher who was fired on charges of "intemperate behavior" in the classroom upon learning of the assassination of President Kennedy in 1963.

Mrs. Dorothy D. Ranous is asking $100,000 from Robert L. Hughes, president of Middleton's board of education, and $89,745 from the school board, which approved the letter of dismissal that Hughes drafted.

Mrs. Ranous charged in her suit that she was libeled when Hughes wrote in the letter, "your professed attitudes and intemperate behavior are incompatible with the principles of patriotism, nationalism and respect for our elected leaders . . ."

Mrs. Ranous was an eighth grade physical education teacher in the Madison suburb at the time of the assassination. The State Supreme Court ruled last April that Hughes was not immune to the suit as a public official.

Reflective License Plates Expected to Aid Road Safety

When Wisconsin motorists order their license plates next year, they'll discover several changes that will affect their highway safety as well as their "prestige."

Motor Vehicle Commissioner James L. Karns said the changes, ordered by the 1965 legislature, would go into effect with the issuance of January plates.

Karns cited these new procedures:

Applicants for license renewal will no longer be required to send in auto titles with their applications — and should not do so.

Special Fee

An additional 15 cents will be charged all applicants to cover the cost of license plate reflectorization.

A $3 assessment will be required from those motorists who request a special license number.

Adoption of reflective plates was designed primarily as a safety measure, Karns said. He said that if Wisconsin's experience parallels that of a number of other states which have reflectorized plates, "it should have a favorable effect on the frequency of night-time collisions." Karns also added that he felt the minimal 15 cents charge "is little enough for an added safety precaution on your car."

Number Requests

Special numbers, he said, are restricted to auto license plate numbers from 1 to 10,000. The special number requested must be for the month in which the applicant is already registered. The request must be received by mail (no counter service) by the 15th of the month. The words "special number" must be printed on the envelope, Karns said.

If these requirements are met, a special number presently held by the applicant will be given priority. However, special number applicants should designate both a first and second choice. If neither is available for issuance, the $3 will be refunded and a regular number issued.

The changes described, according to Karns, will involve little or no difficulty or delay, if applicants adhere to the seven little words, "Follow the instructions on your renewal notice."

LBJ Popularity Decreasing as Troubles Grow

'64 Margin Could Merely Have Been Goldwater Rejection

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — This has not been one of President Johnson's best years. His popularity went down, his troubles up, and they will still be staring at him in 1967.

His performance after his two recent operations, ignoring doctors' orders to take it easy, could be interpreted as an effort to convince anyone who had any doubts that he is as full of vitality as ever.

He will need it all these next years, which will be quite different from the beginning of 1965 when, still fresh from his tremendous 1964 victory over Sen. Barry Goldwater, he was dressed from head to toe in public approval.

Disapprove Goldwater

But was he really saturated then in public approval? An obvious question surfaces as time passes and his popularity dwindles: How much of his huge 1964 vote was public approval and how much simply rejection of Goldwater who, as the election showed, was out of step with his times?

Within two years Johnson's popularity dived so much that public opinion polls show a preference for Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, New York Democrat, and Michigan's Republican Gov. George Romney.

But on the wings of the election two years ago, and with great Democratic majorities in Congress, Johnson was able to pass a legislative miracle in 1965 in getting so much of his "Great Society" programs through.

Time Needed

He may never achieve such success again. At the end of 1965 no prophet was needed to foresee that Johnson couldn't keep up the pace in 1966. The country and the government would need time to digest all that was done in 1965.

On top of this, as months become years, Johnson is being criticized as a poor national administrator of some of the very programs he fought for.

True, he was a political genius in handling the Senate when he was there.

Tougher Job

Further, because the 1966 elections put more Republicans in Congress, Johnson's ability to make Congress listen will be restricted, making life tougher for him, even though he is not expected to try a repetition of 1965.

In addition, he must try to recapture his popularity if he intends to run again in 1968 with hope of winning. And he will have the war in Viet Nam on his back.

The longer this war lasts, the more the criticism for Johnson, no matter how hard he tries otherwise to win approval. And just as a starter he has some bruising problems immediately ahead.

For instance, how to handcuff inflation? Will he ask for a tax increase? Just this week, to reduce government spending, which is one of the demands of critics, he ordered a $700 million cut, a 17.5 per cent reduction, in federally aided highway programs.

Cut Spending

Judging from this, he will probably slash right and left in government spending. And there's a new civil rights bill, which Congress sidetracked this year. Almost certainly whatever he proposes will try to eliminate to some degree discrimination in buying and selling homes.

But if there are some big racial riots, chances for a new civil rights law look dim. These are just a few of his problems, the most obvious ones. Perhaps the worst ones are not even imagined yet.

At this moment, looking ahead, his two greatest tasks are regaining his popularity and ending the Vietnamese war. The former may be just as difficult as the latter.

Much of his unpopularity is based on personal dislike by people who never met him but only watch him on television and dislike his mannerisms. How he is going to change them is difficult to imagine, for one thing about Johnson is sure: his field is not in the performing arts.

New Chrysler President Likely To be One of Two

DETROIT (AP) — Either Virgil E. Boyd or Philip Buckminster is expected to be promoted to presidency of Chrysler Corp. Thursday, with Lynn Townsend stepping up to chairman and carrying with him the title of chief executive officer.

Townsend would succeed George Love as chairman of the nation's third largest automaker; and some sources within the automotive industry forecast Boyd as Townsend's likely successor. Others pick Buckminster as the more likely new president.

Boyd is vice president-domestic automotive. Buckminster is vice president-corporate staffs. Both have figured in past speculation on the shuffle which will come with the 66-year-old Cleveland industrialist's retirement as chairman.

Townsend became president and Love chairman on July 27, 1961, as directors moved L. L. Colbert out as chairman-president of the corporation to president of Chrysler of Canada.

Chrysler has experienced spectacular success under the Love-Townsend leadership.

GOP Chooses Froehlich New House Speaker

Outagamie County Republican Beat Six-Term Veteran

MADISON — Harold V. Froehlich, third-term Republican assemblyman of the first Outagamie County district, today was chosen by the Republican Assembly majority as speaker of the lower house of the Legislature for the 1967 session that will convene in January.

Froehlich defeated Harold Clemens, of Waukesha, a six-term veteran and former deputy speaker, in a mild upset as Republicans held their closed-door organization caucus here this morning. The vote was 27 to 26.

MADISON (AP) — The threat of a pained and strained ballot battle among Republicans for Assembly speaker today has been lifted by last-minute withdrawals that created a showdown between two survivors.

Both frontrunners, moderate Assemblyman Harold Clemens of Oconomowoc and conservative Harold Froehlich of Appleton, won heartening election eve backing when they split the support of the two contenders who withdrew.

With only the two candidates left, a first - ballot decision by the 53 Republicans in the Assembly seemed certain. Both candidates claimed a majority as they went into the closed - door caucus this morning.

Harold V. Froehlich

Assemblyman David Martin of Neenah, frequently mentioned as a possibility for co-chairman of the Joint Finance Committee, tossed his support and six votes to Clemens, a moderate.

Floor Leader

Coming over to Froehlich's camp was Assemblyman Curtis McKay, who said he had about nine votes to offer the Appleton Republican.

Gets Letters From 7,000

Marine Sits Write Down

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) —A West Virginia Marine in Viet Nam recently bet his buddies he could get 400 letters from West Virginians through a letter writing campaign.

He won the bet and more than he bargained for, receiving some 7,000 letters.

The Marine is Lance Cpl. Bobbie L Ruble of Parkersburg, who wrote Gov. Hulett C Smith earlier explaining the wager. The governor's office then spread the word to the press, and the 7,000 letters resulted

"When the letters started coming in," Ruble said in a letter to Smith, "they weren't in bundles, they were in bags. My buddies didn't know what to say."

Smith's office Monday released copies of the letter written to the governor by Ruble, dated Nov. 17.

"I'm going to read every letter that came to me and write their addresses down," Ruble pledged. "Then I'm going to start answering every one of those letters. It's going to take time, but if people are kind enough to write me, then I'd better get busy and write my friends back."

Brezhnev Refutes Banning of Peking

Utter Nonsense, Says Communist Party's Leader

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — Soviet Communist party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev said today conditions were ripening for a world Communist conference but it was "utter nonsense" that such a gathering would banish the Red Chinese from the world movement.

Brezhnev told the Hungarian Communist party congress the conference would be a "comradely discussion of urgent problems of international development that have taken place in the world in the past six years" since the last conference was held

The Soviet leader said the world meeting would "jointly analyze" these developments. He did not name the Chinese, but it was clear that he spoke of the Peking regime.

'Bourgeois Press'

Brezhnev claimed the idea of banishing the Chinese at a world conference had been "trumpeted out by the bourgeois press."

At Monday's session of the congress, Communist party chief Janos Kadar had said there was no need to excommunicate Red China at a world conference. But he warned Red China's leaders they cannot block a world Communist unity congress indefinitely

In a direct reference to the Chinese leadership, Brezhnev said Peking was "refusing to take part in joint action for the defense of Viet Nam."

Fifth Quint Passes First Major Crisis

Roni Sue Aranson Reported Free of Breathing Defect

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Kicking and active, tiny Roni Sue Aranson passed the first crisis in her struggle for survival today, bolstering the hopes of her parents and doctors that at least one of Pittsburgh's quintuplets would live.

The sounds of cries from the infant declared her to be free from the respiratory difficulty which claimed the lives of her four sisters within 56 hours of their birth Saturday to Mr and Mrs. Michael Aranson, both 22.

Doctors said Roni Sue's survival past the 72-hour mark — at 2:41 a.m. today — ended her first crisis

'Lot of Hurdles'

But "we've got a lot of hurdles, and this is just the big one," said Dr. Lee Bass, chief of pediatrics at Magee-Women's Hospital.

At a midmorning news briefing, Dr Bass disclosed that the infant had become jaundiced and a decision will have to be made about an exchange blood transfusion within the next few days.

Dr Bass explained that jaun-

State Educators Indicate Region's Vocational School Will be Located in Fox Cities

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON—The whole of Winnebago County was joined to the Fox Valley area vocational school district in a surprise move Monday by the State Board of Vocational, Technical and Adult Education.

The board commented on earlier discussions which concluded that no matter what district the southern half of Winnebago County were connected to, the Fox Valley district or the Fond du Lac district, the sites for the technical institutes would be in the Fox Cities and Fond du Lac with a satellite school at Oshkosh.

An earlier recommendation had placed only the northern section of Winnebago county, including Neenah-Menasha, in the Fox Valley district, which also includes Outagamie, Waupaca and Calumet counties. But the board voted nine to one to join all of Winnebago to the district instead.

Although the district was set up on county lines instead of a combination of county and school district lines, the board ruled that adjustments could be made later to accommodate school districts which wished to join another vocational school district.

The group to select a Fox Valley area vocational board to operate the district would be made up of the four county board chairmen and four school board presidents selected by the boards of the participating school districts.

Staff assistants to the board pointed out that the move, suggested by A. E. Mueller of Watertown, would allow both the Fox Valley and Fond du Lac districts to meet all minimum criteria for area vocational districts established by the board last spring.

CCHE Must Ratify

The action still must be ratified by the state Coordinating Committee for Higher Education, which is expected to act on the 15-district plan approved by the board, at a meeting in mid-December.

The 15 districts created are based on county lines with an allowance for change on school district lines in limited instances. The plan, enacted under directive from the 1965 Legislature, must be adopted by the counties of the state by 1970. A resolution adopted unanimously at the board meeting would

Kiesinger Doesn't Feel Friendship of De Gaulle Will Hurt

BONN, Germany (AP)—Kurt Georg Kiesinger, generally expected to become West Germany's chancellor, today predicted good relations with both the United States and France.

Kiesinger, Christian Democrat minister president (governor) of Baden Wuerttemberg State, is known for his friendliness to President Charles de Gaulle's government just across the Rhine. Asked if closer West German ties with France would impair those with the United States, he replied:

Talks With Brandt

"I don't think so. I always refuse to be imprisoned in the cage of a wrong alternative. I am quite convinced we will deepen our relations with France and the United States. I know there are difficulties but these difficulties can be solved if good will is prepared to solve them."

Kiesinger answered questions in English for a group of American and British reporters. They

Blizzard Moving Eastward After Leaving Some Areas Snowbound

DETROIT (AP) — The U.S. Weather Bureau predicted some relief today from the heavy snow and gales that stranded more than 1,000 persons, closed roads and schools and disrupted electric service to 10,000 homes in Upper Michigan Monday.

Detroit weather officials said snow in western and northern Michigan would diminish, but warned of heavy drifting and blowing in the northeastern part of the state

As the storm moved eastward Monday night it deposited one inch of snow on metropolitan Detroit.

Sixteen inches were reported by nightfall around the Marquette area. Drifts ranging to five and six feet high blocked U.S. 2, a main route along the bottom of Michigan's Upper Peninsula. U S. 41, between Skandia and Ishpeming, was open to one-lane traffic only.

Buses, Cars Stranded

The snow stranded some 225 cars and seven buses near Engadine in the southern part of the Upper Peninsula Sunday night and Monday morning. Some 500 persons took refuge in the Engadine Town Hall.

About 400 of the stranded motorists were students returning to Michigan Technological University at Houghton after the Thanksgiving holiday.

Another 200 were sheltered at Escanaba where six inches of snow was reported, and 100 spent the night in a National Guard armory at Manistique.

Moves East

Main arteries from Marquette eastward and southward were not expected to be cleared before this afternoon, Michigan state police said.

Blustery weather hit areas across the lower Great Lakes region and into the eastern

Stranded Ferry Still on Lake; Winds Continue

LUDINGTON, Mich (AP) — Full gale conditions with winds up to 60 miles per hour today prevented tugboats from attempting to move a 405-foot railroad and passenger car ferry aground in Lake Michigan near Ludington Harbor.

The 181 passengers and crewmen aboard were all reported safe and the ship, the City of Midland 41, was in no apparent danger

"We sure aren't going to make any attempt to move her in this kind of weather," said Theodore Winkel, superintendent steamships of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, owner of the vessel.

Worse Than Forecast

"The weather here is a lot worse than was forecast," Winkel said "We have had full gale conditions for the last 24 hours or so, with winds of up to 60 miles per hour and gusting up to 80 miles

"Our latest weather forecast shows no letup through midnight tonight."

Gale winds drove the 4,000-ton ship onto a sandbar Monday at the channel entrance to Ludington, a resort port in northern Lower Michigan. The ship was inbound from Manitowoc, Wis.

The captain, Henry Gates of Manitowoc, immediately flooded her ballast tanks to stabilize the ship.

750 Feet Off Schore

The vessel lies about 750 feet from shore. Winkel said she had not moved since late Monday night when a two to three degree list was reported.

Gates said the passengers rode out the storm "playing cards, eating, sleeping and enjoying themselves."

A breakfast "ranging from scrambled eggs to French toast — most anything they want," was prepared for the 128 passengers today, Gates told newsmen by radio-telephone.

Light Skirmishes Again Reported in Viet Nam

Foul Weather Limits Strikes By U. S. Bombers

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The U. S. and South Vietnamese commands reported 75 Communists killed in small skirmishes in the past 24 hours as the lull in ground fighting in the Viet Nam war continued for the third day. Continuing foul weather once again slowed the U. S. air offensive.

The U. S. command reported 53 enemy killed in more than a dozen patrol contacts. The South Vietnamese headquarters said their forces killed 22 Communists in three small engagements

Vietnamese headquarters also reported that a Viet Cong force ambushed a 17-vehicle Vietnamese military convoy this morning on its way to the mountain city of Dalat, causing some casualties.

Third in Week

The ambush 98 miles northeast of Saigon was the third in the Dalat area in less than a week There were no details on the number of government casualties or damage inflicted to the convoy.

U S. Air Force B52 bombers returned to the central highlands near Cambodia today and struck at North Vietnamese troop concentrations 35 miles northwest of Pleiku.

U. S. pilots flew only 39 bombing missions over North Viet Nam Monday as the monsoon rains and low clouds continued into the third week. Five of the raids were agaist North Vietnamese positions in the demilitarized zone between North and South Viet Nam.

American pilots flew 311 strike sorties over South Viet Nam Monday and South Vietnamese pilots flew 162. A U. S. Army helicopter was shot down 10 miles northeast of Saigon, and two Americans were killed.

57-46 Vote in General Assembly

U.N. Turns Down Attempt To Seat Communist China

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — By a more decisive vote than last year, the General Assembly refused today to seat Red China in the United Nations. It was the 16th time the Peking government had been barred.

The 121-nation assembly voted 57-46 to reject a resolution calling for the expulsion of Nationalist China and the seating of the Peking government in all U N. bodies. Seventeen countries abstained. Laos did not participate.

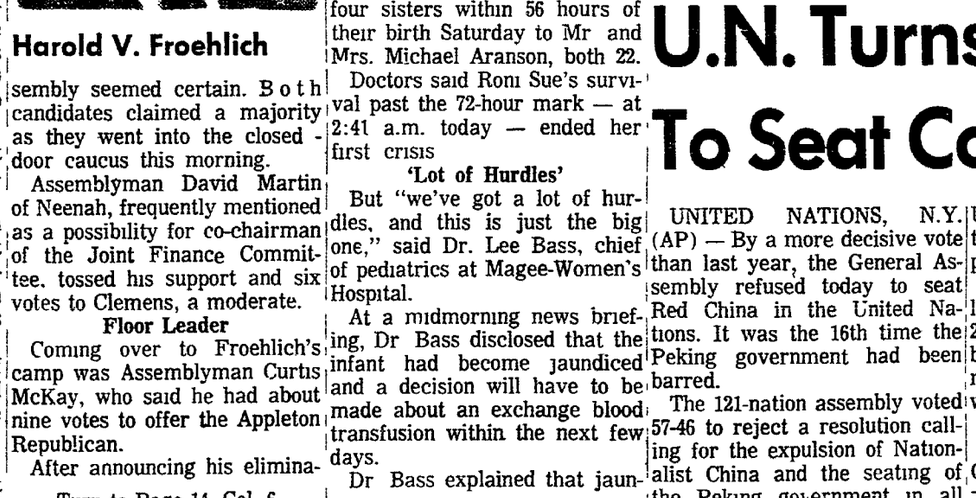

The vote on an identical resolution last year was 47-47 with 20 abstentions. The total membership then was 117. Two members did not vote and one was absent.

Two-Thirds Vote

Today's rebuff to the Chinese Communists came after the assembly had approved a U.S.-supported resolution reaffirming that the Chinese question was an important one requiring a two-thirds majority. The vote on that was 66 to 48 with seven abstentions.

As in the past, Britain and France split with the United States and voted for the pro-Peking resolution sponsored by a group of Communist and nonaligned countries.

Albania, Cambodia and other countries sympathetic to Peking led the fight to seat the Chinese Communists. The Soviet Union and India — former champions of Peking — voted yes, but gave only lukewarm support to the bid.

Speck Hearing Starts Today

Jury to Decide If Accused Slayer Can Stand Trial

CHICAGO (AP) — A jury of seven men and five women was selected Monday to determine whether Richard F. Speck is competent to stand trial on charges of murdering eight student nurses.

Judge Herbert C. Paschen of the Circuit Court recessed the hearing until today when a panel of psychiatrists who have examined Speck was to begin testimony.

Judge Paschen explained to 50 prospective jurors that their sole task would be to determine whether the defendant understands the nature of the proceedings and is able to assist in his own defense.

He also explained that the competency hearing has "nothing whatever to do" with charges that Speck, 24, strangled and stabbed the nurses in their living quarters last July 14.

advance the date to July, 1968 if approved by the 1967 Legislature. Board spokesmen said that change proposal can be expected to be "controversial."

The action came after four hours of debate on the plan, which divides the state into 15 districts ranging in size from one to 17 counties. The Winnebago County action was the only major change over a plan tentatively adopted by an advisory group two weeks ago.

Only board chairman Philip Lerman of Milwaukee voted against Mueller's amendment shifting Winnebago County. Lerman said that although the new alignment would allow both the affected districts to meet the minimal criteria established, the board should consider instead attempting to create districts as close as possible to maximum limits permissible.

State Industrial Commissioner Gene Rowland, a member of the board, abstained from voting, saying that Winnebago County authorities should be permitted to express themselves on the proposal before action is taken.

Hears Proposal

The action came after the board heard a proposal from Wallace L. Zahn of Oshkosh, representing a citizens' vocational education committee of Winnebago and Waushara counties, proposed that a separate district be created of the two counties, including the Neenah-Menasha area.

He attributed past factionalism over the makeup of the new district as being due in part to the long-standing battle over the site of the local airport. "This is not the time to build our old barriers up any higher by splitting the county," he said. "We think that this is the time to break the barriers down."

Oshkosh Technical Institute operates a high quality program, he said, and should be used as a basis for a separate district. Waushara and Winnebago counties could be joined in a district without causing either the Fox Valley or Fond du Lac districts to dip below the criteria minimums, he contended.

And the two - county district would meet the population and equalized valuation minimum levels, he said.

Would Hurt District

Questioning of the staff by board members brought out the fact, however, that establishment of such a district would hurt the district from which Waushara County would have been removed. That district, as approved by subsequent board action, also includes Wood, Portage, Juneau, Adams and Marquette counties.

Zahn told the board that the Winnebago County Board was prepared to sell land acquired for a planned new site of the Oshkosh institute and prepare a new site on County Trunk G between U.S. 41 and 45 if the two-county district were approved. The proposed site would be more accessible to students from throughout the district, he said.

Following Zahn's presentation, Noll reminded the Oshkosh representatives of an informal statement made at the committee meeting two weeks ago endorsing a unification of Winnebago County with the Fox Valley district

Zahn and William Sirek, director of the Oshkosh institute, told the board that the education committees of the boards of supervisors of Winnebago and Outagamie counties had approved in principle the plan at a meeting last week, but that no action had yet been taken.

Delay Mapping

Zahn proposed that the entire question of the mapping of Winnebago County be delayed, reminding the group that the Winnebago County Baord had unanimously opposed the segmentation of the county between two districts.

Frederick Hiestand, a staff member of the area development committee of the board, told the group that joining all of Winnebago County to the Fox Valley district would create a district with an equalized valuation of $1 4 billion and a Fond du Lac district of $1.7 billion.

Projected student enrollments in 1970 under the approved plan are about 1,440 students in the Fox Valley district institution, and 790 in the Fond du Lac school. Hiestand warned that the Fond du Lac figure, only 30 above the approved minimum, might prove to be "hazardous." State Superintendent of Public Instruction William Kahl dismissed the objection, saying that projected figures for minimums are not absolute necessities.

Both Adequate

Both schools will have adequate enrollments and tax bases in 1980 and thereafter, Hiestand said

Fond du Lac, Green Lake, Dodge and Washington counties of the Fond du Lac district have growth patterns which will result in a more than adequate financial and student base for the new school without relying upon Winnebago County, Mueller said.

Before the action of the board, Gerhard Willecke, Appleton, endorsed the original proposal to include Neenah and Menasha in the Fox Valley district He approved the suggestion that Winnebago County be added to the area district, but said he feared such a change might slow the procedure of approval. He suggested initial approval of the Fox Cities addition to the Fox Valley district Later action could consider the rest of Winnebago County, he said

He warned the board not to become involved in site disputes for the actual location of the schools at Monday's meeting saying that such a fight also could slow the development procedure.

GOP Chooses Froehlich New House Speaker

tion from the contest for the top Assembly post, McKay said he would seek the job of majority floor leader.

Former Floor Leader Paul R. Alfonsi, R - Minocqua, is also seeking the post. Alfonsi's appeal of his bribery conviction in July will be heard by the State Supreme Court Friday, and both he and Clemens have asked that the caucus elect only a speaker today.

Froehlich and McKay, now considered a joint entry, wanted the entire leadership ladder filled in today's balloting.

Identical Claims

The withdrawal statements of Martin and McKay evoked nearly identical victory claims from both Clemens and Froehlich.

"I'm quite confident I have a majority of votes," said Clemens Monday night.

"There's no question in my mind that I have the majority of votes," echoed Froehlich with equal confidence.

A four-way race for speaker had threatened to engulf the GOP caucus in a furor that could deeply split the party and splinter its program for the entire 1967 session.

Since the Nov. 8 election when Republicans recaptured control of the Assembly with a 53-47 majority, the contest for speaker had been following moderate-conservative lines.

Fight of Personalities

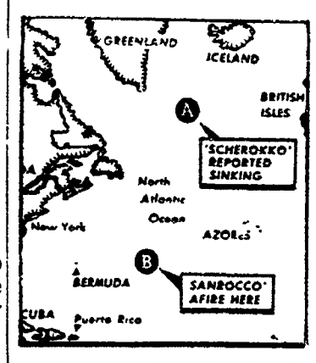

Many Republicans have sought to gloss over the philosophical differences and term the fight one of personalities alone. But McKay admitted one of the reasons he withdrew was to prevent a "serious rift" among Assembly Republicans

"We have to resolve this thing in a manner which allows the Assembly to be productive, to act with dispatch and to enable us to have a constructive relationship with Gov. Warren P. Knowles," said McKay.

The portly Cedarburg attorney added that he presumed the moderate - conservative fight could be avoided if he supported Froehlich. This lessened the possibility of a stalemate in the caucus and a prolonged battle.

Martin said he pledged his allegiance to Clemens because he thought he was the best man for the job He declined to comment if he would seek any other leadership post.

Knowles vowed continually to avoid getting burned and to bypass any role in the Republican leadership quarrel However, Clemens was considered closest in philosophy to the governor.

CESA Denies Petition to Leave Stockbridge District

Committee Says Community Should be Given Chance to Work Out School Reorganization

CHILTON — A petition to attach a portion of the Stockbridge School District southeast and north of the village to the Chilton School district was denied Monday by the Cooperative Educational Service Agency (CESA) following statements by the Stockbridge school board that it was considering plans for reorganization which had been presented by the State Department of Education in October.

Andrew Houwers, CESA School reorganization committee chairman, said that while denying the petition, it is hoped that the larger problem will be resolved by cooperation of the school boards.

Committees from Stockbridge, Hilbert, Chilton and Brillion will meet to discuss plans which call for joining the Stockbridge, Hilbert and Brillion districts or the Stockbridge, Chilton districts and report their opinions to the boards involved.

Value Seen

Speaking for Stockbridge, Attorney Joseph Schiff, said when the boards met to discuss the first plan, the Hilbert, Stockbridge, Brillion merger, they saw advantages in the proposal although they felt that site location would be a big problem. The meeting of the Stockbridge and Chilton boards resulted in extremely favorable consideration of the second plan he said. Under this plan, the new Stockbridge school addition would be put to good use as tentative discussion centered around using the facility as a grade school and junior high for Stockbridge and some Chilton pupils.

A spokesman for the Hilbert board said at the present time they supported the first plan although they would reconsider if this plan failed to materialize.

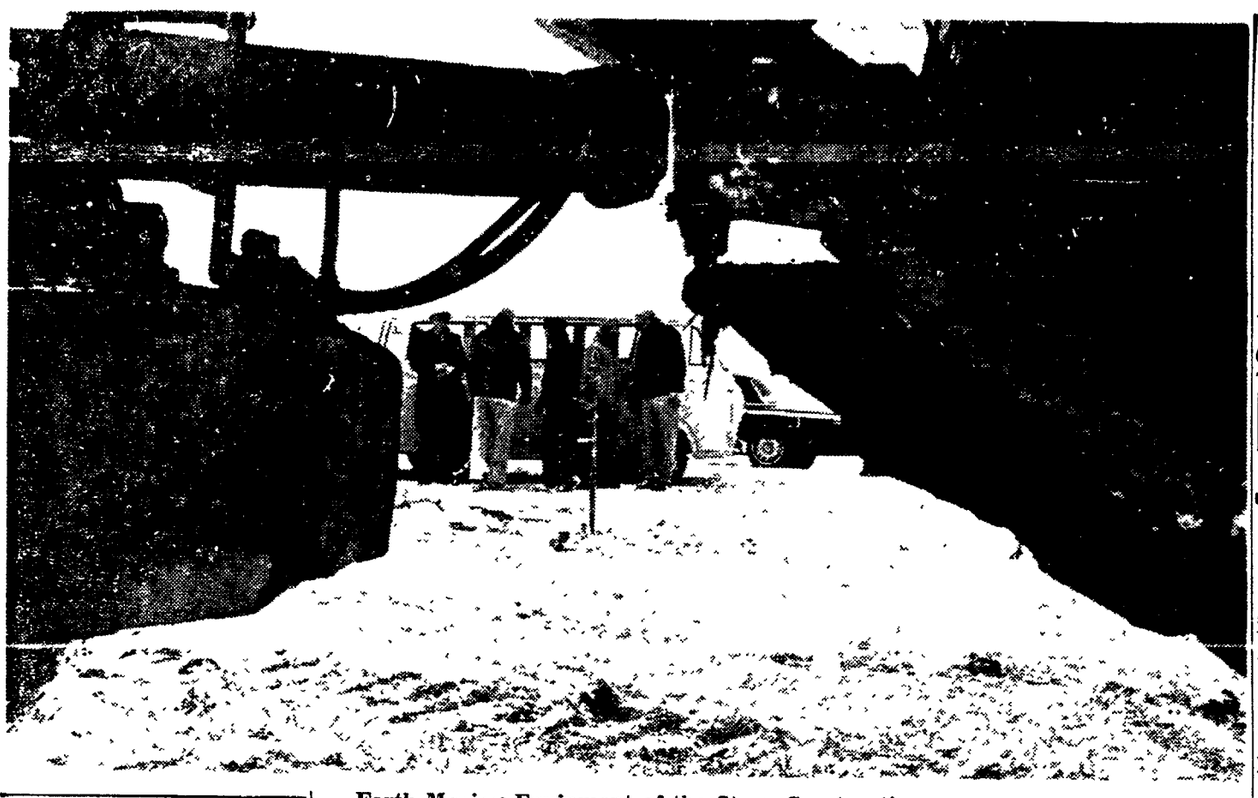

Some claimed the first plan would not succeed because Brillion would not consider building a school outside its city limits. A referendum to build a new high school in Brillion was defeated in a recent election.

Meeting Scheduled

Allowing the school boards time to conduct their committee meetings and reach an agreement on reorganization, the agency committee set Jan. 30 for the final meeting.

Although the CESA school committee has the power to order reorganization by resolution, Houwers said, it is better for the decision to come from the local level.

Houwers requested CESA be supplied with minutes from the local meetings and said that if the boards were ready to meet sooner, the CESA committee would be glad to reconvene.

Six Injured in Auto Mishaps In Outagamie

Strong Winds, Icy Roads Factors In Most Accidents

Six persons were injured in five Outagamie County accidents over the weekend and Monday morning. Strong winds and icy roads were factors in most of the accidents.

Alan Wilber, 20, 2703 Heather St., Appleton, suffered deep head and face lacerations when the small foreign car he was driving was blown into a guardrail post about 9:10 a.m. today on the County Trunk OO overpass, between State 47 and County Trunk A.

County police said Wilber was westbound on OO when a strong gust of wind caught his car at the crest of the overpass. Wilber was thrown against the windshield. The entire front of the car was damaged. Wilber was taken by Larry's Ambulance to Appleton Memorial Hospital.

Pushed Against Post

A similar accident resulted in extensive damage but no injuries about 6:15 p.m. Sunday at the Gillett Street overpass on U.S. 41. Police said Maureen M. Marsicek, 19, Milwaukee, was driving her small foreign car on the overpass when a gust of wind pushed it into a post. Damage was to the front and rear of the car.

Three persons were injured, none believed seriously, in a head-on collision about 8:10 p.m. Sunday on U.S. 45, a mile west of Hortonville.

Taken to New London Community Hospital by Larry's Ambulance were Helen E. Quall, 54 Pearl St., Clintonville, and Harry G. Cramer, 35, Waterford, drivers of the two cars, both with chest injuries, and Cramer's wife, Lucille, who received head lacerations and injuries to the neck and chest.

A dog in the Cramer car was killed, police said. The Quall car reportedly began skidding and collided nearly headon with the Cramer vehicle.

Eugene R. Henry, 21, route 2, Shiocton, suffered a chin laceration when his car skidded on wet pavement and struck a concrete bridge abutment about 1:45 a.m. Saturday on Redford Road, near County Trunk S, in the Town of Ellington.

Donald W. Stephen, 27, 740 N. Division St., received minor injuries about 1 a.m. Sunday when his car was struck by an unidentified vehicle and then struck a utility pole on State 47 near U.S. 41.

Stephen said he was southbound on 47 when the accident occurred.

NLRB Upholds Curwood Union Vote Results

Papermakers Now Bargaining Agent at New London Firm

The regional director of the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) has denied the motion of a New London firm for reconsideration of union representation election results.

As a result, the United Papermakers and Paperworkers, AFL-CIO, is recognized as the legal bargaining agent for employes in the work unit at Curwood, Inc.

The vote for the union was 46 to 41 with five ballots challenged, resulting in a request by legal counsel for Curwood, Inc. on Oct. 27 to request a review of the latter.

In reviewing the list of personnel whose ballots were challenged, the NLRB ruled one employe—John T. Allen, son-in-law of the firm's vice president — received treatment and benefits not accorded others in the work unit. He was excluded.

George Squillacote, NLRB regional director, said the facts, evidence and arguments in the case presented no further matter which would warrant reconsideration, and dismissed the Curwood, Inc. petition for reconsideration of the election outcome.

Town of Two Creeks

WMPC Breaks Ground for $60 Million Nuclear Plant

POINT BEACH — Shovels wielded by power company and local government officials pried loose the frozen ground Monday morning from a windblown knoll on the shore of Lake Michigan where approximately three years from now will stand Wisconsin Michigan Power Co.'s (WMPC) $60-million nuclear power plant.

Monday's ceremony signaled the start of grading and site preparations which company officials say will speed construction of the "space age" plant. Construction crews are scheduled to work at site preparation until some time in January.

Construction activity will begin again in March when a combined work force of approximately 500 masons, electricians and other tradesmen will move in to complete the costly plant.

Site for the nuclear plant is in the Town of Two Creeks, about six miles north of Two Rivers in Manitowoc County.

Turn Earth

Company representatives, town and county officials donned hard hats and ear muffs for the first turning of earth. In the background, large earth-moving equipment of the Streu Construction Co. bit into the nearly frozen earth to level the terrain.

Initial digging and site preparation will be directed by R. G. Sieder of Bechtel Corp., project engineer. Westinghouse Electric Corp. will build the nuclear plant for WMPC.

Although construction was scheduled for early next spring, company spokesmen said Monday the earlier preparation will lessen delays next year. The Appleton-headquartered power company's applications for authority and licenses to build the nuclear plant are pending before the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin and the Atomic Energy Commission. The plant is scheduled for completion by April, 1970.

Is Water Reactor

The new plant will be a pressurized water reactor with an initial capacity of 450,000 kilowatts. There are seven similar plants in use. All are nuclear U. S. Navy vessels, including the submarine Nautilus, and aircraft carrier Enterprise.

The annual construction payroll has been estimated at $4 million. After the plant is built, company spokesmen said an operating work force of 60 employes will be needed. The annual operating payroll will be in excess of $500,000.

Alfred Gruhl, president of the power company, said, "Breaking ground at a new location for a major power plant is a very special occasion. It occurs about once every 10 years for most companies."

John G. Quale, vice president and general counsel, John McLean, and John K. Babbitt, assistant vice presidents, also were present at the ceremony.

Other company officials at Point Beach Monday were Glenn A. Reed, superintendent of the nuclear power plant, and Sol Burstein, vice president in charge of power plants for the parent company, Wisconsin Electric Co.

The new nuclear plant will have the largest single generator in Wisconsin but it is not the first to be built in this state. The first, financed in part by the Atomic Energy Commission, has a capacity of 60,000 kilowatts and is located on the Mississippi River in Vernon County. The smaller plant is owned by the Dairyland Power Cooperative.

6 Weekend Incidents

Police Investigate Teen-Age Drinking

Appleton police are experiencing serious problems with "teenage drunkenness."

Three young persons, including two girls, were found in "highly intoxicated conditions" Friday night and juvenile authorities said they plan to question three more girls today in connection with a drinking incident Saturday night.

Detectives said they found a 15-year-old girl lying on the sidewalk near State and Eighth streets about 9 p.m. Friday. Several youngsters fled when they saw the squad car approach.

The girl became sick in the squad car and after "passing out" at the police station, she was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital.

A 16-year-old female companion was brought to the station at the same time and she, too, became ill and was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital.

The girls had their stomachs pumped at the hospital, police said. One of the girls was released a short time later and the other remained hospitalized until Sunday.

Four girls were involved in the drinking incident, police said. A quart of brandy had been taken from the home of one girl.

While police were caring for the girls, a special deputy brought in a 14-year-old boy who was drunk at a dance Friday night. The boy told police he and another youth uncovered a fifth of whiskey along railroad tracks in Appleton. He said he bought the full bottle of whiskey for $1 and drank most of it himself.

A 17-year-old Appleton youth was found in an intoxicated condition about 11 p.m. Friday on E. Lawrence Street near Oneida Street.

Police said the youth fled while he was being questioned, but was caught a short time later near Soldier's Square. He gave police a ficticious name. He admitted that he had drunk several bottles of beer.

Juvenile authorities were to question three girls today in connection with a drinking incident Saturday night. Police learned of the incident Sunday. The girls reportedly were drinking brandy that had been stolen.

Dennis D. Thorp, 18, route 1, Hortonville, whose car struck a utility pole on Outagamie County Trunk M Sunday night, this morning was fined $175 and costs and his driver's license was revoked for one year after he pleaded guilty of driving while under the influence of intoxicants.

Thorpe, who appeared in Outagamie County Court Branch 2, was arrested by county police. The accident occurred near County Trunk MM. Thorpe was not injured.

Yule Decoration Bulb Snatching Complaints Begin

KAUKAUNA — The holiday bulb snatching season has arrived early as Oliver Maki, 309 E. 17th St., reported the theft of 75 bulbs from an outside tree Saturday night.

Each year police receive hundreds of calls about thefts from outside decorations and a special effort will be made to apprehend youngsters responsible this year, with parents to be held liable for damages.

Police are also investigating the complaint of Mrs. Frank Vanden Bosch, 320 W. Seventh St. The rear window of her auto was broken by rocks sometime over the weekend.

Show Hotter Than Expected

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — While patrons at the suburban Redwood drive-in theater settled back in their automobile seats to watch "The Professionals," a light rain fell, shorting out a neon sign and causing the huge screen to burst into flames.

Two trucks from the Salt Lake County Fire Dept. responded to the alarm Monday night and performed for a captive audience. Trucks and hoses prevented any of the 21 autos from leaving the lot.

"They had a pretty hot show on that screen," said Fire Chief Frank P. Jones, who estimated damages at $10,000.

Wide Range in Valley Cancer Death Rate

Calumet Well Below National Average While Waupaca Soars to Area High

The death rate from cancer in the four-county bloc of the Fox Valley region ranges from considerably below to much higher than the national rate, according to figures compiled by the U.S. Public Health Service from the year ending Jan. 1, 1965.

Calumet County, which attributed 24 deaths to cancer, had a cancer death rate of 101 per 100,000 population as compared with the national average of 148. Equally significant was the high rate of 237 from Waupaca County based on 83 cancer deaths.

Outagamie and Winnebago also were below the national average but to a lesser degree than Calumet.

Outagamie recorded 137 cancer deaths which is equivalent to a rate of 124 deaths per 100,000 population. Winnebago had 168 cancer deaths for a rate of 146 per 100,000 population. The rate in the state is 156.

Calumet Low

Calumet also was low in the percentage of deaths caused by lung cancer. It recorded only 4.2 per cent while Outagamie had 13.2; Waupaca, 13.3, and Winnebago, 15.5 per cent.

Official figures showed that lung cancer caused 17 per cent of all cancer deaths in the U.S. and 13.1 per cent in the state.

The data indicates considerable progress is being made toward eventual control and eradication of the disease. Consequently many lives are being saved.

The air of optimism, based on recent developments, was echoed at the recent International Cancer Congress in Tokyo, which was attended by 4,000 researchers from 60 countries.

The toll remains high, however, exceeded only by the loss caused by heart disease.

Dr. Charles Huggins of the University of Chicago recently sounded an encouraging note in the war against cancer when he said, "The keys to control cancer appear close at hand. There's a new stir of optimism among researchers They even speak hopefully of vaccines and pills to prevent or cure human cancer."

County Court Trial Set for Waupaca Man On Bad Check Charge

WAUPACA — Lawrence T. Neubauer Jr., 25, 302 Center St., was bound over to County Court for trial Monday, when he was arraigned in Municipal Justice Court on charges of issuing a worthless check and selling mortgaged property.

Neubauer is being held in the county jail in lieu of a $2,000 bond. He is charged with cashing a $227 worthless check and selling machinery that had been mortgaged.

PSC Reopens Case of Truck Service Plan

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — At the request of the Olson Transportation Co. of Green Bay, the Wisconsin Public Service Commission (PSC) has reopened a case involving the proposed extension of service in Winnebago County by the Gateway Transportation Co. of LaCrosse.

Additional hearings will be held on the order of last October which permitted the LaCrosse firm to include state 110 between Oshkosh and State 116, and State 116 between 110 and Winneconne, on its service routes.

Population of Fox Cities Set At 148,250

Planner Estimate Shows 26,000 Gain Since Last Census

Based on latest U.S. Census Bureau figures for the Fox Valley census tracting program, the 13 communities making up the region now have a 148,250 population.

The total represents an increase of about 26,000 over the actual 1960 federal census.

The disclosure was made today in a report compiled by the Fox Valley Regional Planning Commission and sent out to member municipalities.

Projections have it that the Fox Cities region will be officially classified a metropolitan area by the federal government by 1970 with an estimated population of 179,800.

Assumed Growth

The commission emphasized that projections are based on the assumption the growth rate of this region since 1960 will continue for the next few years.

"The growth rate in the metropolitan region is unusually high," the report said, "However, a check with the Wisconsin State Employment Service office on the increasing manufacturing employment served to confirm our estimates."

The expected 179,800 population at the turn of the decade will represent a 46.9 per cent increase during the period 1960-70, signficantly higher than the 33.1 per cent increase for 1950-60.

It was observed the growth rate for 1950-60 was comparable to other U.S. metropolitan areas.

Better Than Average

"However, it is believed that the regional growth rate since 1960 exceeds the growth rate in most other U.S. metropolitan cities," the report concluded.

Present population totals and percentage of growth since 1960 are listed for the region:

	1965	5-year growth rate (per cent)
Appleton	56,000	15.78
Neenah	22,300	23.74
Menasha	16,900	15.38
Kaukauna	11,800	17.42
Kimberly	6,000	13.13
Combined Locks	2,200	53.41
Little Chute	5,600	9.86
T. of Menasha	8.10	48.45
Harrison	3,800	32.23
T. of Neenah	3,200	38.30
Buchanan	2,800	48.09
Vandenbroek	700	62.99

New Role for Ministers, Priests

Troubled Seek Clergy for Counseling

"About 42 per cent of the people who have sought help for their mental problems have turned to their ministers, thereby adding another area of specialization, known as pastoral counseling, to the ministry," Appleton area ministers and priests were told Monday.

Speaking on "Counseling and the Pastor," at the monthly meeting of the Ministerial Association was the Rev. Gordon Gravenor, Green Bay, executive director of the American Foundation of Religion and Psychiatry, Inc.

"This specialization has come about in about the last 10 years," the Rev. Mr. Gravenor said, adding that this service fulfills one of the two functions of the Church — proclamation of the Word and providing loving service.

Pastoral counseling was not planned, it merely came into being as response to human needs, he said.

Relieve Suffering

"In spite of the fact that there is so much suffering in the modern world, there is a great deal of hope that this suffering can be lessened if people turn to their minister for help," the pastor said.

Indications are, he said, that of the 42 per cent of people who seek help from their ministers, only about 10 per cent deal with religion.

"And even of this 10 per cent, religious problems often only serve as a screen for deeper concerns," the Rev. Mr. Gravoner added.

He also told the audience that whenever a problem arises, other service agencies, such as Alcoholics Anonymous, should be considered. "After all," he said "we are not alone in trying to help our fellow man, and shouldn't ignore the knowledge provided by modern science."

The director also listed some problems which pastoral counseling has to face.

"There is a tendency to imitate too closely the clinical methods such as setting a time and a place for counseling. Often, it is just as important to speak to the person immediately and in an informal setting," he said.

Another problem the pastor faces is the apparent separation of his two duties. "Often the minister has to counsel the person in light of one situation and speak in the light of another situation in the pulpit on Sunday," the pastor said.

Touching on the subject of the pastoral counseling centers, such as the one in Green Bay, the Rev. Mr. Gravoner outlined some of the ways such centers can assist the pastors.

Resource Center

It serves as a resource center within the context of the Christian faith; provides training and learning opportunities for parish ministers who wish to learn more about pastoral counseling; can train lay people in the Church who could assist the pastor and serves as a place where the pastor can turn if he or his family need the counsel of another pastor.

"After all, we can't face the depths in our parishioners if we haven't discovered the depths in ourselves," he said.

There now are about 200 such centers in the United States, making it possible for the church to begin recapturing the ancient tradition of healing, the Rev. Mr. Gravoner added.

Driver Nabbed After Police Chase, Is Jailed, Fined $750

WAUPACA — Frederick G. Schulz, 25, 2801 Church St., Stevens Point, who crashed his car into two parked vehicles and the Wolf River Oil Co. show room at Fremont Saturday night while attempting to flee from a state patrolman was fined a total of $750 and sentenced to six months in the county jail Monday in Municipal Justice Court.

Schulz pleaded guilty to fleeing to avoid arrest and was fined $300; reckless driving, $200; illegal use of license plates, $50, and hit and run, $200. The six-month jail sentence was mandatory for driving after his driver's license had been revoked. It was his third conviction for driving after revocation.

Schulz was arrested Saturday evening after he was involved in a hit and run accident near Waupaca on U.S. 10. Then, after being stopped by a state patrolman, he fled. Chased at speeds of more than 110 miles per hour, Schulz sideswiped the bridge at Fremont, lost control of his car on a curve and skidded into two parked cars in front of the Wolf River Oil Co. display room.

Schulz said in court Monday that he had been drinking and now realizes that he was wrong in attempting to run away from the police.

Youth Jailed for Torture, Death of Cow Near Oneida

An 18-year-old Kenosha youth, who authorities said tortured a pregnant cow to death on Thanksgiving evening, Monday morning was sentenced to three months in the Outagamie County jail.

Outagamie County Judge Gustave J. Keller, in sentencing Robert W. Cleereman, commented, "I have difficulty in understanding the commission of an act such as this. We're not going to put up with this."

Cleereman, who told the court he had been drinking for about nine hours Thanksgiving Day, entered a barn on the Michael Henn farm near the Ranch and Culbertson roads in the Town of Oneida. He reportedly was on his way home from a tavern when he stopped in the barn to get warm. The cow and the unborn calf were found dead the next morning.

Investigators apprehended Cleereman Friday after they followed his footprints to a nearby farm occupied by his brother. Cleereman told them he entered the barn about 9:30 p.m. Nov. 24.

The youth had pleaded guilty when he was arraigned late Friday afternoon and was ordered sent to jail without bond until this morning.

Judge Keller, after sentencing the youth, told him, "When you get out of jail, try to be a human being." Cleereman broke down when the sentence was pronounced.
